Woman's World...

Devoted Specially to the Interests of our Women Readers.
Conducted by Katherine Leslie.

"It would be a very great convenience if the street cars at the junctions would wait for each other when they are not more than half a block away," said one man to another, at the corner of King and Spadina on Saturday night, and two shivering women in their wake mumbled in audible but hearty concurrence in the idea. They had all disembarked from a King west car just in time to see their belt whirled round the corner and up Spadina. A second or two's delay, which could easily have been made up, would have spared five people the chilly delay in the strong wind at the corner of the street. But this is an every day occurrence with passengers who use the cars a great deal; they arrive just in time to see the vanishing rear lights of the cars they want to transfer. It is especially annoying in bad weather and inclines even the best disposed to impatience and the use of improper words. It is nearly as bad for the temper as putting a double fare into the box, but it is certainly more remediable.

Strew on her roses, roses, And never a word of yew; In quiet she reposes, Ah! would that I did too! Her mirth the world required, She bathed it in smiles of glee; But her heart was throbbing, And now they let her be. Her life was turning, turning, In mazes of heat and sound; But for peace, her soul was yearning, To-night it doth inherit, The vasty hall of death.

A model of the first Methodist Church built in Canada, made from a board of the church, has been offered to Miss Fitzgibbon as an exhibit for the Ontario Historical Society's exhibit, which will be held in Victoria College in June next. The difference between this simple little sacred edifice of pioneer days and the swell tabernacles of to-day, is almost as great as the difference between the simple worship of God, instituted by Christ and his Disciples and the complicated, diverse creeded sectarianism of our end of the century.

Simple, homely little buildings were these first churches in Ontario, but they that worshipped so wholeheartedly within the unpretending, plain wooden walls, were the pioneers, mighty heavers of wood and masonry of water, who tamed the wilderness and made it blossom like the rose, and who made the civilized province of to-day possible. They were men of enormous, and as we think of their hardships, their dangers, their unceasing toil, they have all the more reason for our reverent and honor their memory.

An addition to the women's societies of this city was made on Friday night last, when the Alumnae of Glenora street school met to form an "Old Girls' Association," the object of combining to keep track of all the old classmates, and to have periodic reunions, when the good old times can be recalled and talked over. The constitution having been read, and the following members were elected: Honor. President, Miss Patricia Macdonald; Vice-President, Miss Louise Wilcox; Secretary-treasurer, Miss Louise Wilcox.

Our display of newly imported High Class Dry Goods for this season is now at the climax of its excellence. Millinery, Mantles, Costumes, Dress Fabrics, Silks, Laces all in perfect seasonable showing. In the rush of spring time novelties we have taken particular pains that our celebrated

Household Napery department be not overlooked, and to this and our importations for this department show a rigid maintenance of the special qualities and prices always characteristic of it.
