COUNTY COURT.

A Prisoner Narrowly Escapes Five Years in Dorchester.

The November term of the county court opened this morning. His Honor Judge Forbes presiding. There was very little business. Only two cases were on the docket, and one of these was a non-jury case. One criminal case was disposed of under the speedy trial act, before the court opened.

Patrick Clark, alias McDonough, charged with stealing a suit of clothes from Geo. Devine, elected to be tried by his honor under the speedy trial act. To the charge against him he pleaded guilty. His honor spoke briefly to the prisoner before sentencing him, mentioning the fact that he had been informed by a crown officer, the chief of police, that the prisoner had once been arrested in Halifax under the name of McDonough, for selling stolen property, and had been sentenced to Dorchester for three years. In fact a very complete history of the man had been obtained by the clerk and furnished to his honor. However, as the prisoner had apparently tried to do better since that time, and as his employer spoke highly of him, his honor allowed him to go, on entering recognizance of $1,000 to appear for sentence whenever called on. He was assured by his honor that the first time he got in the hands of the police or got drunk, he would receive five years in Dorchester on this charge. The prisoner promised to take the pledge and will be set free as soon as he serves out a two months' sentence for drunkenness.

The petit jurors at the present court are: John R. McFarlane, Arthur D. Branscombe, Fred E. Law, Jacob H. Colwell, Joseph W. Smith, William Baxter, James W. Smith, William Heathfield, Samuel B. Folkins, Fred M. Dunham, William S. Cody, Robert D. Gilmore.

The docket is:

Civil.
Non-Jury.
1. Sayre et al v. Anderson-Barnhill & Sanford.
Jury.
1. James McMillan v. Katherine Donohue-Geo. V. McInerney.
Sayre et al v. Anderson, an assessment case, was taken up, and the jury were allowed to go until Thursday morning.

THE ABATOIR.

A Hearing Before the Board of Health This Afternoon.

The representatives of the new abattoir company appear before the board of health this afternoon. The only question about which there is any doubt is with regard to the site, some persons fearing that an abattoir in the place designated might be objectionable.

To this the answer is given that abattoirs are built within the city limits in American cities, and in some cases right in the populous centres.

The site selected by this company is below the back shore track between the track and the Marsh creek. There are no dwelling houses near it, except one on the lot, which would belong to the company and would be torn down. The structure would have excellent drainage into the Marsh creek, and as all the offal would be utilized in the abattoir there would really be no grossly offensive matter to be drained off. The structure would stand by itself, on land that is now used for nothing but a dump for rubbish. There is ample room for an extension of the plant as the industry develops, and the company say they are ready to put up just as large a plant as can be utilized.

A representative of the Star visited the proposed site today, and from the standpoint of the onlooker there certainly does not seem to be any good reason for arguing that an abattoir there, constructed on modern lines, would be offensive.

The company is a local one and has had no difficulty in securing the capital required.

Mr. Carter of Springfield, who is a specialist in abattoir building, says that if there is any waste of the products from the killing of animals it is an evidence that the owners do not know their business. The profit to be made in such an industry lies in utilizing everything. The offal must also be used up while fresh, in order to get the best results. The extent to which science has given a commercial value to what have hitherto been considered waste products is very strongly illustrated in a modern abattoir.

N. B. MUSICAL FESTIVAL.

Mr. Chapman Coming.

The New Brunswick Festival Corus is now entering upon its second year with a larger roll of membership and a deeper enthusiasm than before and on Friday evening next W. R. Chapman will personally conduct the rehearsal at the Church of England Institute. It is hoped that all members will be in their places promptly on that evening, as the prospectus for the coming season will be placed before them. This is of the highest musical standard, including choruses from grand opera, Lohengrin, The Meistersingers, and Gounod's Faust, to sing which under the baton of such an eminent conductor is an education in itself and is an opportunity of which all singers should avail themselves. It is the desire of the management to increase the membership to three hundred (300), and all wishing to join are requested to make application to the secretary, Dr. L. I. Johnston, at once, in order that they may prepare for the rehearsal concerts to be given in December and March next. The male voices especially will be grand work. Faust, and in the quintette and male chorus from Lohengrin. Besides these operatic selections it is proposed to sing The Heavens Are Telling, from the Creation, Sullivan's O Gladsome Light, and to vary the programme with some of the lighter part songs by modern English composers. Altogether the outlook is most encouraging for a year's work, not only thoroughly enjoyable but productive of lasting benefit by cultivating a taste for high class music at its best. The chorus will rehearse as usual Tuesday at 8 o'clock p. m., at York Theatre.

TODAY'S FUNERALS.

The funeral of the late John J. Rippey took place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from his late residence, Guilford street, west end, Rev. James Burgess officiating. Interment was in Cedar Hill cemetery; there were no pallbearers.

The remains of the late Mrs. Sarah Brown were interred in Fernhill cemetery this afternoon, from the residence of her son, David J. Brown, 119 Leinster street. The services were conducted by the Rev. G. M. Campbell. No pallbearers.

The funeral of the late Thomas Barker took place at 2:30 this afternoon from his late home, 27 Horsfield street. The services were conducted by Rev. Canon Richardson, and interment was made in Fernhill. There were no pallbearers.

MR. BLAIR REPLIES.

His Worship Mayor White this morning received the following telegram from Hon. A. G. Blair in answer to the request for a berth at the I. C. R. pier:

OTTAWA, Nov. 3rd.
I have been endeavoring to arrange about the use of one of our berths. If Manchester line would take it that would give C. P. R. room at their wharves to accommodate Donaldson line. Have given directions to our traffic manager to go to St. John at once to arrange.

A. G. BLAIR.

ONE METHOD OF SOLVING THE BOY PROBLEM.

Believing that employment is the best means for assisting the boys, and that they should either have a trade or learn a business, we will at present give places to six good, honest, intelligent boys about 15 or 16 years old, and will undertake to teach them the dry goods business.

It will be necessary for them to have passed the eighth grade in the public schools and reside at home in the city with their parents.

MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALIBON.

TO THE LUMBER CAMPS.

All of the old magazines at the Y. M. C. A., which have not been sold, are now being boxed up and sent away to the different lumber camps. The pile of reading material that is going this year is almost a record breaker so far as quantity is concerned.

SUPREME COURT.

Unusually Large Attendance of Barristers in Fredericton.

The Grounds of Mr. Mullin's Appeal in the Higgins Case.

(Special to the Star.)

FREDERICTON, Nov. 4.—Michaelmas term of the supreme court opened this morning. All the judges were present and there was an unusually large attendance of barristers. The following common motions were made:

Ex parte Wm. H. Edgett, Phinney, K. C., moved for rule nisi for a mandamus to Leslie G. B. Lawson, receiver of taxes for the City of Moncton to grant a permit to the applicant to enter a sewer on Pleasant street Moncton. Court considers.

Hedley V. Moores vs. Bedford B. Manser, Connell, K. C., asks for time to file notice for new trial and leave to enter. Granted time till December 15.

Richard O'Leary vs. Phadde Despres, C. J. Coster, K. C., moves to rescind an order of chief justice ordering defendant to be imprisoned for nine months with privilege of limits. Court considers.

King vs. Andelucia Rogers, T. Lawson moves pursuant to notice for leave to appeal from conviction of defendant for poisoning her husband (who recovered) for which defendant is now confined in the penitentiary under sentence for five years imprisonment pronounced by Judge Hannington at the last Victoria circuit. Chief ground urged was that the evidence of Thos. Rogers, the husband, was not taken in court by the commission, the judge and jury having gone from the court house to witness house and there taken his testimony while witness was in bed. Leave to appeal refused.

Mr. Mullin, K. C., will move this afternoon for leave to appeal in the Higgins murder case on the following grounds:

First—That the judge was in error in reference to his ruling as to selection of talesmen.

Second—That the judge was in error in not discharging jury and empanelling a new one when it appeared that one of the jurors John A. Pooley, who had already been sworn stated that he could not give the prisoner a fair trial as he had his mind already made up.

Third—Error in admitting rebuttal testimony of Harry McGinley and Mrs. Marshall.

Fourth—Misdirection of learned judge with reference to comments made by his honor on the silence of the prisoner after consulting counsel and inference which might be drawn from such silence.

Messrs. J. A. Gregory having produced their commissions appointing them king's counsel were called within the bar.

ST. PATRICK'S MINSTRELS.

A grand minstrel entertainment will be given this evening in St. Patrick's Hall, Carleton, by the St. Patrick's Minstrels, B. J. Kindred interlocutor, Tambos, T. Kelleher, E. J. Murphy, P. J. Kelleher; bones, W. T. Kelleher, J. J. Tracey, J. J. Carey. The programme will include opening chorus, songs by J. J. McCaffrey, J. J. Carey, F. J. Joyce, P. J. Kelleher, W. J. Ring, J. J. Tracey, T. J. Morrissey, E. J. Murphy, Murray Long, W. M. Wallace and Little Lottie McKinnon. There will be a banjo selection by Cecil Holder, reel by Neil King, club swinging by Mr. Gleeson and rapid canon sketches by P. J. Hanlon. The City Cornet band will be present.

GUNPOWDER PLOT DAY.

In addition to the observance of the festival of the Gunpowder Plot by the Orange lodges of the city and county of St. John, a public meeting, under the auspices of Hampton, L. O. A., No. 52, will be held in the Orange hall at Hampton, Kings County, on Wednesday evening, the 6th inst. Addresses will be delivered by Rev. W. W. Lodge, P. D. G. C., and Fred M. Sproul, P. C. M., explaining the works and objects of the Orange institution.

A silver collection will be taken up. The chair will be taken at eight o'clock.

BASKET BALL.

A meeting of those interested in basket ball was held last evening in the Y. M. C. A. About thirty-five expressed themselves as intending to play, and six captains were chosen to pick teams. When these are selected a regular schedule of games will be drawn up and played throughout the winter. It is also probable that outside teams will be brought here and generally the sport will be boomed.

POLICE COURT.

One drunk appeared before the magistrate today. He admitted the charge, but asked leave to go home and take the pledge. He got four dollars or ten days.

Thomas J. Dean, for selling fresh meat without a license was this morning fined ten dollars or thirty days in jail. The other dealers who were reported at the same time took out the necessary license.

The case of Officer Stevens against Police Officer Crawford came up again this afternoon. A couple of Mr. Crawford's witnesses were not present, and after an ineffectual effort to get them, the matter was left in the hands of the magistrate.

He adjourned the case until Friday morning at ten.

KNIFE BLADE IN BRAIN.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—After having carried a knife blade one and one-quarter inches long in his brain for 22 years, P. J. Kent has undergone a successful operation for its removal. The blade had broken off into the skull and the point had been inserted squarely into the brain. Kent suffered from frequent epileptic seizures. The physicians say Kent will now recover full control of his muscles.
