

prepared to benefit by the course of instruction offered, inasmuch as many benefactors of the University possess the right of nomination. Each nominee is exempt from the payment of yearly fees, amounting to $90 for the three years' course, besides the fee for a B.A. degree. There being some forty certificates conferring this privilege, it is easy for students to obtain it. If a scholarship is held besides, nearly the whole cost of the education will be covered. The Calendar supplies all necessary information with regard to these nominations.

The Examiners for the past Academical Year outside the Faculty were as follows: The Rev. F. Partridge, D.D., H. Y. Hind, Esq., M.A., Bliss Carman, Esq., M.A., and the Rev. H. A. Harley, B.A.

The College buildings have been restored and painted at an expense of about $2,000, which has been raised by voluntary effort. The houses for the Professors have been rebuilt on new sites, and are well-constructed and handsome, adding materially to the appearance of the College grounds. Water has been brought to the College and the Professors' houses which will prove a great convenience, and will decrease the rate of insurance. The whole buildings are now in good repair, and externally will need no further expenditure for some years to come.

It is to be noticed that the regulation, which provides that a matriculated student may not offer himself as a candidate for Responsions until he has completed his fourth term, has been cancelled. Hereafter any such student may present himself for that examination as early as he pleases, thereby giving himself more time to perfect himself for the Degree Examination and for any special Honour Course which he may select.

The large additions, which have been made to the Library during the past year, have necessitated further accommodation. This is being provided for by the erection of cases in the lower hall.

A general statement of the financial condition of the University is appended, and will be found to include—
