ST. JOHN'S FAME. "We would like to know why your city is so famous," writes a school boy of London, Ont., to the secretary of the board of trade. He says "We are starting a project in our school," hence his enquiry. If that project is to make the boys and girls of Ontario better acquainted with the maritime provinces, it is a good one and should be encouraged.

At a meeting of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission here this morning the tenders for the construction of a receiving station for the hydro-electric power in the Manawagonish road were considered and it was decided to recommend the acceptance of one of the tenders. DID NAHUM REFER TO THE JINNEYS?

That the present transportation conditions in the city was forecasted in the old testament, was pointed out to a Times reporter by one of the officials at City Hall this morning. He referred particularly to the means of rapid transit adopted through the streets and the fact that occasional collisions between members of the competing factions had been reported. He referred to the reports to Nahum, Chapter 2, verse 8, which reads:

"The chariots shall rage in the streets they shall jostle against one another in the broad ways, they shall scam like the lightnings."

PRISONERS NOT ASKED TO PLEAD

Await Report of the Coroner's Jury.

O'Brien and Spellman Formally Charged With Murder of Albert Norris—Not Represented by Counsel This Morning.

Edward O'Brien and Thomas Spellman were arraigned in the police court this morning before Magistrate and for-magistrate expressed the opinion that nothing should be done in the case until after the coroner's jury had taken evidence and submitted a finding. A hushed silence fell like a mantle over the court room as the clerk read the charge. "Edward O'Brien and Thomas Spellman, you are charged together, each abetting the other, and murdering Albert Norris in a yard off Erin street in the City of St. John on the night of September 8." The magistrate told them they would not be asked to plead at this juncture and remanded them. Obviously ill at ease and feeling his position keenly, O'Brien listened with downcast eyes while the clerk read the words so full of meaning. He is a young man, only twenty-four years of age, fair of complexion and youthful in appearance with a pleasant expression. Spellman is very dark. He gave his age as twenty-six but looks several years older.

Following the reading of the formal charge of murder both men were taken into jail there to await the outcome of the inquest. They were not represented by counsel this morning. Great interest is being taken in the case. The court room this morning was packed to the capacity with spectators, occupied points of vantage on the staircase ascending near the entrance to the court room. The magistrate made the large attendance an opportunity for taking up a collection for his "Down-and-Out" fund. The inquest into the death of Mr. Norris will be held this evening in the court house in Germain street and will be conducted by Coroner F. L. Kenney. Mr. Norris was buried at his home in Barnesville on Sunday.

MRS. R. M. HAZEN DEAD

In the passing away of Mrs. R. M. Hazen on Monday evening, St. John loses one of its most highly respected residents. Mrs. Hazen was of Scotch and English descent, born at St. Andrews, where her father, the late Alexander Phillips, held the office of collector of customs under the imperial government. She was educated in England, and spent many years of her life in the mother land, her husband, the late Robert Morris Hazen, Captain 60th Regiment of F. C. eldest son of Robert J. Hazen of St. John, being stationed there. Mrs. Hazen also spent some years in India, but returned to St. John soon after the death of Captain Hazen, which occurred in Burma.

For many years Mrs. Hazen's distinguished appearance and vigorous mind, keenly interested in the news of the world and the early history of this province, made her a notable and interesting personality. The news of her death was heard with sincere regret. Much sympathy is extended to her three surviving daughters, Mrs. C. C. Coster, Miss Marion A. Hinn of London, England, and Miss Lillian Hazen. She also leaves two grand-daughters, Miss Geraldine Coster, Oxford, and Mrs. John Phillips of Wesley Hill, and a great grandson, Sydney Hazen Phillips.

BURIED TODAY.

The funeral of J. Edward McCrossin was held this morning from his parents' residence, 228 Pitt street to St. John Baptist church for high mass. A large number of his schoolmates attended the funeral. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful including: Gross, A. Alward; wreath, S. Hayward & Co.; wreath, S. C. Mortimer and staff; cressent, Misses Beatrice McGuigan, Vivian Raworth, Ethel Higgins; sheaf, Miss J. Lawlor, Fred McCarthy, Roy Molson, M. R. McGuigan, D. H. Ryan, Mr. Coughlan, Mrs. Burns and family, Mrs. Vincent Bailey; also many spiritual offerings. Interment was in the old Catholic cemetery. The funeral of Allen T. Bustin was held today from his late residence, Lake Latimer. Interment was in Fernhill. The funeral of George Delaney, who died in Dartmouth, N. S., on September 11, was held today from Brennan's mortuary parlors to Cedar Hill. Rev. Neil McLaughlin conducted the service.

A SUGGESTION.

A recent post office department bulletin points out that in the city of New York 260,000 pieces of misdirected mail are handled every day. This means 127,500,000 pieces every year. The same is applicable to every post office in the United States and Canada. This means that a force of clerks must be maintained to handle this mail, who could otherwise be engaged in facilitating the general service. The people of St. John are asked to keep these facts in mind. Frequent mistakes noticed at the local post office are in addresses written in lead pencil and the failure to give street addresses.

ENGAGEMENT.

Mrs. Mary Williamson of Nauwigewauk announces the engagement of her daughter, Agnes Belle, to Harold C. Henderson, the marriage to take place early in October.
