

BEHAVIOUR.

SEC. XLV. A brother violating any of the provisions of these by-laws or behaving in such a manner as to disturb the harmony of the Lodge, may be admonished by the Master, or after due trial subjected to such punishment as the brethren may have the power to inflict, or his case may be reported to higher authority.

SIGNING BY-LAWS.

SEC. XLVI. These by-laws shall be written in a book, signed by the Master and Secretary and have the seal of the Lodge affixed and every brother shall sign them as a declaration of his submission thereto, and a printed copy shall be delivered to each candidate upon his acceptance for initiation by the Lodge.

ALTERATION OF BY-LAWS.

SEC. XLVII. No alteration shall be made in these by-laws unless by a notice of motion given in writing at a regular meeting of the proposed alteration which shall be duly entered on the minutes and inserted in the notice for the next regular meeting, stating when the proposed alteration shall come on for discussion, and on a resolution regularly moved and seconded in favor thereof being agreed to by two-thirds of the members present, it shall, as soon as it receives the sanction of the Grand Master, become law.
