

2.

Boundary Waters Treaty of 1909, that boundary waters shall not be polluted on either side to the injury of health or property on the other.

The Embassy of Canada avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Department of State the assurances of its highest consideration.

Washington, April 15, 1980.