

"N" (Sheet 4)

Quoniam
Major,
President, D.C.M.

letter that he wrote immediately when he arrived there to the Selective Service in Winnipeg telling them where he was and what he was doing and asking for help, to which he never got any answer; Fifth, the clothes--the Army clothes that he was picked up in; And lastly, that he has already spent two weeks in detention.

That is all I have to say, sir.
