

GRAND MASONIC "AT HOME"

Brilliant Affair Brought to a Successful Issue.

Grand Master Malone Presented With an Illuminated Address.

Received With Honors by the Craft—The Grand Masters Reply—The Scene a Picturesque One—The Committee Which Arranged the Successful Affair.

The great Masonic event of the season, the annual conversation, and the reception to Grand Master E. T. Malone, held last night in the opera house, was a brilliant and unqualified success in every particular. The function, as Masonic functions always are, was characterized by brightness, beauty, and brotherly feeling. The artistic decorations, the gracefulness of the dancers in the giddy maze, the multi-colored costumes of the ladies, and the soft music, combined to form a scene resplendent in its beauty. About 600 guests were present.

Grand Master Malone was escorted from the Tecumseh by V. W. Bro. C. A. Kingston, and other officers, to the blue room in the temple, where he was received by the distinguished brethren. Meanwhile the ladies were ushered to seats in the balcony. This over, a procession was formed, headed by W. Bro. James A. Smith and Bro. A. G. McWhinney and marched into the opera house, where "grand honors" were accorded W. M. Malone. When the applause had subsided, V. W. Bro. Kingston read the following address:

To E. T. Malone, Esq., Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Masons of Canada, in the Province of Ontario:

Most Worshipful Sir and Brother,—It is with feelings of more than ordinary gratification that your brethren of the Forest City are privileged to greet you this evening as their guest. Very many of them have watched your career, as a member of the craft, with that personal interest and regard which true friendship alone engenders; and they, as well as the signers of this memorial, can personally testify to the high esteem in which you have been held by all who have the welfare of craft Masonry deeply at heart. Your energetic and painstaking work on the board of general purposes of grand lodge for many years marked you as a prospective ruler of the craft in this flourishing jurisdiction—a position you are well fitted to occupy—and the unanimous vote received by you last July in grand lodge served but to emphasize the fact, which has already been tacitly admitted by all, that the Grand East would in the years 1899 have as its occupant a gentleman thoroughly in accord with every work calculated to advance the best interests of Masonry, and at the same time a brother who would command the respect and esteem of every member of the mystic tie.

We are pleased, most worshipful sir, to have you with us tonight. It is an occasion very many of us have looked forward to with pleasurable anticipations, and we trust that not the least pleasing to yourself will be the knowledge that in the hearts of all your London brethren none occupies a warmer spot than M. W. Bro. Elias Talbot Malone, the present grand master of the fraternity in this province.

We ask you, most worshipful sir, to accept these faulty expressions of the feelings which prompted this memorial as not mere lip-loyalty. The London "boys" are with you in every movement you may deem advisable to raise the standard of Masonic honor in the jurisdiction, and guided by your unerring and experienced hand, your endeavor by living up to the noble tenets of the craft, and carrying into everyday life the beautiful lessons taught in its ceremonies to prove to the outside world that a strict adherence thereto invariably results in bettering the moral condition of all its votaries, both as men and Masons.

Be pleased, most worshipful sir, to convey to your esteemed wife and family our best wishes. May your term as grand master be as pleasant to them as it will prove efficacious to us, personally and collectively, and may the Great Architect of the Universe guide and prosper you and yours in every walk of life, is the humble prayer of your London brethren, whom we have the honor on this occasion to represent.

Signed, on behalf of the Masonic fraternity: V. W. Bro. C. A. Kingston, chairman of joint committee; V. W. Bro. John Paul, secretary joint committee; Wor. Bros. James S. Shaw, W. M., St. John's Lodge, No. 20; M. W. Althous, W. M., St. George's Lodge, No. 42; Thos. W. Scandrett, W. M., Kilwinning Lodge, No. 64; William A. Young, W. M., the Tuscan Lodge, No. 155; Arthur W. White, W. M., St. John's Lodge, No. 209a; Charles E. Blanchard, W. M., Corinthian Lodge, No. 320; Frederick A. Andrews, W. M., King Solomon Lodge, No. 378; Harry M. Ryan, W. M., Union Lodge, No. 380.

The address was presented in album form, highly embellished with scrolls of the latest design and coloring. The title page contains the order's emblem, and each subsequent page is a work of art. The engrossing of the address was executed by Bro. Walter H. Morgan.

THE GRAND MASTER'S REPLY.

The grandmaster made the following reply to the address of welcome:

"V. W. Sir and Brethren,—I am greatly impressed with the hearty and magnificent reception tendered me this evening. I would that I had the tongue of an orator, that a fitting response might be made to the words of love and encouragement with which you have greeted me; to the loyalty evinced towards me, as the grand master of Ontario Masons; to the thoughtful and kind references to my family, and to the promises of assistance which I may expect from my London brethren, all of which assure you will encourage me to put forth renewed efforts in the great cause which we all have at heart. I can only speak to you with the tongue of one who takes his Masonry seriously, who is conscious not only of the responsibilities of his office, but of his own limitations and imperfections. Coming, however, among friends, many of whom have known me from boyhood, brethren with whom I have been laboring in the vineyard for twenty-two years, and receiving at their hands this certificate of character, this token of love and esteem, this endorsement of my official actions, I will go forth with renewed strength and hope, with a stronger determination to perform my duty honorably and conscientiously, with a result, I trust, at the end of my term, of an increase in our numbers of a decided improvement in the status of those who are known as 'unaffiliated,' and with a brighter record for deeds of kindness and benevolence.

"The grand master's duties have been fittingly described as 'the sentinel on the watch tower to observe the dangers and to warn the brethren, to suffer no departure from the ancient landmarks, and to so labor as to keep alive the fires of brotherly love, relief and truth in every part of the jurisdiction, and, by precept and example, encourage every Mason to so live that he may exemplify to the world the value of the order to his fellow-man.' If I am to be successful in any small task thus set out, I must, by my life and conduct, be an example to all. I must endeavor to have the brethren believe in me thoroughly, if I cause in my aims and motives, if I can succeed in this respect, I feel positive that the brethren will rally round me in spreading the gospel of brotherly love, and charity, and in demonstrating to the world that in this practical age Masonry is a living, active, and social improvement of mankind, and is in its nature entitled to an existence and to encouragement.

"I have not been idle since my elevation. I have already been over a large portion of the province, and have been cordially and loyally received. Grand lodge has given me able, capable and energetic assistants in every district, who are rendering me valuable assistance, and who, I am positive, earn the plaudits of grand lodge at its next session.

"I would not be honest if I did not acknowledge the assistance which I receive on all occasions from the Forest City, the home of good men and loyal Masons, the home of a prosperous, happy and hospitable people, a city whose sons fill and adorn the highest positions in the state, on the bench, in the professions, in education, and in mercantile pursuits.

"London district can always be depended upon to produce work for the grand lodge that places it in the grand rank of prosperous and progressive districts. The brethren who represent you in grand lodge are noted for their ability, energy and loyalty, and occupy prominent positions in the Masonic parliament. For instance, the position of deputy grand master is ably filled by R. W. Bro. Hargreaves, whose faithful services entitled him to recognition long ere this, and on whose assistance I can at all times rely. I could mention several other brethren whose names are as household words with me, but all will agree with me that the deputy grand master, the brother who deserves special mention, who ably represents this city, whose services to grand lodge are invaluable, and who is a leader among his brethren, is R. W. Bro. John S. Dewar.

"I take pleasure in thus referring to him, and candidly confess that my advancement in the craft is in no small measure due to him."

If I possessed the wisdom with which a grand master is presumed to be endowed, I would now follow the example of a friend of mine, who was a student in attendance at one of the Toronto colleges. The professor was in the habit of testing the ability and self-possession of the students by sending them up into the pulpit with a sealed envelope in their hands, containing the text of the sermon or address each one was to deliver on the spur of the moment. My friend, on opening his envelope, found this subject and his direction: 'Apply the text of Zacheus to your own circumstances and call to the ministry.'

He delivered himself as follows: 'My brethren, the subject on which I have to address you is a comparison between Zacheus and myself. The first thing I read about Zacheus is that he was small in stature, and I never felt so small as I do at the present time. In the second place we read he was up a tree, which is very much my position. And, thirdly, I read that Zacheus made haste to come down, and in this I gladly and promptly follow his example.' But feeble mortal that I am, I cannot resist the temptation to say a few words in terms of congratulation to the committee in charge of this evening's entertainment, and particularly to congratulate them on the presence of so many of the fair sex of the city. This fact alone demonstrates to me and esteem, I am pleased to note the presence of the ladies at a great number of our social functions, enabling them to see for themselves the class of men with whom those near and dear to them associate. I desire to derive from the order, and which has been clearly and forcibly stated by a reverend brother, in the following words: 'Masonry is a helping hand to every woman that is akin by close relationship to any of its members. It is a flaming sword of protection around every woman who has a right to call upon its help. Holy motherhood, helpless and devoted wifehood, loving sisterhood and dependent childhood, are the special wards of our order. Let other women say aught they please against Masonry, but let every Mason's wife, mother, sister or daughter entertain for the order the highest respect and profoundest respect for you, counting no task too heavy or any sacrifice too great to relieve your burden and defend your unsponsored name. Masonry is woman's friend, protecting her virtue and granting her aid.'

And now, my brethren, in conclusion, let me assure you that the events of this evening will ever remain a bright spot in my memory. I feel that I have a place in your warm hearts. I earnestly desire your love and friendship to the end of the chapter. I will greet with pleasure the reports of the deputy grand master and of the other leaders in this district that peace, love and harmony characterize your actions, that you are living examples to the world of the teachings of Freemasonry. Assist me in teaching all creeds and classes our doctrine of the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man; demonstrate to the world that in our society will be found the answer to the question: 'What might be done if men were wise?'

CALICO BALL A BIG SUCCESS

Cash Balance of $315 15 After Deducting All Expenses—Money Will Go to Children's Hospital Pavilion.

The following letter has been received by The Advertiser, in connection with the recent calico ball in the opera house, showing proceeds amounting to $315 15 after all expenses were paid. This amount will go towards the erection of the children's pavilion in the new hospital:

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

For the benefit of all those ladies who worked so willingly and energetically for the recent calico fancy dress ball, and who were unable to attend the final business meeting of the committees held on Monday last, I beg to publish the following financial statement:

Receipts—
By sale of tickets $474 50
By rent of opera box 4 00
Collected by musical committee. 84 00
Collected by refreshment committee 28 00
Total $600 50
Disbursements—
To W. S. Bradford $115 00
To rent of opera house 85 00
To orchestra 54 00
To printing of tickets and programmes 20 25
To advertising committee meetings 60
To Floral Company, for plants for decorations 7 50
To attendant for cloak room 3 00
Total $285 35
By cash balance $315 15
Total $600 50

The ladies of the music committee desire to extend very sincere thanks to the gentlemen of the city who contributed so liberally and courteously towards the expense of the orchestra. I also take this opportunity of acknowledging with great gratitude the generous gift of $50 from Mr. and Mrs. Geo. P. Jewell to the children's wing of the hospital, and $2 from Mr. A. Westman. Perhaps their worthy example will be an inspiration by many others to take a practical as well as sympathetic interest in our deserving charity. It has well been said, that though

"In faith and hope the world will disagree,
But all mankind's concern is charity."

Thanking you for space, yours truly,
SELINA ORMSBY GRAYDON,
Treasurer Children's Hospital Pavilion.

The Way to be Well.

If you are ill it is not you alone who suffer, but those who depend upon you, those to whom you are dear—whether you are a man or a woman. The worst diseases in the world are slight ailments at first. If you are feeling weak, nervous or run down—if you are at all unwell, take and be made bright, active and strong. Recommended by the liberal minded doctor and the trained nurse. But you must get the genuine—substitutes never cured anyone.

CONSTANT FEELING OF LASSITUDE.

From Parrboro, N.S. Leader.

There is scarcely a man, woman or child in the busy mining town of Springhill, N. S., who does not know Mr. Moses Y. Boss, the trusty agent of A. R. Fulton, dealer in carriages and farm implements. Two years ago the writer first met Mr. Boss, and was struck with the extreme pallor of his countenance. He seemed, in fact, like one in the deadly grip of consumption. Recently business again brought him to the home of the writer, but a remarkable change for the better had taken place in the interval. Upon enquiry it was learned that failing health first induced Mr. Boss to go upon the road as salesman in the hope that a change of scene would be beneficial. The result, however, did not meet with his expectations. The food he ate distressed him, and the weakness and feeling of lassitude became intensified. To use his own words, he was so weak and nervous, and used up, that he felt that he "could have dropped down and gone to sleep anywhere." Driving tired him and when at home the slightest labor about his farm was irksome. He was in this hopeless and discouraged condition when a friend recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. He decided to try one box, and before they were gone he found some benefit from them. He then bought four boxes more, and each week found an improvement in his condition. His stomach ceased to trouble him, the feeling of lassitude troubled him no more, and his labors were no longer irksome. By the time he had finished his fifth box, his health was fully restored, and has since continued to be excellent, and he is not backward in telling his friends the sterling worth of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

The Genuine are sold only in Packages like the Brockville, Ont., at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50.

BY WAY OF BELMONT

Annual Meetings of the Belmont and Westminster Cheese Factories.

Hymen Busy in Yarmouth—Several Weddings, on the Tapis, Including That of Elder A. J. Campbell.

Belmont, Feb. 17.—A rousing meeting of the patrons of the Belmont cheese factory was held in the Masonic Hall, Friday, Feb. 10. Wm. Cousins was chosen chairman, and Hiram Pettit, secretary, pro tem. The meeting briefly stated the object of the gathering, and then called upon the secretary to read the minutes of the last annual meeting, which were confirmed.

W. C. Forey submitted the auditors' report of the fiscal year, which was adopted. Wm. Fitzpatrick, the proprietor, spoke of the exceptionally fine quality of milk obtained from the patrons, assuring them that it would make a first-class article of cheese, commanding the highest price in the market, at a cost of $1-per cow, he would buy the cheese and take up the whey gratuitously. Objectionable milk would be sent back. If perchance the deleterious raw material should be used, escaping the vigilance of the maker, and become converted into cheese, the loss, if any, must be borne by the patrons.

The board of management for the ensuing year comprises: Messrs. Robert Watson, John Pettit, A. Y. Taylor, John McNabb and Walker McKellar. Wm. Fitzpatrick, proprietor, was chosen salesman for the ensuing year; salary, $50. W. C. Forey, the station agent of the C. P. R., was re-elected auditor, salary, $15; and Duncan Taylor, clerk of South Dorchester, was re-elected secretary, salary $50. W. A. Taylor will draw the cheese to the station at a remunerative salary.

The total output of the cheese factory for 1898 was 774 tons; receipts, $12,106 75; value of 100 pounds milk, 70 cents; average, 11.17; price, 7.83 cents; expense, $1,730 38; paid patrons, $10,376 35.

WESTMINSTER FACTORY.

The patrons of the Westminster cheese factory met in the curing department of the structure on Tuesday, Feb. 14. N. Carrothers was elected chairman, with David Walker, of Derwent, secretary pro tem. The minutes of the last annual meeting were read by the secretary, and proved to be a very concise instrument. Jacob Manning, auditor, stated that the books were well and truly kept. Archibald Carrothers, secretary-treasurer, then read the report of the fiscal year.

Wm. Fitzpatrick, proprietor, addressed the large gathering, representing the banner township, urging them to feed their stock on nutritious and palatable food, as they would reject milk that tasted of turnip or rape, as well as milk watered and skimmed. If the objectionable material escaped the vigilance of the cheesemaker and caused depreciation of value, the loss would have to be borne by the patrons.

D. R. Dibbs, honorary chairman of the board, spoke of the good feeling which had existed between the patrons and directors, thus lightening the duties of the board very materially.

Messrs. D. R. Dibbs, N. Carrothers, J. G. Dible, M. Wilkins, and W. Vennings were unanimously re-elected directors.

The secretary-treasurer was instructed to negotiate with banks as to the most liberal terms for deposit. There were the competitors for the auditorship: Messrs. John G. Dible, Jacob Manning and David Walker, the maximum salary being $15 and the minimum $12. David Walker was elected.

The season's output of the factory was: Milk, 3,155,709 pounds; cheese, 291,495½ pounds; revenue, $23,180 93; $22,829 27 cash record; manufacturing, $2,914 33; average pound of milk to make pound of cheese, 16.82; average price, 7.9 cents; expense rate per hundred weight milk to patrons, making and expenses deducted, $6 36; balance from last audit, $16 05; interest, $3 75; overpaid, $10 75; salesman, $5; secretary, $55; treasurer, $15; auditor, $14; inspector, $15.

A grand hop was held at the home of D. F. Moore, county commissioner of East Elgin, on Monday night, when a brilliant company participated. The Currie brothers, of Derwent, furnished the music.

The marriage of James Sinclair, a prominent farmer of con. S. Yarmouth, and Miss M. J. McGregor, eldest daughter of John McGregor, of Shedden, took place at the Wilcox Hotel, St. Thomas, on Wednesday, Feb. 13. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Currie, of Knox Church, Belmont.

Communion will be observed in Kilmarin Church, Yarmouth, next Sabbath. Preparatory services will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. John Currie on Thursday evening and Friday morning, assisted by Rev. Mr. McCollivray, of London.

A matrimonial wave has swept over a large area of Yarmouth township, and as a result five members in one family have been caught by the irresistible tide, including the leader of the choir of Kilmarin Church of the above township. The beautiful home of Mrs. Sinclair, Southwold, relic of the late Archibald Sinclair, was the scene of an event which caused a ripple of excitement among society circles, on Wednesday, Feb. 15, when Elder A. J. Campbell, of Yarmouth, and Miss Eva N. Sinclair, of Southwold were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, in the presence of a large circle of relatives and friends. The Rev. George Sutherland, D.D., of Fingst, performed the ceremony. The guests were subsequently banqueted in grand style, after which the elder and his fair spouse left for the elegant home which had been prepared for them.

PETROLIA.

Petrolia, Feb. 16.—The Petrolia and Ennisville Agricultural Society will meet at the Hotel Iroquois on Wednesday, Feb. 22. As it is the annual meeting, business of importance will be transacted.

Born in Petrolia, Feb. 8, a son to Mr. and Mrs. John A. Gibson.

The pedro party given by the ladies of St. Philip's Church on Tuesday evening was largely attended, and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by all. Mrs. D. Milne, of Sarnia, was in town on Wednesday.

The Monday Musicals gave one of their enjoyable recitals last Monday afternoon. The composers for the day were Rossini and Letchitzky.

Mrs. Wright's dancing class in Victoria Hall every Wednesday evening is well attended.

Mr. W. P. Aubin has opened a barber shop in the Archer block, Mr. Aubin has been employed with J. Ley for some time, and then with J. Craig.

Messrs. Adams and McMurray, of Craig, have been appointed inspectors for the Bank of Toronto, are in town this week.

Messrs. George Moncrieff and John Kerr were in London on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hutchcroft were entertained at the residence of Mrs. Ford on Tuesday evening by the members of Christ Church choir and some of their friends. Games and music were indulged in, and afterwards Mr. Craig presented Mr. Hutchcroft with a handsome clock worth $100, and Mrs. Hutchcroft with a prayer book and hymnal from the churchwardens. Mr. Hutchcroft has been a member of the choir for a long time, and has just recently entered the ranks of the benefactors.

The choir of the Baptist Church, under the direction of Mr. Pococke, of London, are preparing for a grand concert to be given early in March.

Mr. John McCort's house, just east of the town, had a very narrow escape from being destroyed by fire the other evening.

Dr. F. W. Mulligan now rides horseback when visiting his patients. Bicycles and carriages are not in it any more with the doctor.

John Hall returned this morning from Sumatra, whence he has been employed for some time. When he left here he went via London, England, and in returning came by Pacific coast, thus making the complete circle.

The Oil Well Supply Company have lately made a large shipment of drilling tools to Borneo.

The Tobacco Habit

Those who are slaves to the habit and desirous of being cured, should give Dr. McTaggart's remedy a trial. Price, 25¢.

The following speaks for itself:

GRASSMERE, Ont., Feb. 8, 1899.

Dear Sir,—I received the second treatment ordered, and inclosed full payment for same. I did not need the second treatment, but have since sold it. The first bottle has cured me, and for which I heartily thank you.

I can recommend it to anyone who desires to stop the use of tobacco by what it has done for me, as I had used it for 30 years, but after the first week I had no wish or desire for it. If my name and address of any use to you, you are welcome to use them. Again thanking you for the cure, I remain,

Respectfully yours,
JAMES SPITAL.
