Lethbridge Highlanders and crossed overseas in 1916. Shortly afterwards he was attached to the 48rd Canadian Battalion and had been through many hard battles. He was with the latter battalion when fatally hit.

Private Stockton was the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Stockton, of Okotokes (Alta.), but formerly of New Brunswick. Mr. and Mrs. Stockton have many relatives and friends who will deeply sympathize with them in their bereavement.

A Devonshire (England) vicar's wife keeps a book in which a daily entry is made of all economy in dining room and kitchen. At the end of the month the money is divided equally between the servants and put into War Savings.

during the time he was on the firing line. Possessing sterling and soldierly qualities he was justly popular among his fellow officers and with the rank and file in general.

Lieutenant Stevens was the youngest son of Rev. L. G. Stevens, who was rector of St. Luke's church in this city for fourteen years.

Nursing Sisters Lilah Gregory, Elsie Hatheway and Lillian McAlpine, C. A. M. C., left yesterday to take up their duties at another station. The St. John nurses, who joined a party of Red Cross and V. A. D. nurses, who are en route east, were given a hearty send-off at the station by the local Red Cross. The nurses were presented with bouquets of flowers. Miss Gregory is a daughter of A. C. Gregory, Lancaster Heights; Miss Hatheway is a daughter of Mrs. A. M. Rowan, and Miss Mc-Alpine belongs to Gagetown.

SON OF FORMER ST. JOHN PASTOR KILLED

Mrs. A. G. Parkins, of Petiteodiac, received a telegram recently that her nephew, Archie C. Stockton, of Okotokes (Alta.), had been killed in action. Private Stockton was wounded some few months ago and had just returned to the trenches again, only being in action a very short time when he made the supreme sacrifice. He enlisted with the front by Lieut.-Colonel J. L. McAvity at the formal opening of the new Red at the formal opening of the new Red Triangle Club in the exhibition buildings last evening. In the course of his speech Colonel McAvity said:

"There is a long, long war ahead of the Allies, and every citizen and citizeness of Canada must be prepared to do his and her part, and to bear the privations that will probably be necessary before the campaign is brought to a successful termination in favor of the Allies."

The new Red Triangle clubroom represents the first effort that has been made in this direction for the men of the Depot Battalion, and if the attendance of in this direction for the men of the Depot Battalion, and if the attendance of soldiers at the opening night is anything to judge from, the work of the Y. M. C. A. is greatly appreciated. Mayor Hayes was in attendance and presided. Addresses were given by his worship, by Lieut.-Colonel McAvity and by A. S. McAllister, of Halifax, maritime Y. M. C. A. secretary. A very enjoyable programme, consisting of vocal and instrumental solos and recitations, was also given during the evening.

The new clubroom is on the ground

The new clubroom is on the ground floor of the main building. The room is in reality divided into two rooms; the back room to be used as a gymnasium, while the front room is to be used as a reading, writing and music room. These two rooms can be divided room. These two rooms can be divided by a wooden partition when necessary. The clubroom, which a week ago was bare and inhospitable, has been changed as if touched by a magic wand, as a result of the efforts of the Ladies' Auxiliary and the Young Women's League of the Y. M. C. A., who have been work-on the decorations and furnishing of | Jean Teed; violin solo, Miss Wonifre the clubroom for the last week.

The joint committee, with Mrs. T.
H. Sommerville and Mrs. S. K. Smith as convenors was also responsible for the excellent programme and refreshments provided last evening. Weekly entertainments are to be given hereafter.

During the evening dhe following programme was given and greatly enjoyed by the men who packed the room:
Solo, Mrs Murray Long; reading, Miss

Jean Teed; violin solo, Miss Widnith Solo, Miss Pierce; solo, Miss McColgan.

Refreshments were served and the gathering dispersed as the rafters rail with God Save the King.

At the Labor party conference Newcastle, Eng., it was decided to contest all four of the new city constituenties; all the Liverpool divisions are all to be contested by Labor.
