A LIGHT UNTO MY PATH ;

Or, The Negative and Positive Aspects of Bible Teaching.

By Miss E. J. WHATELY.

Fcap. 8vo, cloth, 1s. 6d.

THE STORY OF NAAMAN.

By Rev. A. B. MACKAY.

"Eight admirable discourses—brief, but full of meaning. They are composed with much fertility of thought and felicity of expression. The scriptural narrative of Naaman is used for the introduction of vivid historical sketches, and is made the groundwork of suggestive and earnest spiritual teaching. The production is throughout excellent and striking. It is the work of a fluent and really eloquent writer, who obviously possesses a quick, rich, and apprehensive mind, and who wields the power which earnestness gives."—The Outlook.

Cheap Edition. Fifth Thousand. Fcap. 8vo, cloth, 1s. 6d.

THE DIFFICULTIES OF THE SOUL.

By the Rev. W. HAY M. H. AITKEN, M.A.

"It is just what it professes to be—a sympathetic, earnest, and practical dealing with the difficulties that keep souls from closing with Christ for salvation."—British Messenger.

Fourth Edition. Crown 8vo, cloth, 5s.

THE FULNESS OF BLESSING ;

Or, The Gospel of Christ as Illustrated from the Book of Joshua.

By SARAH F. SMILEY.

"A series of vivid and glowing studies on the Book of Joshua, prepared with the desire to illustrate from the life of the Israelites the growth and culture of the soul. There is, too, a remarkable freshness and enthusiasm in her style ; and the reader who has not yet explored the beautiful and spiritual teaching of this little-known Old Testament book, will find it not only interesting and informational, but in the truest sense helpful and stimulating."—Christian.

Fourth Edition. Crown 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d.

GARDEN GRAITH ;

Or, Talks among my Flowers.

By SARAH F. SMILEY.

"A charming book, full of heavenly wisdom."—Christian.

"The garden, the seeds, the flowers, the weeds, the fragrance, the processes of gardening, are used as similes of religious life. The literary style is fascinating."—Literary World.
