

SELECTIONS—(Continued)

|                                                                         | PAGE     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|
| A ministry of justice.....                                              | 16       |
| An old circuit leader.....                                              | 171      |
| Arbitrations, novel.....                                                | 232      |
| Arbitration, perils of.....                                             | 154      |
| Bailees, bankers as gratuitous.....                                     | 316      |
| Bailees, gratuitous, liability of.....                                  | 120      |
| Bankers liability for forged drafts.....                                | 40       |
| Capital punishment.....                                                 | 203      |
| Children, custody of.....                                               | 179      |
| Circuit leader, an old.....                                             | 171      |
| Conflict of laws.....                                                   | 37       |
| Contempt of court.....                                                  | 201      |
| Contracts entered into on faith of another's representation.....        | 256      |
| Conviction upon circumstantial evidence.....                            | 33       |
| Court, contempt of.....                                                 | 201      |
| Criminating interrogatories.....                                        | 175      |
| Curious tenures in England.....                                         | 317      |
| Dr. Colenso .....                                                | 173      |
| England in 1868.....                                                    | 36       |
| Evidence of footmarks.....                                              | 94       |
| Ex-Chief Justice Lefroy .....                                    | 155      |
| Firm, liability of, for acts of a partner.....                          | 177      |
| Interrogatories, criminating.....                                       | 175      |
| Tendency to criminating.....                                            | 154      |
| Items.....                                                              | 84, 179  |
| Judges salaries.....                                                    | 84       |
| Judicature Commission, reports of the.....                              | 150, 173 |
| Lawyers and clients.....                                                | 84       |
| Legal tender notes before the Supreme Court.....                        | 115      |
| Liability of a firm for acts of a partner.....                          | 177      |
| Liability of gratuitous bailees.....                                    | 120      |
| R. R. Co., for ordinary or personal luggage.....                        | 256      |
| Lives of the Lord Chancellors.....                                      | 38       |
| Luggage, ordinary or personal, liability of R. R. Co.....               | 256      |
| Lynnhurst and Brougham .....                                     | 64       |
| Misera servitus.....                                                    | 63       |
| Modern Text Books.....                                                  | 88       |
| Mortgage money, repayment of—Transfer without notice.....               | 315      |
| Multiplicity of American reports.....                                   | 257      |
| Murder, shall we punish.....                                            | 312      |
| Need distress warrant by corporation aggregate have corporate seal..... | 17       |
| New York penal code.....                                                | 39       |
| Notice, recent decisions on the equitable doctrine of.....              | 60       |
| Ordinary or personal luggage—Liability of R. R. Co.....                 | 256      |
| Partner, liability of a firm for acts of.....                           | 177      |
| Patton , Lord Justice Clerk of Scotland.....                     | 255      |
| Perils of arbitration.....                                              | 155      |
| Plagiarism.....                                                         | 230      |
| Pleaders, special.....                                                  | 122      |
| Punishment, capital.....                                                | 203      |
| Real property law reform—The rule in Shelly's case.....          | 199      |
| Recent decisions on the equitable doctrine of notice.....               | 60       |
| Reports of the Judicature Commission.....                               | 150, 173 |
| Representations—Contracts entered into on faith of another's.....       | 256      |
| Self-satisfaction extraordinary.....                                    | 255      |
| Sergeant's Inn and its portraits.....                                   | 91       |
| Shelley's case, rule in.....                                     | 199      |
| Solicitor's duty of keeping accounts.....                               | 94       |