

PERTH SOLDIER KILLED IN ACTION

Sergeant Signaller Clair V. Green Paid Sacrifice on September 27—Went Overseas With 9th Seige.

Perth, N. B., Nov. 14.—The sad news was received by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Green, a few days ago, of the death in action of their son, Sergeant Signaller Clair V. Green, who was killed on Sept. 27th.

The soldier enlisted in September,

SERGEANT CLAIR V. GREEN

1916 with the Ninth Siege Battery, and proceeded overseas with the first draft from this unit. After a course in England he went to France on July 17th, 1917, serving in the artillery. He was promoted on the field.

The following letter was received by the mother of the late soldier, from his officer commanding, and speaks of the esteem in which he was held by his comrades:

France, Oct. 2, 1918.
Mrs. M. A. Green,
Perth, N. B.

Dear Mrs. Green: How much we all regret the recent happening which necessitates the writing of this note. I thought possibly you might wish to know the exact circumstances of your son's death; also let me here express the sympathy of the whole battery, and myself, in your great loss. We have lost the services of a true and efficient soldier, besides the fellowship of a good comrade.

On September 27th, your son, comprising part of an artillery patrol, went forward, under an officer, to make a reconnaissance. About 5 p.m., after an exciting and eventful day, a shell landed close by, a small splinter hitting your son in the throat, killing him instantly. The next day some of my B. C. party boys went forward and carried the body back to the guns, from which place it was taken to a village, close by, and buried in a military cemetery, the Brigade Chaplain conducting the services. (At present it is not advisable to give the name of the village.)

A week or so ago I had the pleasure of recommending your son for a commission in the Air Force, and it is too bad your boy did not live to receive the promotion his excellent work deserved. The commission papers I enclose herewith.

I am particularly pleased with the work of your boy on Sept. 27th. The officer in charge told me it was brilliant, and had your son lived he surely would have been recommended for decoration. The boys in my party (the immediate friends of your son) feel the loss very deeply. If there is anything I can do further to make you feel more easy, you have only to mention it.

Please accept the deep felt sympathy of the officers and men of my battery. Your son's personal effects are being forwarded at the first opportunity.

Believe me, most sincerely yours,
G. L. DREW (Major)
O. C. 1st Battery C.F.A.

THE PARLIAMENT OF MAN THE FEDERATION OF THE WORLD

Lloyd George in an Address to His Supporters, Declares a League of Nations is Now More Necessary Than Ever Before—Enforced Military Service Should Never be Required Again.

London, Nov. 14.—Premier Lloyd George, in discussing the question of a league of nations before his supporters, said that such a league was more necessary now than ever. He pointed out that the conditions which prevailed in the Balkans before the war, now affected practically two-thirds of Europe.

"A large number of small nations have been reborn in Europe," he continued, "and these will require a league of nations to protect them against the covetousness of ambitious and grasping neighbors. In my judgment a league of nations is absolutely essential to permanent peace."

"We shall go to the peace conference to guarantee that a league of nations is a reality. I am one of those who believe that without peace we cannot have progress. A league of nations guarantees peace and guarantees also an all-round reduction of armaments, and that reduction of armaments is a guarantee that you can get rid of conscription here."

"Of course, we must have in this country that efficient army to police the empire, but I am looking forward to a condition of things, with the assistance of a league of nations, under which conscription will not be necessary in any country."

LONDON PAPERS ARE WORRIED

Scarcely Know What to Think About Conditions in Germany, But Are a Little Afraid of Trouble.

London, Nov. 14.—A note of deep anxiety lest the situation in Germany degenerate into Bolshevism, was struck by the editorials in London newspapers today. The continued absence of information which would tend to throw further light on the fragmentary one-sided knowledge of the actual Social and administrative situation in Germany, prevents the formation of absolutely conclusive views here.

President Wilson's "timely counsel" is hailed with unanimous editorial approval and his warning that hunger leads to madness is quoted as touching a vital chord. It is admitted by newspapers of all shades of political opinion that Germany must be fed, if only as a business proposition, inasmuch as if she starved to death she could not pay what she owes.

The Times, remarking that the combination of hunger and revolution is highly perilous, says common humanity and common sense alike compel the feeding of Germany, and that the arrival of Herbert C. Hoover, the American food administrator, will facilitate the work.

The Daily News, commenting on President Wilson's "sane humanity," says the deliberate starving of Germans would be nothing but a stupid crime and stamp the brand of hypocrisy on all the Allied professions.

The Daily Express says a starving nation would be a Bolsheviki nation and that a Bolsheviki Germany would be as grave a menace as a Hohenzollern Germany. The appeal of Foreign Minister Solf, while it is regarded in some quarters as merely confirmatory of the genuineness of the distress, is viewed elsewhere with suspicion.

The Morning Post, however, calls Dr. Solf's appeal impudent. "The Times refers to his 'vicious threat of abiding vindictiveness' and wonders where the real authority resides which Solf affects to represent."

PUT THEM ON TRIAL

Paris, Nov. 13.—(Havas)—Several members of the chamber of deputies today proposed in the chamber a resolution requesting the government to enter into an agreement with the other Allied governments for the trial of all former rulers who were responsible for the great European war. Under the resolution the extradition of the rulers would be requested, no matter in what country they have taken refuge.

NOSE CLOGGED FROM A COLO OR CATARRH

Apply Cream in Nostrils to Open Up Air Passages.

Ah! What relief! Your clogged nostrils open right up, the air passages of your head are clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, mucous discharge, headache, dryness—no struggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh is gone.

Don't stay stuffed up! Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and cool the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Ely's Cream Balm is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer has been seeking. It's just splendid.

BOVRILISE your cookery

That's the secret of keeping well in War time. Every time you put a spoonful of Bovril into a dish you are adding enormously to the nourishing value. You are ensuring the health of everyone in the home.

The body-building powers of Bovril have been proved by independent scientific experiments to be actually 10 to 20 times the amount of Bovril taken.

Tired Nervous Mothers

Should Profit by the Experience of These Two Women

Buffalo, N. Y.—"I am the mother of four children, and for nearly three years I suffered from a female trouble with pains in my back and side, and a general weakness. I had professional attendance most of that time but did not seem to get well. As a last resort I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which I had seen advertised in the newspapers, and in two weeks noticed a marked improvement. I continued its use and am now free from pain and able to do all my household work."—Mrs. B. B. ZIMMERMAN, 202 Weiss Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Portland, Ind.—"I had a displacement and suffered so badly from it at times I could not be on my feet at all. I was all run down and so weak I could not do my housework, was nervous and could not lie down at night. I took treatments from a physician but they did not help me. My Aunt recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tried it and now I am strong and well again and do my own work and I give Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound the credit."—Mrs. JOSEPHINE KIMBLE, 935 West Race Street, Portland, Ind.

"HAVE I DONE ENOUGH?"

Life is as dear to every boy in France as my life is to me.

Even if my country asked me to GIVE every cent I have, that sacrifice would not equal the supreme measure of devotion which these boys have been offering every day.

But to buy Canadian Government Bonds at 5 1-2 per cent. interest! No, I have NOT done enough until I have bought to my limit of available cash and then on the installment plan with all I can possibly save in the months to come.

And, compared to the sacrifice these Boys have been making---

TO BUY BONDS IS NO SACRIFICE AT ALL.
