

December third,
1930.

Honourable Smeaton White,
The Gazette Publishing Company,
Montreal. P. Q.

Allow me to thank you for your very kind editorial to-day. The many expressions of good will I have received upon the eve of setting out on this long journey are a great comfort and satisfaction to me. I shall do my best to justify the confidence reposed in me.

With kindest personal wishes and wishing you a very pleasant winter,

Ever yours faithfully,