From Miss Spence.

FORT SIMPSON, B.C., Sept. 4th, 1896.

We have had a busy and a prosperous year throughout. While on one hand we have enjoyed considerable sunshine and communion with our blessed Master, on the other hand it has been fraught with anxieties and dark shadows, which seemed so hard to penetrate. But we know and believe that "our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory." Even in our saddest moments we have been cheered and impressed
