INCREASED REVENUE.

The harbor department reported yesterday that the harbor earnings for June and July were $4,500 in excess of the earnings for the corresponding period for the previous year.

An inquiry has been received by the harbor department as to accommodation and facilities for the handling of sulphur here. The port is particularly well equipped for handling this class of cargo in unlimited quantities.

Willing To Spend His Last Dollar

Halifax War Veteran Says
Tanlac Has Done So Much for Him He Would Not Do Without It—Wife Is Also Helped.

"I just think so much of Tanlac for all it has done for me that I would actually spend my last dollar for it if I ever needed medicine again," said Michael Connors, of 15B Rhode Island avenue, Halifax, N. S., to a Tanlac representative, recently. Mr. Connors is a veteran of the world war, having been for three years overseas attached to the Fifth Canadian Siege Battery, and at present is working for the National Railways.

"For something over a year now I have been in a badly run down condition," continued Mr. Connors. "I didn't have any appetite to speak of and didn't sleep well at night, either, and when I got up in the morning I had that tired feeling, and when I went to work I would feel all played out in about an hour after I had started to doing anything. I just didn't seem to have a bit of energy or strength about me, and some days I felt like I would rather take a good beating than to go to work. I seemed to be drowsy and tired all the time and, try as I would, I just didn't seem able to get rid of that worn out feeling, and some days I was in such bad shape that I felt like quitting my work altogether."

I knew that what I needed was something that would just build me up, but I never had been much of a hand for medicines and yet, when I saw how highly Tanlac was being recommended, I decided that I would give it a trial, too, so I got a bottle and before I had finished it I would notice a big improvement in my condition and from then on I kept getting in better shape. I have a splendid appetite now and relish everything I eat and I can sleep like a log all night long and get up in the morning feeling fine and ready for my work. I work eight hours every day without a bit of trouble and I am never bothered with that drowsy, worn out feeling. I am picking up in weight right along and Tanlac has certainly built me up in every way and put me back in good condition. My wife is taking it now and with excellent results, too, and I have recommended it to all my friends, because I just think it is the greatest medicine in the world and simply can't recommend it too highly."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Co., and F. W. Munro under the direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Advt.

THE HAY CROP.

Haymaking throughout the country was in full swing last week, and large quantities were safely stored, the weather having been ideal for hay-making. The crop will not be much lighter than last year, but it was much needed for the grain crops and pastures, came Sunday night, and there was another heavy shower Monday afternoon. The potatoes throughout money at the local banks.

IS SUFFERING FROM SMALLPOX

Thomas Hayes Who Arrived from Sydney Was Placed in Isolation Hospital—A Companion Also in Quarantine.

One patient, suffering from smallpox, is at the Isolation Hospital. He arrived in the city Monday from Sydney, N. S., and is said to have come originally from Newfoundland.

The smallpox patient is Thomas Hayes and he came to St. John from Sydney on Monday night. He proceeded to Vancouver, where he was held up by the immigration officials and was returned to St. John. Dr. W. L. Ellis made an examination and Hayes was removed to the Isolation Hospital, and his companion, D. L. Foley, was placed under observation.

On account of the case the small baggage room in the Union Station was placed under quarantine until the hand baggage could be fumigated. As a result passengers who had articles there could not secure them, and they have been fumigated and will be forwarded the owners.

The railway authorities both on the C. N. R. and C. P. R. were communicated with and steps at once taken for the fumigation of the cars in which the men had ridden.

Dr. Ellis said last night that there was no chance of the disease spreading, as all the necessary precautions had been taken.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Robt. Ross.

St. Stephen, July 29.—The community learned with deep regret on Monday last of the death of Mrs. Robert K. Ross, which occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. H. T. Spence, in Yarmouth, N. S., on Sunday last. Mrs. Ross had been ill for some time, and while her death was not unexpected, it nevertheless came as a shock to her family and friends. The remains were brought to St. Stephen on Tuesday night and buried from Trinity Church on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Percy Cotton conducted the service, and Mrs. W. F. Todd presided at the organ. Mrs. Ross was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Ross and was for many years a leader in social circles in her home town. She was united in marriage, nearly fifty years ago, with Dr. Robt. K. Ross who survives her. Two daughters, Mrs. Thos. Byrne of Dartmouth, N. S., and Mrs. Wm. H. T. Spence of Yarmouth, N. S., are also living to mourn the loss of a devoted mother, and many St. Stephen friends express sincere sympathy for them all in their bereavement.

Special to The Standard.

William W. Goodall.
Moncton, July 30.—The death of William W. Goodall, a well known citizen, occurred this morning after an illness lasting about a year. He was fifty-two years of age and is survived by his wife. He was a member of the Local Orange Association and prior to his illness, was a stationary engineer in the C. N. Ry. shops.

Mary Florence McGill.
The death of Mary Florence McGill took place at her father's residence, 327 Charlotte street yesterday. She had been in poor health for some time. She is survived by her parents and two sisters, the Misses Rose and Alice. The funeral will take place Friday morning at 8.45 o'clock (old time) from her parents' residence to St. John's Baptist church for requiem high mass.

WEDDINGS.

Leslie-irvine.
A wedding of much interest was solemnized at the Methodist Church, Fairville, on Wednesday morning, July 30th at six o'clock, when Ruby Kirk Irvine, eldest daughter of the late Robert and Mrs. Leslie of River Hebert, N. S., who has recently returned to Canada after more than four years of army service, the greater part of which was spent in the Danes and other places on the East Coast. The ceremony was that of a quiet nature, was performed by the Rev. W. J. Kirby of Dorchester, N. B., the former pastor of the church.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. James Irvine of Milford. She wore a becoming travelling suit of sand gabardine with hat to match and carried a bouquet of cream roses. As the happy couple entered the church Mendelssohn's wedding march was beautifully rendered by

Political Notes Of Much Interest

Dr. Pugsley and Premiership
—Mr. Carvell Was Not at Andover Convention *—
Little Success for New Liberal Leader in Ontario.

Among the politicians there is a great deal of activity these days, but nobody in St. John seems to believe that Hon. Mr. Pugsley will be next premier of Canada. Of this rumor the Montreal Gazette says:

"Interesting even if it is not authorized to report given currency in New Brunswick that Dr. Pugsley, the lieutenant-governor of the province, is being pressed by friends to re-entire from his present office and re-enter the political field, believing that his chances for the leadership of the Liberal party of Canada are good, and in any event that he is a man around whom the party in the province could rally. Mr. Pugsley has had a long and somewhat stormy career in public life, provincial and federal, through all of which he has managed to make many personal friends as well as many political enemies. He may hardly be drawn into the battle again by the prospect of a fight for the premiership of Canada as a reward for more opposition toil."

Missed at Andover.
Hon. Mr. Carvell did not attend the Andover convention, where the delegates re-affirmed their adherence to old-time Liberal principles, and did not suggest trimming the light in the window. The Gleaner says:

"Mr. Carvell's return to Ottawa, in response to a telegram from the capital has renewed interest in the rumor that the public are likely soon to hear something officially as to his position in the Cabinet. Mr. Carvell intended to remain at Woodstock until Monday and possibly Tuesday; he was much interested in the convention to be held at Andover today. The word from Ottawa, however, must have been important, as Mr. Carvell hastened by motor to Mattawamkeag in Maine, there to catch the Sunday train for Montreal and Ottawa. It is possible that Sir Robert Borden's apparently unexpected return to the capital on Monday for a Cabinet meeting or looked for, and which would require the attendance of Mr. Carvell and others. But, whatever the reason for Mr. Carvell's speedy move on Sunday, or whatever the cause, the politicians are much interested."

Little Success.
In Ontario the New Liberal leaders seem to be having little success in uniting the party, and does not have the support of some prominent Liberal papers. The Toronto Mail and Empire says:

"Can Mr. Hartley Dewar get back into the fellowship of the Liberal Party? We should say that a camel might as easily get through the eye of a needle, as Mr. Dewar's attempt to get back? We see no reason for believing that he is. True, he is sporting the title of leader of the Liberal party in Ontario, but the improvised convention he got it from might with as much authority have made him Post Laureate of Ontario."

"Against whom is his warbling tongue most turned in the speeches he is making these days? Is it not against former chiefs of the Ontario Liberal party, men of whom he claims to be the successor? Mr. Rowell and Mr. Proudfoot were both honored leaders of the Liberal party in this province, and against both Mr. Dewar's intemperance of speech is directed. If drapes, mare's nests, and rancorous language were of much service in a political drive then Mr. Dewar might be said to have the necessary munitions. But it is against Liberals, and not Conservatives, that his bombs are principally hurled. His onslaughts are on the political flock in whose face he shakes the crook of leadership. Though it has joined him in casting stones at Mr. Rowell, the Globe has not yet turned the eye of favor on the yearning Mr. Dewar. If such language could allowably be used about so pharisaical an organ, the Globe may be said to have gone the length of damning Mr. Dewar with faint praise though grudgingly. As for the Toronto Star, it brandishes the tomahawk and shows Mr. Dewar the door of the party wigwag. It does not recognize him as one of the braves of the Liberal tribe, much less as the big chief."

FUNERALS

The funeral of Alexander Duncan took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence, 153 Paradise Row. Service was conducted by Rev. H. C. Fraser, and interment was made in Fernhill.

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth J. Payne took place from her late residence, 70 Wentworth street, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Service was conducted by Rev. H. C. Fraser, and the body was taken to Chipman yesterday morning.

Miss Katherine Fox. Both bride and groom were unattended.

Many beautiful gifts including silverware, cut glass and checks testify to the popularity of the bride among her wide circle of friends. The groom's present to the bride was a gold wrist watch, immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Leslie left for a short trip to Nova Scotia after which they will take up their residence at River Hebert.

Save the Babies.

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twenty-two per cent., or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirty-seven per cent., or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save many of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupify, retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. To avoid any possibility of giving your child opiates, or narcotics of any kind, keep Fletcher's Castoria in the house, and Save the Babies.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Let's Think It Over.

There is such a thing as saying too much on any subject, and the "grand-stand" talker sooner or later becomes a bore. The truth is always welcomed, and the truth reiterated and confirmed is more than welcome—it reaches your innermost soul.

Fletcher's Castoria is all its advertising has claimed for it. Scrutinized by the microscope of public opinion and used for over thirty years it stands without a peer in the hearts of thoughtful, cautious, discerning Mothers. And once used, mother love—there is no substitute for mother love—will scorn to try a "substitute" or a "just-as-good."

Masquerading under many names drugs that are injurious to the tender babe have found their way into some households, but the light of experience soon casts them out. Are they cast out before it is too late?
