but he wrecked it right at the finish. The hon. member for Calgary West (Mr. Smith) also told us that only on the route via Calgary could you see the scenery of the Rocky mountains. I contend that is a statement nobody but a blind man would make. I want to deal with the arguments made by both these members. I do not think it is right to allow them to stand, when they are without foundation, without at least explaining them to some extent.

On motion of Mr. Fair the debate was adjourned.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Fournier (Hull): Tomorrow we will try to conclude the debate on this resolution. Then we will take up Bill No. 149 with respect to bankruptcy. I understand it is to go to the standing committee on banking and commerce. Then we will resume the debate on second reading of Bill No. 144, an act to amend the Combines Investigation Act. If any time is left we will take up two small bills having to do with the Department of Justice, Nos. 64 and 65.

At eleven o'clock the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to standing order.
