HIGH CLASS, REFINED

OPERA HOUSE OFFERING

No better way to spend an evening can be found than to attend the Opera House and enjoy the high class and refined vaudeville programme that is offered every evening at 7.30 and 9 o'clock. This week the bill is better than ever—five splendidly assorted acts, with comedy, classic dancing, good singing, eccentric dancing and sensational acrobatic feats, all deftly intermingled to make up an entertaining programme. acrobatic feats, all deftly intermingled to make up an entertaining programme. In addition to the vaudeville, there is the weekly episode of the gripping serial photo drama, The Crimson Stain Mystery, which gets more and more interesting as the weeks go by. One feature in connection with this serial is that one can get the full synopsis of what has gone before with each current week's offering and thus appreciate the many dramatic points of the story as it is unfolded on the screen.

There are two complete shows each evening, at 7.30 and 9—one every afternoon at 2.30. Seats may be reserved in advance for the first performance every evening and they will be held until 7.30 p. m.

SERIOUS MONTREAL FIRE,

SERIOUS MONTREAL FIRE.

Montreal, March 20—Fire this morning in the wholesale district near the corner of St. Paul and McGill streets, did damage estimated at more than $100,000. The fire started in the bascment of the Ingersoll Packing Company and spread to the premises of the Centinental Bag and Paper Co., and J. A. Vaillancourt & Co., produce dealers.

Against Daylight Saving.
Winnipeg, March 20—Notice was given at a city council meeting last night that at the next meeting a by-law would be introduced to repeal the daylight saving measure, which, unless unrepealed, will come automatically into effect on April 22. Letters were read from trades and labor council and the street railwaymen's union asking for the repeal.

"Why does the chancellor shrink back now from unconditional necessity. Altermann-Holweg wants to begin to cure Prussia after the war. Why postpone till tomorrow what is absolutely necessary today,—what the king himself declared years ago was one of the most urgent matters of the business of the state. The chancellor should not delay one day. The Prussian people as well as the other German states, will stand as one man at his side if he acts decisively."

THE SULTANA

Thrilling Comedy Melodrama in

ter's Iron Pills
The midnight son of the House of Kirkland makes a wager with his clubmates that he can steal the Sultana from its owner, and then return it to him without his knowing who took it. The Sultana changes hands rapidly, once at the cost of a human life. There is crisp action through every foot, and thrills and romances have been worked into a scenario of pleasing balance, with suspense consistently sustained throughout the sustain "If dyspeptics, sufferers from gas, wind or flatulence, stomach acidity or sourness, gastric catarrh, heartburn, etc., larger than a postage stamp) is colored would take a teaspoonful of pure bisyrs.
