The local baseball situation was given another jolt when a despatch was received in the city last night from Fredericton saying that no team from that city would be entered into a proposed Brunswick League. The reason given for not entering the proposed league was that the expense would be too great.

"LITTLE LORD FAUNTLEROY"

Ten-Reel Animation of Frances Hodgson Burnett's Story

WITH MARY PICKFORD AND STAR CAST

HERE FOR THE DELIGHT OF EVEN MORE THOUSANDS than the enraptured multitudes who read "Little Lord Fauntleroy" as a book and saw it as a play, is an elaborate super-picture produced with the lavishness, tastefulness and exceptional skill to be expected of the film Mary Pickford herself has always wanted to make, heart and soul. Miss Pickford's art and brilliance, her superb talent, her exquisite beauty, all extraordinarily blended into the most human and profoundly moving story of her wonderful career.

PATRONS CHARMED YESTERDAY

It has been a long while since the Imperial held so many matinee patrons as it did yesterday. The night attendance was also capacity. Nobody seemed disappointed with Miss Pickford's perfectly sweet portrayal of the mother as well as the child, in fact it was a new triumph for Little Mary who undoubtedly remains the darling of the silver-sheet.

VERITABLE OPERATIC MUSIC

Not the least pleasing feature of the "Fauntleroy" programme yesterday was the special music played by the Imperial's concert orchestra. The whole ten reels of film were cued and fitted in exactly with the varying moods of the story—now an old New York street ditty, then a sweet plaint breathing the tender phases of the action.

DAVEY ROBERTSON, RELEASED BY PIRATES, GOES BACK TO GIANTS

Norfolk, Va., April 24.—Dave Robertson is to go once more to the New York Giants. Robertson received his unconditional release recently from Pittsburgh and was ordered by John McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, to report to him at once. Robertson broke into the big leagues with the Giants in 1914.

Robertson's first term of service with the Giants ended in 1919, when he was traded after the season had started to Chicago for Phil Douglas. After two years with the Cubs, Davey was sent to Pittsburgh for Pitcher Ponder last summer. During last winter Robertson had a salary dispute with Barney Dreyfuss, refused to sign, and finally was unconditionally released. McGraw probably wants him in case Ralph Shinnery falls down in centre field.

The boy managed to reach the ground floor when his father succumbed and was able to give the alarm.
