OUR

Sabbath School Publications.

To Superintendents and Teachers.

We shall be glad to forward specimen copies of the Sabbath School Papers published by the undersigned. They are three in number, and have all been before the Canadian Public for several years.

It is claimed for the SABBATH SCHOOL PRESBYTERIAN that no better paper for Presbyterian Schools can be got anywhere. During the past and current year a good deal of mater has appeared in its columns well calculated to awaken the interest of the young in ou Foreign Missions and other Church work; the illustrations have been attractive; and the general contents of such a character as would prove interesting to the older scholars. During 1883, our best efforts shall be directed to making this paper, if possible, more useful than at any previous period since its compleneement, seven years ago

If your school has never yet given the SABBATH SCHOOL PRESBYTERIAN a trial, you are invited to do so for the coming year. It may not be quite as low-priced as some American publications we could mention. It is certainly very much better, and cheaper too, if QUALITY OF PAPER and PRINTING and SULIABILITY are taken into account. The rice will be found the same as charged for a similar publication issued by the American Presbyterian Board

GOLDEN HOURS, a bright and beautiful monthly, will also be continued at prices given below. The reading in this paper is quite different from that appearing in the SABBATH SCHOOL PRESBYTLRIAN, with the exception of the Lesson, which is the same in both publications. GOLDEN HOURS IS UNDENOMINATIONAL.

EARLY DAYS, a favorite with the jurior and infant classes, is published twice a month. For some time past we have been given in its pages a series of short Bible stories, with appropriate illustrations. In the coming fear the wants of the young shall have careful consideration. The Story Lesson—a useful feature of the paper—will be continued; more illustrations will be used; and in every respect EARLY DAYS, in the months that are to come, will take a step in advance on its past record. EARLY DAYS is also under NOMINATIONAL.

The intention is to make all the papers agricer than ever before, thus rendering them more and more worthy a largely increased patronage at the hands of those who are unwearying in their efforts for the highest good of the "limbs of the flock"—the "children of the Church."

Parcels of specimen copies sent fee on application.

CRAB APPLE JELLY,-Boil the apples, just water enough to cover them, until er. Mash with a spoon, and strain out tender. juice. Take a pint of juice to a pound sugar; boil thirty minutes, and strain the juice. through a hair sieve.

ZEPHER CAKES.—Excellent fea cakes. Wash the salt out of nearly a quarter of a pound of butter; add to it a quarter of a pound of powdered sugar and three well-beaten eggs, a teaspoonful of rose water and flour enough to make a thin batter; stir till the batter is perfectly smooth and so light that it will break as it falls against the sides of the mixing lowl; fill well buttered muffin moulds (small) nearly half full with the mixture and bake in a quick oven; serve hot with ture and bake in a quick oven; serve hot with newly-made butter.

CORN CAKES -One cup of Indian meal, two cups of flour, three eggs, yokes and whites beaten separately, a small tea-cup of sugar, half a cup of butter, two cups of rich sour milk, one tea spoonful each of soda and solt. Stir the butter un'il creamy, heat the solts to a froth and the whites until stiff, and put together lightly. The salt and soda should be mixed thoroughly with the flour and meal. Next stir the butter into the middle, turn in the eggs and sugar, and beat to a batter. Now as this mixes, add the sour milk, stirring rapidly. Beat hard until smooth and light. Bake in hot gem-pans or small cake-tins.

TEA-CAKE WITHOUT EGGS .- A tea-cake that can be made without eggs is something to be desired. Follow this rule: One coffee-cup of pulverized sugar, two large table-spoonfuls of butter; rub the butter and sugar together till they are smooth as cream; add half a cup of sweet cream (of course mi k can be used), one cup and a half of flour, half a teaspoonful of soda; bake in a hot oven; of this description should be eaten while fresh. Another cheap cake is made by using resu. Another cheap take is made by using egg, one cup of sugar, one cup of milk, a tablespoonful of butter, a little nutmeg and mace, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, and enough flour to make a light batter.

BOILED FOWL WITH MACARONI. - Break BOILED FOWL WITH MACARONI.—Break twelve sticks of macaroni in pieces about two inches long; throw them into one quart of boiling water, add salt and pepper. Boil rapidly for twelve minutes, then take up and drain off the water. Season with one tablespoonful of butter, and add more salt if necessary. After the fowls have been singed and cleaned, stuff with the macaroni. Truss them and then only in a found table table. and cleaned, stuff with the macaroni. I russ them, and then pin in a floured cloth and plunge into enough holling water to cover them. Boil rapidly for fifteen minutes; then set back where they will just simmer for from one and a half to two and a half hours. time of cooking depends upon the age of the birds. Serve with an egg or a Bechamel sauce. The quantity of maceroni given is for two fowls. Plain boiled macaroni should be two fowls. Plain boil served with this dish.

AMBER SCUP OR CLEAR BROTH. AMHER SCUP OR CLEAR BROTH.—Into soup is served at almost all company dinners. Take a large soup bone (say two pounds), a chicken, a small slice of ham in a gallon of cold water, and boil slowly for five hours; then add an onion, two sprigs of parsley, half a small parsnip, half a small parsnip, half then add an onion, two springs of parsiey, mair a small carrot, half a small parsnip, half a stick of celery, three cloves, pepper and salt. Strain the soup into an catthen bowl and let it remain over night. Next day remove the cake of fat on the top: day remove the cake of fat on the top; take out the jelly, avoid the settlings, and mix it into the beaten whites of two eggs, with the shells. Buil quickly for half a minute; then, placing the kettle on the hearth, akim off carefully all the scum and whites or the eggs from the top, not stirring the soup itself. Pass this through the jellybac, when it should be quite clear. This bag, when it should be quite clear. This soup may then be put aside and reheated before serving. Add then a large spoonful of fore serving. Add then a large spoontur or caramel, as it gives it a richer colour, and also
