COURT PRACTICALLY CLOSED. Grand Jury's Remarks Concerning

Be Imposed To-Day. The Criminal Assize Court was practically closed yesterday, after the Grand Jurors had made their presentment to Mr. Justice MacMahon. The grand inquest recommended the searching of prisoners charged with being drunk. The jurors advised the holding of concurrent civil and criminal courts. The presentment contains the following reference to the Grand Jury systems.

authorities have no jurisdiction in the matter. The presentment contains the following reference to the Grand Jury system.

Thasmuch as the cases which are referred to a Grand Jury have been and are regularly examined in a magistrate's court by competent legal gentlemen, this reconsideration of evidence for the Crown by Grand Jurors would appear to be to a great extent, if not entirely, superfluous and unnecessary to the securing of justice to the subjects of Her Majesty, and by the said examination in the magistrate's court, no prejudice occurs either to the interests of justice, to the municipality or to trights of any citizens, and by the empanuellist of any citizens, and by the empanuellist of any citizens, and by the purpose intended, can be tried in such court without any additional expense being incurred."

The jurors also expressed themselves as being favorable to the indeterminate sentence as a reformatory measure.

The court, in reply, concurred in all the points touched upon in the presentment.

Much to the surprise of all the court of ficials the Crown prosecutor announced that Michael Jordan, the Crown's chief with wounding, had left the country, and the prisoner was allowed to go on his own bail, to appear for trial when called upon. A jury found S. W. Erman of Montreal guilty of attempting to pick pockets at the Markham Fair. He will be sentenced with the other prisoners convicted at the sittings this morning.

No defence was offered on behalf of John McGuire of Mimico, charged, with criminal assault. Medical testimony proved the prisoner to be insane. He was committee to the Asylum, to awakt the pleasure of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council.

H. R. H. the Prince of Wales Has Passed the 58th Milestone of His Earthly Journey.

London, Nov. 9.—The birthday of the Prince of Wales (who was born Nov. 9, 1841.) was celebrated to-day as usual. St. Paul's, Westminster and other chimes were pealed, the public buildings floated the Royal Standard, salutes were fired at Wirdsor, the Horse Guards parade, and at the Tower of London.

The Prince celebrated his birthday at Sandringham, where he entertained Lord Rosebery and other distinguished guests.

S. Ackerman, commercial traveler, Belleville, writes: "Some years ago I used Dr. Thomas' Kelectric Oil for Inflammatory Rheumatism, and three bottles effected a complete cure. I was the whole of one summer unable to move without crutches, and every movement caused excruciating pains. I am now out on the road and exposed to all kinds of weather, but have never been troubled with rheumatism since. I, however, keep a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Oil on hand, and I always recommend it to others, as it did so much for me. ed

If a subway is built Mr. Rust thinks it will cost in the neighborhood of $60,000.

People who make a daily practice of taking one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal are sure to have perfect digestion, which means perfect health.

There is no danger of forming an injurious habit, as the tablets contain absolutely nothing but natural digestives; cocaine, morphine and similar drugs have no place in a stomach medicine, and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are certainly the best known and most popular of all stomach remedies.

A telegram was despatched to the Emperor expressing the council's gratification at the ending of the Samoa dispute "To the imperishable glory of the Emperor and the honor of Germany." Continuing the telegram said: "The Government, which knew its purpose, was powerful enough to attain it, having succeeded in overcoming difficulties which appeared almost insuperable. The name of Samoa is indissolubly bound up with the earliest beginning of German colonial dominion, German head of blood of brave German sailors has made Samoa German, and the German people could not entertain the thought of giving up the island."

The telegram then proceeded to express to the Emperor the council's humblest congratulations on the new acquisition, beging His Majesty to be pleased to accept the assurances of its unfliching confidence in his Government. A telegram was also sent to Count Von Buelow, the German Minister of Foreign Affairs, thanking him for his brilliant colonial success, which, it said, might well be described as thoroughly national, and declaring that the Min ster possessed the entire undivided confidence of all the colonial circles in the father.
