PRINCIPAL KAIN recently laid the memorial stone of new buildings in connection with Barclay Church, Edinburgh. These include ladies' waiting-room, class room, and a hall to seat 350. The cost, with site, is about $23,500, of which fully the half is already contributed.

It is a curious fact that the official list of the Indian Army still contains the name of the Archbishop of York, who appears to have been drawing a pension of about $650 a year ever since he retired from the Madras Establishment in 1852, after five years' service, with the rank of lieutenant.

A CORRESPONDENT in the Glasgow Herald asserts that the membership of the Barony has gone down since the opening of the new church with its liturgical services, and this notwithstanding the abolition of seat rents. He alleges that a great many respectable people are being driven from the churches of their fathers by these innovations.

Williamson of St. Cuthbert's, Edinburgh, a native of the parish. A scheme for erecting a jubilee hall for the church called forth a liberal collection.

Testimonials. Note the following:—

SMITHS FALLS 3rd June, 1890.

We are highly pleased with the No. 36 Superior Furnace which you placed in our St. Andrews Church last season, and which heated our Church and Sunday School Room adjoining, containing in all 70,000 cubic feet, to our entire satisfaction. All other furnace manufacturers claimed that two furnaces would be necessary. Your furnace is easily managed, free from dust and gas. The system of ventilation in connection with the heating has proved highly satisfactory. We have effected a great saving of fuel and labour, and are well pleased in every way.

Messrs. Burrow, Stewart & Milne.
GENTLEMEN—We take much pleasure in expressing our entire satisfaction with your Superior Jewel Furnace, having used it during the past winter in heating Chalmers Church in this town. Our Church contains 60,000 cubic feet, with eight large windows and four entrances at each end of the room. All parts of this large room have been most comfortably heated with a very moderate amount of coal. Respectfully yours, W. H. WALLACE,
Sec. Board of Trustees Chalmers Church.
