

- Atomic Energy of Canada Limited has provided an expert cost free to the International Atomic Energy Agency to work on the international assessment of the radiological consequences of Chernobyl.
- Atomic Energy of Canada Limited and the Atomic Energy Control Board are identifying scientific research projects to be conducted in the affected areas.

-30-

For more information, media representatives may contact:

Media Relations Office
External Affairs and International Trade Canada
(613) 995-1874