Red Sox and Giants Play 11 Innings to a Tie, 6 to 6

First World Series Pictures to Reach Toronto

Umpires and the rival managers conferring before the opening game on Tuesday at the Polo Grounds, New York. Right to left—Silk O'Loughlin, Billy Evans, Charles Righer, Bill Klem, Jake Stahl, manager Boston Red Sox, and John McGraw, Giants' leader.

Red Sox Should Have Won Yerkes Failed to Run Bases

If Red Sox Second Baseman Had Taken Advantage of Return Throw, Boston Would Have Won the Second Game, Says Ty Cobb.

(By Ty Cobb.) Champion Batsman and Greatest Living Ball Player: (Copyrighted 1912 by Philadelphia Press

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 9.-After eleven long innings of the most sensational play in any world's series, with excitement in every one of the penjods, the second game between the New York Giants and Boston Red Sox for the 1912 title ended in a tie, 6—6, being-called on account of darkness. The unexpected assault by the Giant batsmen upon Ray Collins, stellar southpaw of the Red Sox, surprised many followers of the dope, and stamped the New Yorkers as a club that is certainly not easy for a left-handed flinger. Collins was forced to retire in the eighth innings after Murray had slammed a terrific drive into the left-field bleachers for a ground-rule two-bagger. One thing which unsettled the Boston southpaw and put him sox would most likely have been victors. every one of the periods, the second game Yorkers as a club that is certainly not easy for a left-handed flinger. Collins was forced to retire in the eighth innings after Murray had slammed a terrific drive into the left-field bleachers for a ground-rule two-bagger. One thing which unsettled the Boston southpaw and put him into such trouble was an unforgiveable muff of a line drive from Snodgrass' bat by Lewis, the Sox's left fielder. This seemed to unnerve Collins, and Doyle in the carfety Matchewson, which is enough to dishearten almost any pitcher. The carfety Matchewson, which is enough to dishearten almost any pitcher. The carfety Matchewson, wherever into such trouble was an unforgiveable muff of a line drive from Snodgrass' bat by Lewis, the Sox's left fielder. This seemed to unnerve Collins, and Doyle immediately singled over second. McGraw mediately singled over second. McGraw surprised everyone by allowing Becker to hit when it looked like a good play to advance the two runners to third and second, respectively, and Murray, who had been hitting the ball very hard, take a chance on tallying one with a sacrifice the Hooper-Yerkes combination the fight by clean chance on tallying one with a sacrifice the Hooper-Yerkes combination the fight by clean the fight by clean the fight of the fight by clean the fight by cle the when he as does play to advance the two runners to third and second, respectively, and Murray, who had been hitting the ball very hard, take a chance on tallying one with a sacrifice, or both with a hit.

Murray Turned the Trick.

After Becker had hit to second, forcing Doyle, Murray and Come thru with a slashing drive into the left-field bleachers for two bases, putting Snodgrass into the run column and Becker on third. Here collins was removed from the mound and Hall took his place. The latter pitcher sot rid of the first Giant to face him in easy fashion, causing Merkle to pop up an easy foul for Carrigan. But the next batter, Herzog, after a battle of wits with Hall, and fouling high into the boxes, the latter, Herzog, after a battle of wits with Hall, and fouling high into the boxes, the left field. Murray made a fast return to ball in the middle of his mit, only to lose the ball in the middle of his mit, only to lose the ball in the middle of his balance, hit a slashing drive, which bounded into the left field. Murray made a fast return to ball in the middle of his balance, hit a slashing drive, which bounded into the look.

He Red Sox scoreless until the fifth, when he was fighting an uphill battle, by scorfng two fallies. After the Hooper-Yerkes combination the fifth by clean hitting—a single and a triple, espectively—Matty pitched great ball until the firth by clean hitting—a single and a triple, respectively—Matty pitched great ball until the firth by clean hitting—a single and a triple, respectively—Matty pitched great ball until the firth by clean hitting—a single and a triple, respectively—Matty pitched great ball until the firth by clean hitting—a single and a triple, respectively—Matty pitched great ball until the firth by clean hitting—a single and a triple, respectively—Matty pitched great ball until the distance of the first Garden and Speake

T.B.C. EXCURSION

Buffalo

$2.00 Return NIAGARA FALLS $1.55 Return Saturday, Oct. 12, 1912

Via Grand Trunk Ry. T. F. RYAN, Sec. Treas. Smaller Crowd at Boston

BOSTON, Oct. 9.—National Commission's figures for to-day: Total paid attendance, 30,148; total receipts, $58,569; players' shares, $31,-519.26; each club's share, $10,506.42; National Commission's share, $5,-836.90.

Becker and Murray.

Up to the time of the retirement of Collins, after Murray's smash, the southpaw had permitted nine hits, which came in clusters, in the even Innings. Ray was when the ball was seen shooting thru to the plate, almost catching Lewis, who are cond, with the score tied.

O'Brien and Marquard Today.

The piching status for tomorrows and the condition of the plate, almost catching Lewis, who are cond, with the score tied.

O'Brien and Marquard Today.

The piching status for tomorrows and the condition of the piching of the condition and the scond sasked as the piching of the score special to the piching of Ray Collins makes it appear likely to me that Bedjent will star bound it made a bad hop and the captain of the Giants leapsed out and just man pear likely to me that Bedjent will star bound it made a bad hop and the captain of the Giants leapsed out and just man pear likely to me that Bedjent will star bound it made a bad hop and the captain of the Giants leapsed out and just man pear likely to me that Bedjent will star bound it made a bad hop and the captain of the Giants leapsed out and just man of the Giants leapsed out and just man of the Giants leapsed out and just man observed the pickly that he almost got Stahl going to first. Then the Goddess of Luck had no chance to cross Matty, as he struck Wagner's worderful star retiring the Red Sox in the life, and the star pinch battern and the Giants have been retired in the cutting scored one in their enth, which again looked good for Matty. the hard-working pitcher, he experienced added hard luck when Yerkes had been retired in the cutting which and the property bears of the pickly will be shown at the pitch captain which was a way abyae, his head and would have read the pitch will be specially a start of the pitch and the pitch captain which he specially was entered darked that will be grave as a start of the pitch and the pitch captain the pitch captain x-Ran for Myers in tenth xx-Batted for Fletcher in tenth, BOSTONA.B. R. H. O. A. Speaker, c.f. Lewis, l.f.

im. He picked up the ball and on third, Stahl was an easy out.

Tris, only to miss him when made a wild dive for the gan's hard smash in the Sox fourth. plate and beat Arthur by an eyelash, again scoring the run which tied up the game.

Snatched Game Out of Fire.

Matty, with his unmatched nerve and ed. Myers made a bluff towards second of the leave the halted it.

FIT-RITE tailored clothes disappoint you in service; you're ready for a new suit long before they are

Prices range from $15 to $35 Marks & Price 382 Yonge Street

Corner of Gerrard

Both Managers Satisfied

BOSTON, Oct, 9.—"We have stopped the Red Sox on their own grounds," said Manager McGraw tonight, "and the team is very well satisfied. We have shown that the Giants were game and that gameness is going to count a great deal more before the series is over."

is over."
"The Red Sox have always felt that Mathewson was the one man they had to beat," said Manager Jake Stahl tonight. "I think today's game, while it did not end in a victory, shows that we can hit the New Yorker. His work today must have tired him out."

There were several vital mistakes made in today's game. The most disastrous of the blunders deserves lots of comment, for if this play had been handled right, the Sox and Giants would have met in their next game on the Polo Grounds, instead of having to play the tle off in Boston tomorrow. This happened in the fifth innings, with Ball coaching on third, Yerkes had tripled to right centre and on the return the ball got by Doyle at second and rolled slowly thru the infield with no one backing up. Merkle single. Herzog also swatted a three-bag-ger, two-bagger and double; Myers hit two singles and Merkle a triple, all prominent in the run-getting. The catchers were scored on today, Myers falling to throw out an attempted theft, having three bases stolen on him, Carrigan flagged three would-be pilferers by perfect throws, but two of the fleet-footed Glants each annexed a base by the purloining route.

Every bad break of luck in the game was against the Glants, except one very costly muff by Lewis of an easy chance, which paved the way for three New York The control of Collins and Mathewson

The control of Collins and Mathewson, was wonderful when you take into consideration that neither passed a man. There was one good bet that Manager Stahl, overlooked. In the tenth Inning, with Merkle on third, one down, Stahl had Myers passed purposely. Manager Mcved ts

OLD GERMAN LAGER

OLD GERMAN LAGER

they were about to lose this battle, which much depended upon, and they suddenly changed to a fighting, determined bunch of athletes, who presented the most vigorous offensive attack that one would want to witness. Stahl's men simply fought the Giants back and managed to leave the contest a tie when darkness

Tied Score by Daring Base Running-Play in Boston Today - The Details.

the world series between the Boston American Leaguers and the New York Nationals today went eleven innings to a

the world series between the Boston American Leaguers and the New York Nationals today went eleven innings to a tile score of 6 to 6, when darkness put an end to the battle. The contest will be played over tomorrow at Fenway Park.

Tris Speaker, the Red Sox middle fielder, furnished the dramatic climax in the contest, where fortune played fickle favor with first one and then the other team.

The ninth innings found the Red Sox and Giants locked in a tie score of 5 to 6. The Red Sox left-hander, Collins, had been driven from the box in the eighth inmings by a shower of hits, and Hall had been sent to relieve him. Merkle smashed out a three-bagger in the tenth ingloom when he scored on a sacrifice hit.

Idol of All Boston.

In the fading light it was difficult for the Red Sox to follow the course of Mathewson's big drop, and New York felt confident. Yerkes had been turned back to the plate, and the big crowd looked to Speaker. The trio of Giant outer gardeners moved far affeld. Mathewson wound up and sent a fast inshoot up to the plate. Speaker gave a wicked swing and the bail was hurtling far over Eccker's head in centre. Speaker rounded first, then second, and raced to third. The ball caromed from the back fence and Becker selzed it and threw to Shafer, who momentarily juggled it. Speaker hesitated at third, then sped for the plate and sild under Catcher Wilson, who juggled Shafer's relay throw. That tied the score, and the crowd went wild. To make sure that he had touched the plate, Speaker returned and touched the plate as second time before Wilson recovered the ball.

Red Sox fans were not loth tonight to give the Giants credit for a game fight. The Bostons took the jump in the first innings and scored three runs by batting Mathewson hard, but the Giants, undismayed, fought back, and by peppering away at Collins' delivery picked up a run in the second and another in the firth innings, but N and barely stabbing the ball. That saved Gardner's sure score. Possibly Stably would also have tallied on the overthrow.

A Disastrous Blunder.

There were several vital mistakes made in today's game. The most disastrous of the blunders deserves lots of comment, for if this play had been handled right, the Sox and Giants would have met in their next game on the Polo Grounds, ining players actually took their turns at bat. Snograss proved to be the first man up.

There was a cheer when Collins served up the first strike, and on the next ball pitched the New York outfielder hotsted a long hit into the left-field bleachers for two bases. This put Collins in a hole right at the start, but he was right on his task, and turned Captain Doyle back to the bench as his first strike-out victim. Doyle had tried hard to put Snodgrass on third, but Collins' curves fooled him. Becker, who went into the game because Devore does not take kindly to left-hand pitching, was an easy out, Yerkes to Stahl, Snodgrass going to third. Murray also failed to reach first, ending the innings by hitting a weak grounder to Collins, who tossed the ball to first.

The first fireworks in the game were set off immediately Boston went to bat. Hooner opened with an infield hit to Mathewson, and beat Matty's throw to first by hard sprinting. The Boston fans started to cheer, and the volume increased to a tunuit when Hooper outguessed Mathewson and stole second. Myers' throw being a little wide. Fletcher then made his first error, muffing Yerkes' liner. Speaker came to time with a bunt, which Mathewson falled to field, and let run along towards third base, Hooper and Yerkes moving up. Then the Red Sox rooters rose in all the stands and called

Boston Red Sox ... New York Giants.. Game today—New York at Hoston. Probable pitchers — Marquard and

YOU'VE heard of Kuntz's Old German Lager—the latest lager-success of the House of Kuntz. But have you tasted it? It's a pleasure once tasted you'll not forget. The Old German flavor will capture you

-a new delight for those used to ordinary beers. Just you try a bottle-and try it right

"Clothes Service"

When you order clothes here ---we help you all we can. We want the transaction on our part to be above reproach, and, above all, we desire you to go away satisfied.

This is the ruling principle of our organization.

Satisfaction and value, without any deviation, in tailoring of the highest type. A spirit of personal service that money cannot buy.

·It's our privilege to use you right. And we do.

You are invited to see these wonderful "Mountain Cheviot" Suitings we're making to measure at $20. They have a history, too. But just now it's the unusual values we want you to notice. Come in tomorrow.

The House of Hobberlin CASH LIMITED TAILORS

151 Yonge Street Hobberlin Bldg.

3 to 9 East Richmond Street

SAMUEL MAYACO

BILLIARD & POO

English Buying Offices, 55t. George Sq., Huddersfield, Eng

upon Lewis to hit it out, but the best he could do was to drive a bounder to Herzog, who flashed the ball to Myers at the plate, forcing Hooper. Gardner hit one thru the pitchers' box, which Mathewson could not hold, and Doyle, running in, scooped up the ball and threw Gardner out, while Yerkes came across the plate with the first run of the game. Jake Poled a Hit.

Breaking into the run column gave Jake Stahl confidence and he swung viciously at one of Mathewson's out curves and drove it to left for a single, sending home Speaker and Lewis. Doyle took Wagner's high fly, ending the inning. This three-run lead looked extremely good to the Red Sox rooters and they sang while the band played.

Collins retired Merkle on three pitched balls. Herzog waited and with two balls and two strikes on him, drove a smashing three-base hit to right centre field and crossed the plate a minute later when Myers laced out a single, which struck Gardner in the face. Fletcher put up a high fly to Hooper and Mathewson forced Myers at second, Yerkes to Wagner, ending the inning.

ing the inning. The Hitless Wonder Hits The New York contingent whooped things up when Murray opened the Giants' fourth inning with a long drive to right centre. Merkle fouled to Gardner and then Herzog sent out a sacrifice fly to Speaker, scoring Murray. Myers again singled and was left at first when Fietcher batted a high fly to Hooper. Boston added a run to her score in the fifth inning. After Collins had struck out Hooper got his third hit, a single to out Hooper got his third hit, a single t centre, and again stole second. Yerke

Manufacturers of Bowling Alley and Bowling Supplies. Sole in Canada for the celebrated because it never slips, never h thape, always rolls true, hooks and surves easily, does not become greaty, a absolutely guaranteed, is cheaper than any other reputable patent ball and complies with the rules and regulations of the A. B. C All List-class alleys are puting these bails on. Try one on the alley where you roll and you will never roll any other ball

WINES, LIQUORS, ALES, LACE Mail Orders Promptly WE KNOW HOW. E. T. SANDELL, 525 YONGE STREET, TORONTO. Phone N. 7124 and 192. Write for price list.

Brockton Shoes No More 3.50 Less 119 YONGE STREET.

DUNLOP DAY OCT. 19 Dunlop Trophles and $1000 in Friza

came thru with a smashing three-base drive to right centre. With Speaker up it looked as if there would be more soring, but the batter drove a hot liner that Fletcher managed to hald and double up Yerkes at third. In this inning Murray and Snodgrass changed places in the outfield, because of the sun.

Poor Old Fletcher.

Fletcher made his second error of the Fletcher made his second error of game in-the sixth inning, missing Lew graunder. Gardner's sacrifice, Mathe son to Merkle, put Lewis on second he went to third on Stahl's out, a Mathewson to Merkle. He was left third when Wegner rolled a little grouner, which Mathewson, running over wards the first base line, got and toucled out the runner.

the Same

Second Race—sear-olds and up, to the same and the s wards the first base mie, seed out the runner.

Then came the eighth inning, into wh was crowded much of the excitement the game and when the inning was the score showed the teams ted. New York Snodgrass led off by hits a drive to Lewis, which he muffed by singled to centre and Snodgrass took cond. Doyle was forced at second with the stook of the stook o

Continued on Page 7, Column

