

ed with it, I shall be rendering an essential service to this Colony, if I can lay the foundation of a system which shall introduce Christianity, and consequently civilization, amongst the surrounding tribes; and I hope the day is not very far off, when those who are now heathen savages shall be converted into civilized Christians. I have the honor to be, &c.

To The Right Honorable The Lord Teignmouth,

* * This Report has already extended a whole sheet beyond what was originally proposed, but where all is so interesting and important it is as difficult to select judiciously as to compress without disappointing the expectations of the reader.
