Mercantile Summary.

A MINOR dry goods concern at Ottawa, named Bourcier & Co., have assigned to P. Larmonth. Mr. Bourcier has been using his wife's name, having failed several years ago as one of the firm of Bourcier Bros.

LIABILITIES $2,150,000, assets $39,000, is the showing made by the assignee in the wrecked firm of Field, Lindley, Wiechers & Co., Wall st., New York. This is one of the worst failures in the history of that storied street.

A PROMINENT general dealer at Windsor Mills, Que., Amie Trudeau, has been asked to assign, and it is stated owes about $18,000, with assets nominally about the same. He is reported to have been on accommodation to some extent lately with J. C. Bedard, of Richmond, who failed.

The business of Mr. John Leckie, dealer in fishermen's supplies, of this city, was always more or less extensive in the province of British Columbia. It now demands supervision from a local branch which has been opened in Vancouver, with Mr. R. J. Leckie as representative.

In Owen Sound the firm of Kilbourne, Bishop & Co., dealers in dry goods, etc., Fred. S. Kilbourne being the sole partner, compromised with his creditors at 65 per cent. on liabilities of $25,000. Since this failure he has had great difficulty in making any progress. Now another assignment is in order. This concern is among the oldest dry goods houses in the town, and at one time had a good surplus.—R. J. McLoughlin, general storekeeper, at Wallaceburg, has been in business seven years and never had any surplus outside of his business. He was always inclined to extend too much. Now he has assigned, and a meeting of creditors will be held next week in London.
