OVER SIX HUNDRED THOUSAND ATTEMPT TO BURN INVOLVED IN YONGE ST. LEASES

Yesterday Was Heaviest Day in Months in Important Down town Properties - One Freehold Transfer on Main

Yesterday was the biggest day of stood that the lease has fifteen years nonths in transactions on Yonge of run, and was secured from the O'Keefe Brewing Company, the owners of the land. months in transactions on Yonge were negotiated, amounting to approximately $650,000, while one free-hold transfer. No. 406, totaled $90,000.

The most important property involved is the store at 191 Yonge street anorth of Marcus Loew's theatre entrance. This property, which includes 28 feet of ground floor frontage, a large basement and upper floor, has been rented by the Potter Optical Company from the theatre company for ten years at $8600 per annum. Sidney B. Roberts, manager of the business department of M. S. Boehm & Sons, who put thru the street. Several large long term leases rented by the Potter Optical Company from the theatre company for ten years at $8600 per annum. Sidney B. Roberts, manager of the business department of M. S. Boehm & Sons, who put thru the deal, pointed out that it was actually the highest price paid for leasehold property in Yonge street, considering its small frontage. It is the purpose of the lessees to make extensive alterations to the store building and to take possession about Aug. 1.

It is understood that Jesse Applegath has in turn purchased the lease held by the Potter Optical Company on $6 Yonge street. Altho no details of the amount involved in the transaction could be obtained, it is understood that is understood the lease held by the Potter Optical Company on $6 Yonge street. Altho no details of the amount involved in the transaction could be obtained, it is understood that years are the intention of the lessees to use only 20 feet of the thirty odd feet frontage and sub-let the balance. A substantial three-storey building will be erected by the landowner at a cost of approximately $40.000.

The Yonge street from Charles Tugman for $10.000 a year. It is the intention of the lessees to use only 20 feet of the thirty odd feet frontage and sub-let the balance. A substantial three-storey building will be erected by the landowner at a cost of approximately $40.000.

The Yonge street freehold transfer, involving No. 406, was sold by the J. F. Hartz Company. Limited, to the William Long Piano Company for $90,000.

There is a frontage of 32 feet and a depth of 100 feet. The purchasers will take possession in January, 1915, when their lease on 264 West Queen street expires.

Greatest Ever

"The greatest crop the west has ever raised." is the confident note that comes from western Canada. Conditions were never better, and the acreage in grain far exceeds anything in the history of the west. There is now in growing crop about two million acres more than there was last year, which was a new high record up to that date. Homestead entries in Manitoba are fifty per cent. ahead of last year's up to the present time.
