CORONATION WEEK BRIDES IN CITY

Several Happy Events Took Place Today — McDonald-McGuire, Todd-Viger, Coughlan-Connolly, Martin-King, and Others

McDonald-McGuire.

In the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception this morning Rev. A. W. Meahan united in marriage Miss Martina McGuire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin McGuire, of this city, and Louis J. McDonald, of the firm of King & McDonald, South Wharf. The ceremony was performed with nuptial mass at 6:30 o'clock. The bride was becomingly attired in a cream tulle suit with flower trimmed hat. Miss Nan Carleton acted as bridesmaid and wore a suit of green foulard silk with hat to match. Fred. E. McDonald, brother of the groom, was groomsmen. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents in Exmouth street.

Mr. and Mrs. McDonald left on the S. S. Governor Dingley on a honeymoon trip to the States. The bride's going away dress was of king's blue, with hat to match. Many handsome presents were received. On their return from the states they will take up their residence at 271 Rockland road.

Todd-Viger.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception at 6 o'clock this morning, when Rev. A. W. Meahan united in marriage Josephine Gertrude Viger and Walter Harold Todd, both of this city. The bride was handsomely attired in a dress of cream silk with black hat and willow plumes and carried a bouquet of carnations and roses. They were unattended. After the ceremony the bride's party drove to 173 Carmarthen street, where a wedding breakfast was partaken of. Many handsome presents were received by the young couple, including a Morris chair from the employees of the James Pender Company, where the groom is employed. Mr. and Mrs. Todd will reside in Carmarthen street.

Coughlan-Connolly.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized this morning in St. Peter's church, north of the city, when Rev. R. J. Coughlan, of Johnville, brother of the groom, united in marriage Miss Mary J. Connolly, daughter of Daniel Connolly of 231 Christie street and Thomas F. Coughlan, city marshal, son of the late Richard J. Coughlan of 232 Elmwood street. Nuptial solemn high mass was celebrated, the celebrant being Rev. R. J. Coughlan with Rev. A. J. Deane as deacon and Rev. J. H. Borman, C. S. R. as sub-deacon.

The bridal party entered the church to the music of Wagner's bridal chorus from "Lohengrin," played by the St. Peter's organist, Mr. DeLaure. At the offertory the hymn "The Voice that breathed o'er Eden," and at the conclusion of the ceremony Mendelssohn's wedding march was played.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very becoming in a dress of white silk and wearing a large picture hat to match. She carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Emma Connolly, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and looked very attractive in a dress of pink silk with a large picture hat. Harold Coughlan, a brother of the groom, acted as groomsmen.

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents at 53 Chesley street. The house was very prettily decorated with flowers to suit the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Coughlan left on the Boston boat for a trip to Boston, New York and other cities in the States.

On their return they will reside at 43 Hornfield street. The presents received were many and pretty including furniture, silverware, and cut glass. The groom's gift to the bride was a substantial gift, to the bridesmaid a ring set with pearls and the groomsmen a pair of gold cuff links. The groom received from the city chamberlain and staff a handsome sterling silver carving set.

Martin-King.

A pretty June wedding was witnessed this morning at 6 o'clock in St. Peter's church, when Miss Frances A. King, daughter of Mrs. A. King, of 40 Brook street, was married to Louis Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Martin, of 72 High street. Rev. Father Holland presided over the ceremony. The bride was given away by her brother, Edward King, of Portland, Me. She was dressed in white silk, trimmed with duchess lace, and carried a white prayer-book and pearl rosary, presented by Sister Miriam, sister of the groom. The bridesmaid, Miss Blanche King, sister of the bride, wore a white embroidered suit with hat to match, and carried white carnations. The traveling suit of the bride was of coronation blue, with hat to match. Frederick J. Parren acted as best man. The groom's gift to the bride was a substantial clock, to the groomsmen a watch fob, and the ushers of St. Peter's were also remembered. Many handsome presents in china, cut glass, silverware and furniture attest the popularity of the bride and groom.

Another present was a beautiful dinner set from D. Magee's Sons, with whom the groom was a popular employee. Mr. and Mrs. Martin left this morning for a tour through Maine and Massachusetts. They will reside at 72 High street.

McKenna-Martin.

In the Church of Our Lady of the Snows in Campbellton this morning at 8 o'clock a pretty wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. Wallace, the pastor, when he united in marriage Joseph L. McKenna and Miss Marie-Ellen Martin, Mr. McKenna is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John McKenna of Barker street and has many well wishers in St. John. He has been for some time employed with the Harquail Lumber Co. in Campbellton.

Dooley-Conboy.

In St. John's Baptist church, by Rev. W. J. Holland at 6 o'clock last evening, Miss Minnie L. Conboy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Conboy, became the wife of William Dooley. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Katie Conboy, while John Haley supported the groom. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Dooley will reside in Sydney street.

Burt-Wilson.

Dr. George Johnston Burt, veterinary surgeon, of Truro, N. S., was united in marriage last evening to Miss Pearl A. Wilson, of Lakeville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Hutchinson at 41 Douglas avenue. Dr. and Mrs. Burt left for Truro this morning, and will reside there.

Richey-Daley.

Samuel J. Richey, representative of A. and I. Isaacs, was married today to Miss Alice F. Daley, formerly of this city, at Jamaica Plains, N. S. Mr. and Mrs. Richey will take a honeymoon trip to New York, Providence, Niagara and through the maritime provinces. They will make their residence in this city. Many friends wish them all happiness.

No more ashes to lug, no clumsy ash pan to spill dust and dirt on the kitchen floor.

The GLENWOOD ASH CHUTE solves the problem. It is situated just beneath the grate and connected by a sheet iron pipe straight down through the kitchen floor to the Ash Barrel in the cellar.

No dust can escape, just slide the damper once each day and drop the ashes directly in to the ash barrel.

This is only one of the splendid improvements of the plain CABINET GLENWOOD, the range without ornamental or fancy nickle. "THE MISSION STYLE" GLENWOOD, every essential refined and improved upon.

At least one-half of all GLENWOODS are sold through the enthusiastic recommendation of a satisfied user.
