The milk from the cows was disposed of by Madame Stoessel at a uniform price of fifty cents per bottle.

The only witness who has admitted that he considered affairs in Port Arthur desperate was Colonel Reiss, who commanded one of the positions on the Tiger's Tail.

Friends of Stoessel declare that the evidence so far given came from the mouths of men who were prejudiced against the former commander of Port Arthur because he failed to recommend them for decorations at the hands of the Czar.

IMPERIAL PALACE.

Tokio, May 5.—Prince Charles of Hohenzollern was the guest at a farewell luncheon at the palace to-day. The Emperor, who is indisposed, was absent, but he commanded the Crown Prince to return to the capital and act as host. The guests include the imperial princes, members of the cabinet, officers of the army and the German minister.

The Prince will give a farewell dinner to-night and to-morrow night at Shiba palace. On Sunday, May 7th, he leaves for Nagasaki, from which port he will sail for Europe on May 16th.

Tokio, May 5.—Prince Charles of Hohenzollern was the guest at a farewell luncheon at the palace to-day. The Emperor, who is indisposed, was absent, but he commanded the Crown Prince to ready to assume the offensive on a large scale, and activity has already begun against Gen. Linevitch's left. This may be the prelude to another big battle.
