POWERFUL TALE TOLD ON SCREEN AT IMPERIAL

Ibanez Story, "The Temptress," Marked by Features Out of Ordinary

"The Temptress," much heralded filmation of Vicente Blasco Ibanez' noted novel, opened last night at the Imperial Theatre. It showed several things—it showed something new in gigantic thrills and powerful drama—a screen story that fairly thunders its import to a startled audience—it showed the Swedish beauty, Greta Garbo, as a dramatic actress and emotional artist, perhaps unequalled on the screen, as we have it today—and its power and her wonderful artistry left an astounded audience amazed.

MANY THRILLS.
The spectacular bull whip duel; the wreck of the great dam; the climax of the drama; these were all huge incidents to a huge story; a romance that will long be remembered by those who saw it.

HOLLYWOOD TALE ON UNIQUE SCREEN
Louise Dresser Has Lead in Striking Picture of Movie Aspirants

The stray alley cat from the vantage point of a fence peers at the favored Persian fluff, snow-white, beribboned; a bedraggled mutt of a pup gazes at a poster showing one of his magnificent kindred in all the magnificence of film stardom; a ragged child peeps between iron bars where rich children deport themselves gaily among palms and bright flowers; dimpled Miss Fan from Griggs' Corner, wistfully watches the movie queens pass by; it is all the same! Heart-ache, heart-break! But who knows what day may bring forth; Luck may be just around the corner!

And that is the keynote of "Broken Hearts of Hollywood," a Warner pic-

COLLEEN SCORES HIT IN "ELLA CINDERS"

Has Palace Audience in Laughter and Also Brings Some Tears

Colleen Moore registers another triumph in "Ella Cinders," which opened an engagement at the Palace Theatre last night, and had the audience in paroxysms of laughter at times and at others drew a tear or two with its pathos.

"Ella Cinders" is a unique experiment in motion pictures, and marks the first attempt to make a feature motion picture from a newspaper comic strip.

In the story Ella is the slavey in the Cinders household, and how she sets away from the environment of her stepmother and stepfather, falls in love with an ice-man, wins a fake beauty contest and "crashes the gate" to success in the movies furnishes a delightful entertainment.

Lloyd Hughes, as Waite Lifter, who trains for football by delivering ice, makes an admirable leading man for Miss Moore. Excellent support is also given the First National star by Vera Lewis, Doris Baker, Emily Gordes, Mike Donlin, Jack Frosty, Jack Duffy, Harry Allen and D'Arcy Corrigan.

The picture is presented through First National by John McCormick, responsible for Miss Moore's recent big success, "Irene." It is an altogether enjoyable film. It will have its final screenings at 7 and 9 o'clock tonight.
