Your Car is Waiting, Sirl

N front of the fashionable club, at the door of the dignified office building, in the theatre line-up, everywhere that men of influence are wont to go—there you will find the BRISCOE, standing in readiness to carry its owner with speed and comfort to his home, to his office, to keep an important appointment—or to enjoy a "spin" with his family home, to his office, to keep an important appointment—or to enjoy a "spin" with his family in the country.

The BRISCOE, B "4-24" is a car of which any man might well be proud to say "I own a BRISCOE." It is graceful, speedy, powerful and luxurious. Both driving compartment and tonneau afford ample leg and elbow room for the tallest and stoutest of men. The deep upholstery and high seat backs, which come well up over the shoulder blades, ensure the utmost in comfort. The famous "Half Million Dollar Motor"—Benjamin Briscoe's greatest achievement—provides abundant power for every emergency, and gets every ounce of force out of the gas at a minimum expense for fuel. As a matter of fact, we have obtained 32 miles to the gallon of gasoline with this motor. The long stroke, 5½-inch, with its relative small bore, 3½-inch, is responsible for this.

The BRISCOE is an ideal family car. The control is as simple as that of an electric. Your wife can drive it for hours without fatigue. She can shift the gears with her finger tips, and the slightest pressure operates the clutch and break pedals.

Among the special advantages of the BRISCOE, B "4.24" are:—Among the special advantages of the BRISCOE, B "4.24" are:—Full Elliptic Springs, front and rear: Floating Type Rear Azle; Electric Lighting and Starting System. Titled Eye-Saver Windshield.

EXHAUSTING THE ENEMY

but he carried his message to its destination.

A fine example of bravery and resourcefulness was given by a Russian private in the same battle. As the platon to which he belonged approached the chalk pits they came under machine gun fire. The Russian, going torward, found the muzzles of two machine guns sticking out of the entrance to a dugout. One of them was in action, sweeping the line of advance To get in front of it, the only way to tackling the crew, concealed in the entrance, meant instant death. A piece of plank lay nearby. To the Russian it was a Heaven-sent weapon. With it he struck the protruding gun barrels so hard a blow that they and their crews went clattering down to the bottom of the dugout, whence came cries of Kamerad. At that moment a riflle builtet struck the elbow of the Russian and denrived him of the use of one arm. Holding his rifle with its fixed bayonet at the charge, in one hand, he ordered, the Germans to come up. They came, an officer and five men, who were dufy turned in, with their

One of the most heroic deeds put on record in the Canadian Corps since the war began is that of a runner of Colonel Ormonder's Alberta Battalion. The company to which he was attached was hotly engaged near the chalk pits, and he was given a message to take back to the battalion headquarters, over ground on which shells were falling continuously. He had not gone far when he was seen to fall, and another runner was at one sent out with a duplicate of the message. The second message carrier was killed on his journey, but two hours afterwards the first one arrived at the battalion headquarters with his left arm blown off near the shoulder. His terrible wound had been roughly dressed in the field, and the messenger, far spent from loss of blood, had then staggered on to do his duty. He was removed in a dying condition, but he carried his message to its destination.
