

808 DRUMMOND COURT
DRUMMOND STREET
MONTREAL

May 9, 1931.

Dear Sir Arthur,

Gordon Glasco phoned me after seeing you yesterday, and I was deeply pleased to hear that you had so kindly agreed to write an article on your trip to the Orient for the June number of the "News". I know that graduates of the University all over the world will appreciate your courtesy in giving them an account