South of the Ancre we entered the enemy trenches at two places in the neighbourhood of Grandcourt and took prisoners. Early this morning a local operation on a large scale northeast of Beaumont-Hamel was completely successful. Our troops carried an enemy trench on the front of three quarters of a mile and established our position. An enemy counter-attack this afternoon was caught in the open by our artillery and broken up with loss. One hundred and seventy-six prisoners, including four officers, were taken in the operations in this area. "Enemy trenches also were raided last night east of Arrmentieres and northeast of Ypres. Many casualties were inflicted on the enemy. "The artillery activity has been marked in the area north of Bouchavesnes and in the neighbourhood of Le Sars, Beaumont and Forquoyville.

TWENTY MILLIONS LOSS IN MUNITION PLANT FIRE

Canada Car and Foundry Company's Explosives Factory Blown Up—Twenty People Killed and Russian Shells Destroyed.

Special to The Toronto World. Kingston, Jan. 11.—An explosion of 15,000 tons of dynamite this afternoon in the plant of the Canadian Car and Foundry Company, which is engaged in the manufacture of munitions for the entente armies, completely wrecked the main building of the company and threatens to destroy the other structures. Many men who were at work in the plant when the first explosion took place, shortly after four o'clock this afternoon, escaped, but many are missing, and it is thought that the loss of life will reach ten or twelve. The explosion was caused by a fire started in the lathe room, near the magazine. A spark ignited a magazine, and the flames spread quickly, causing the first explosion. The ten buildings of the plant, which covers a square mile, are in the towns of Kingston and Lyndhurst. The first explosion of a Lyndhurst factory destroyed two miles from the scene, have answered the call for help, and the entire forces of the three towns are engaged in the work of salvage. The damage to the plant is more than $20,000,000. Most of this value was in three-quarters of a mile of the Canadian Car and Foundry Company is the largest munition plant in the United States for the manufacture of explosives for the Russian Government. There were 1,000 men at work at the time of the explosion, but most of these escaped.

WAR SUMMARY THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

FOR the first time since the war began the allies have collectively made a declaration of the coming peace terms for Europe. This is done in their note in answer to the request of President Wilson for an exchange of views on peace, and the answer is expected to convince the president and the American people, that no hope exists for opening negotiations with the four central powers at the present time. Briefly, the allies give as their objects in the war, the following: the restoration of Belgium, Serbia and Rumania, with just reparations; the evacuation of the invaded territories of France, Russia and Rumania, with just reparations; the reorganization of Europe, founded on respect for nationalities and guarantees against aggression; the restoration of provinces wrested in the past from the allies by force or aggression, without the consent of the population; the liberation of Turkey from Europe, and the enfranchisement of the populations subjected to the Turks. The allies also say that they are not prepared to accept any peace which does not include the objects and principles of the above. This is the object of the allies will not be made known in detail, however, until the hour of negotiation.

The restoration of Poland as she was territorially when free, as declared officially by the Czar of Russia, is also expressed stipulated, but this comes under the declaration of the allies, in fact, this is one of the strongest declarations made in the note of the allies, and it is a matter concerning the historical verdict of President Wilson on the partition of Poland. The carrying out of this allied object to free subject nationalities will effect the dismemberment of Prussia and the downfall of the Hapsburg empire as it is constituted. The present Prussia and Posen, part of Silesia and, perhaps, Hanover; and Austria will lose Bohemia, the Trentino, Tyrol, Trieste and Pola; and Hungary will lose Galicia, Bosnia and Herzegovina.

In order to act as a sort of foil to the allied note to Wilson the German Government has sent out thru the Wolff press bureau a note to neutral powers, in which it repeats many of the trumped-up charges and mendacious assertions that it has previously made in notices to President Wilson in answer to protest against piracy, and in forgeries of documents perpetrated in Berlin. In a local operation on a large scale, northeast of Beaumont-Hamel, in the Ancre Valley, British troops carried a German trench on a front of three-quarters of a mile, and made 175 prisoners, and beat off a counter-attack early yesterday morning. South of the Ancre the British also penetrated the German trenches in two places and took prisoners, and east of Arrmentieres and northeast of Ypres they also raided opposing trenches. Marked artillery activity is noted on the front between the Ancre and the Somme. The trench-raid, as developed of late, has become a formidable instrument of torture for the hostile soldiers in front-line positions. In the case of the taking of 143 prisoners near Beaumont-Hamel on Wednesday in a section of a trench, Gen. Maurice says that these men were taken by only 100 Britons.

The British army is now holding ninety, or twenty miles additional front in France, for the lines held during the battle of the Somme were said to be seventy miles in length. The British Army is now holding a front of 100 miles before it as many Germans as are held on the French lines from Rhema to the Swiss border. Moreover, the climatic and ground conditions under British control are much more than they are on the rest of the front in the west. This is now being actively felt, for the water is near the surface and adverse weather has to be borne by the soldiers.

In Mesopotamia the British forces have made further progress in fighting the Turks in a bend of the Tigris River, northeast of Kut-el-Amara, says an official communication issued last night. The greater part of the Turkish trenches in this area have now been cleared, and the trenches examined show that the Turks have suffered numerous casualties. In one communication trench 800 yards long 200 Turkish dead were found. A total of 175 prisoners has been taken. The capture of Rafa, on the Egyptian border, by a British force, as announced yesterday, and the destruction of a Turkish relief column four miles out of this fortress, marks the beginning of the British invasion of Palestine. Six lines of ten hours, before Rafa, and 1600 Turks were captured and 900 killed or wounded. Rafa, which is 30 miles northeast of El Arish, is on the border of Palestine; it is within striking distance of Beersheba and seventy miles from Jerusalem. Beersheba is probably the next fortress in the way of the British advance.

APPEAL FOR CASH BY LLOYD GEORGE

Premier Expects Victory Within Year if Big Loan is Success.

CONFERENCE INSPIRING Task Huge, But Defeat Impossible—Bonar Law Gives Loan's Details.

Special Cable to The Toronto World. London, Jan. 11.—Premier David Lloyd George in a speech before a large audience at the Guild Hall this afternoon declared that war is better than peace at the price of Prussian domination of Europe. "We have rejected no peace terms," the premier said, and added: "We were with the world. It would suit Germany to have peace now on her own terms. We all want peace, but it must be a lasting one." The premier said that the grim resolution of the entente allies at the recent conference in Rome was that at all costs they must achieve the high aim which was before them when they accepted the challenge of the "Prussian military caste," to rid the world forever of its menace and save Europe from unpeppable despotism. "The whole situation was probed, the difficulties were faced, and arrangements were made to deal with them. All the allies feel he declared, that victory was difficult, defeat was impossible. The Rome conference was under no delusions, Mr. Lloyd George continued, as to the magnitude of the task at the allies, but he had no doubts as to the result.
