

present at such meeting, and as many as four-fifths of the ordinary members present and voting, shall vote in favor of such motion. And all such alterations or amendments thereof as may be so adopted, shall take effect from and after the first of January next following their adoption.