

SAUL F. RAE

Mr. Rae was born in Hamilton, Ontario on December 31, 1914. He is a graduate of the University of Toronto and has studied at the Universities of London, Oxford and Princeton.

He joined the Department of External Affairs in 1940 and has since served in London, Algiers, Paris, and Washington. In 1955 he was appointed Alternate Delegate, Vietnam Commission, and Adviser to the Canadian Commissioners of the International Supervisory Commission in Indochina. He was appointed as Minister at the Embassy in Washington in 1956.

Mr. Rae is married and has four children.

.....

H. B. ROBINSON

Mr. Robinson was born in Eastbourne, England on March 3, 1919. He received his early education in Vancouver and is a graduate of the Universities of British Columbia and of Oxford, where he was a Rhodes Scholar. He served with the Canadian Army in the United Kingdom and North-western Europe.

Mr. Robinson joined the Department of External Affairs in 1945 and has served abroad in Canada House, London, and in the Canadian Embassy, Paris. Since 1956, he has served in Ottawa.

Mr. Robinson is married and has four children.

.....

J. K. STARNES

Mr. Starnes was born in Montreal, Quebec, on February 5, 1918. After being educated in Canada, Switzerland and Germany, Mr. Starnes received the Degree of Bachelor of Arts from Bishop's University in 1939. During the Second World War, Mr. Starnes was a member of the Canadian Army until 1944, at which time he joined the Department of External Affairs and served with the Canadian Legation to Allied Governments, London, England. He has since served with the Canadian Permanent Delegation to the United Nations, New York, the Canadian Embassy, Bonn, and with the Secretariat of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization in Paris. He was appointed Head of Defence Liaison (2) Division in 1959 and earlier this year became an Acting Assistant Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs.

Mr. Starnes is married and has two children.

.....

ROSS CAMPBELL

Mr. Campbell was born in Toronto, Ontario on November 4, 1918. After receiving the Degree of Bachelor of Arts from the University of Toronto in 1940, Mr. Campbell joined the Royal Canadian Navy Volunteer Reserve. In 1944 he was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross. Upon discharge from the Navy in 1945, he joined the Department of External Affairs.