The Overcoat Question

We can provide for the man that has always worn a ready-made Overcoat better satisfaction than he has ever had before.

The man that has always had his Overcoat made "to measure" will find in our "ready-for-service" garments just as much style, just as satisfactory a fit, and just as good an all-around Overcoat as the tailor can give him.

He'll find it at a price far below the amount he has been in the habit of paying his tailor.

We've All Styles

We have the Long Coat, the Medium Length, the Tourist Coat, the new Double Breasted Coat, the Paddock Coat, etc., etc.

Whatever your preference may be, we are able to show you

"Just Your Coat"

Conservative prices always. $5 or $10.00 up to $15.00 or $25.00 for extreme luxury. Better, however, and different from the Coats other stores sell at these prices.

Mr. Leavitt refused to state the result of his efforts, but in reply to a question acknowledged that $700 a year for a number of years past would be a fair estimate of the amount secured by Dr. May thru his connection with the publishing houses. The government of Ontario, in return for the provincial grant to the library boards of towns, has the right library boards of towns, has the right to direct to a certain degree what books will be purchased by the boards.

The lists of these books were sent ou Mr. Theodore Young of Smith's Falls by Dr. May as the inspector of published Beyond the Doctor's Aid- libraries. It is stated that the list sent out contained the names of books which should not have been there and the clutches of the much dreaded ticular publishing house. Downfall of Hamilton Man Due to Reckless Liberality and Speculation.

Hamilton, Nov. 3 .- (Special.) -T Hillhouse Brown, the defaulting manager of the Bank of Hamilton's east end branch, will not get a preliminary hearing until Thursday. The case was called this morning at the police court, but the crown was asked for an adjournment. The prisoner's lawyers pressed for a week's adjournment, but pressed for a week's adjournment, but the magistrate would not consent to let the case stand over that l.ng. Three charges have been made by the bank—iasifying accounts, the theft of $553, and forging the bank in-spector's initials. Those who ought to be in a position to know say that the prisoner could not have worked the tung alone, and it is ninted that others may be involved, the nothing that would indicate anything of the kind has been disclosed yet. The prisoner has turned over his life insurance policies, amounting to $47,000, and some real estate in which he speculated with the bank's money With the bonds under which the ex-manager worked the insurance and other securities about $50,000 of the shortage will be His friends claim that it was his liberality that was the principal cause of the trouble. He was somewhat of of the trouble. He was somewhat of a mark for book igent and anyone else who was in trouble was usually able to "make a touch." Not long ago ne was fleeced by a Toronto lawyer, for whom he cashed a cheque. Takes Poison by Mistake.

William Purdy, 137 North Macnabstreet, who has been employed by the board of works as a laborer on cement walks, took carbolic acid by mistake this evening and died within ten minutes after. He got up from his supper and walked into the kitchen, which was unlighted, to get a cough mixture. In the dark he got hold of the carbolic acid bottle, but was not long in discovering his mistake. "I'm poisoned!" he cried, and in a few minutes he was dead. He was 20 years of age and unmarried. Takes Poison by Mistake. 20 years of age and unmarried. Beverley Farmer Suicides.
