Mercantile Summary.

WE REGRET to learn that Mr. M. Shewan, who has long carried on a book trade under the St. Lawrence Hall, Toronto, has been compelled to succumb under the pressure of adverse circumstances.

ONE OF the most remarkable failures of recent occurrence that has come to our knowledge, is that of Mr. Chamberlin, druggist, of Strathroy. The retail drug business has always been looked upon as being a profitable branch of trade, but the facts in this case show at least that there are exceptions to that rule. In two years Mr. Chamberlin managed to lose, according to a statement shown us, about ten thousand dollars. The liabilities show a total of $13,000, with not over $3,000 to $4,000 of assets. How this rather startling result has been arrived at in two years, is the somewhat interesting problem which his creditors are now trying to solve.

THERE is reason to anticipate an excited wool market when the coming season opens, and very high prices are likely to rule. We understand that several buyers have already been through the country endeavoring to
