BRIEFLETS.

Mrs. J. B. Monk left for Montreal last Saturday.

Rev. Father Fillion, of St. Jean Baptiste, came to town yesterday.

Rev. Fathers George and Audemard, O. M. I., were present at University Convocation.

Dr. A. J. Devine has nearly completed arrangements for taking possession of the late Dr. Higginson's house.

Rev. Father Kullavy, O. M. I., says Mass at the Immaculate Conception on week-days during Father Cherrier's absence.

Rev. Father Cherrier was suddenly called away by a telegram last Friday and immediately took the N. P. train for St. Paul.

Last week's rain did much good in brightening up the verdure and the foliage; but farmers are like Oliver Twist, they want more.

Brown and Green each added an "e" to their names after they got into the swim, on the principle that rich people enjoy more ease than the poor.

Sister Parent, of St. Boniface Hospital, left in view of a few weeks' rest, for Montreal last Thursday, accompanied by Sister Anthime, who has long been an invalid.

There are over two hundred Roman Catholic families of Galicians in the neighborhood of Dominion City. Rev. Fr. Kullavy, O.M.I., will visit them next Monday.

We tender our heartfelt condolence to the Rev. Mother Vicar of the Grey Nuns, whose mother, Mrs. Dionne, died suddenly of heart disease last week. She had been expecting and preparing for death for some time past.

R.I.P.

The new convent of the Sisters of Jesus and Mary in St. Boniface is now roofed in. It stands in the middle of the twenty-two acre lot which constitutes the College grounds, and is separated therefrom by a poplar grove.

The latest report from over sea brings the news that "Ian Maclaren," author of "Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush," is to be tried for heresy. It must be granted that Sienkiewicz, Marion Crawford and Huysmans are more fortunate. Perhaps it may yet be learned that, as is often charged, the Church is not a tyrant standing ready to slay her children of genius. Maclaren deserves a better fate.—MIDLAND REVIEW.

Mrs. McHugh, of Calgary, was in town last Friday, visiting her son Frank at St. Boniface College. She continued her journey next day to Ottawa, where she will stay with her sister Mrs. (Judge) O'Gara.

We Manitobans are so used to fine weather that anything like continued rain affrights people who elsewhere would positively revel in a delightful downpour such as we had last Sunday. Hence the small attendance at the evening services.

Mr. McCaffrey, of Fort Francis, went to St. Boniface Hospital last week for what he feared was a cancer, and was greatly relieved when examination revealed merely caries of a portion of a rib. The operation was quite successful and the patient is looking very well.

Letellier and St. Pie.

Last Sunday evening we had an unexpected treat. On arriving at Church for Vespers we saw that we had distinguished visitors. We noticed in the sanctuary Rev. Father Fillion, of St. Jean Baptiste, Rev. Father George, O.M.I., and Rev. Fr. Audemard, O.M.I. After the singing of the hymn, "Esprit Saint, descendez en nous," our priest, Rev. Father Jutras, introduced Father Audemard, a missionary from Fort Good Hope, near the North Pole, and not very far from the Klondike, who kindly treated us to an account of his life among his good Indians. We were much edified and could not help thinking of all the sacrifices these devoted missionaries impose upon themselves for the love of God.

SMILING ERIN.

The "Graphic" points out that London averages 1075 hours' sunshine a year, Greenwich 1277 hours, but Ireland averages 1486 hours. An average June in England has about 180 hours' sunshine, and we have seen that last month Brighton had 218 hours. But Ireland has a customary average of nearly 200 hours—198.41 is the exact figure. May has actually 209 hours' sunshine against 160 in England (140 only, at Westminster). Clearly we have nothing to set beside the sunny glories of an Irish spring. July and August are sunnier in England than in Ireland but January, February, November, and December are not nearly so gloomy to the west of St. George's Channel as they are on our side of the water.—Cath. NEWS. (PRESTON).

A PHILOSOPHICAL VICAR.

From the Chicago Inter-Ocean.

A dishonest gardener of the Rev. S. C. Malan had received notice of discharge, and after an unsuccessful attempt to vindicate his character by plausible platitudes, said mournfully to the vicar:

"Ah, sir, you will miss me before I be gone half an hour!" "I shan't mind that," answered Mr. Malan, cheerfully, "if I don't miss anything else."

To be idle is the hardest of all tasks. Our grandmothers understood this and even in their leisure moments were never found without some little task in their hands, if it were only knitting, tatting or crocheting. There was a reason for this that does not appear upon the surface. Our grandmothers were healthy women, imbued with a spirit of ambition and activity that would not permit them to be idle.

If many modern women are much less active and more given to idleness than the stately dames of yore, it is because they enjoy a smaller measure of good health. A woman who suffers from weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organs, who is racked with pain, and tortured with headaches and nervousness, cannot be active and helpful. Idleness and invalidism are the natural results of suffering of this description. The poor invalid woman is not at fault, save in her ignorance of her own physical make-up or neglect of her womanly health.

Thousands of women are neglectful in this way because they shrink from the embarrassing examinations and local treatment insisted upon by the majority of obscure physicians. Dr. R. V. Pierce, for thirty years chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., has discovered a wonderful medicine that cures all diseases peculiar to women, in the privacy of the home, without the necessity of these embarrassing ordeals. This great medicine is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It acts directly on the delicate and important organs that bear the burdens of wifehood and motherhood. It makes them strong, healthy and vigorous. It heals internal ulceration and inflammation and stops debilitating drains. It transforms weak, nervous invalids into healthy women.

BUYING DRUGS

Is entirely a matter of confidence, as in no other business is sophistication easier; nor does any other avenue afford so ready a means of disposing of worthless articles. You can buy a pair of shoes for $1 or $10—it's entirely a matter of quality. There is as much difference in the quality of drugs as there is in shoes, except in purchasing one you can use your own judgment, in buying the other you are entirely dependent upon the honesty and judgment of the Druggist.

In one case it is only a matter of comfort and appearance, and in the other frequently of LIFE or DEATH.

You can always rely with the utmost confidence on the DRUGS and Medicines which you get at

DEAR SIR,—Am selling your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" in this locality. I have customers who come 20 miles for the sake of getting Morse's Pills. This speaks for itself as to their value. I use them in our family with "the most satisfactory results." My wife has been cured of "sick headache" by their use. We could not do without them.

Yours, etc.,

DO YOU NEED A WATCH?

We sell them, sell them at such an exceedingly low price that you can't afford to go watchless. Got'em all sizes and styles. But we'll just mention two:

AN EDGEMOUNT WALTHAM WATCH, best movement made, hunting case, accurate time-keeper, handsome engraved Duerber case, heavily gold-plated—last for all time. Ladies' or gentleman's size.

We'll send it to your address with privilege of examination. If it's not entirely as represented, send it back—costs you nothing. If you like it, pay the agent express charges and $6.50.—That's fair. Or this—

A HUNTING CASE WATCH, beautifully engraved case, first-class movement, any size, heavily plated (14k)—looks just like a $40.00 gold watch—keeps as good time as any of them. Sent to your express agent with privilege of examination—same conditions as all our watches sent out—and if you like it, pay him $3.95 and express charges.

If you take our word for it and SEND MONEY WITH ORDER, a handsome chain goes with either, and express charges are paid by us for the prices named above.
