

more in "This Hall," and spoke of the glorious influences surrounding young men in Woodstock College. The "Manual Training" department was highly praised by him. Before leaving the chapel to inspect the rest of the College buildings the Lieut.-Governor requested the Principal to grant a half holiday to the students, and, considering the source from which it came, our worthy Principal granted the request. As our visitors drove out of the gate the whole school drawn up in line gave them three hearty, British cheers.

THE ANNUAL GAMES.—The annual games of the College were held on Saturday, Oct. 8th, and were witnessed by a large number of prominent townspeople. In spite of the inclemency of the weather, each event was so well contested that everything proved to be remarkably successful, everyone feeling well satisfied with the day's pleasure. The officers of the day were: Starter, W. G. Clarke; Clerk of Course, A. L. McCrimmon, M.A.; Judges, D. W. Karn, C. S. Kerr, B.A., J. I. Bates, Ph. M.; Chairman of Committee, H. S.
