SUDDEN DEATH OF FRANK B. STREET
Well Known Commercial Traveler Succumbed to Heart Disease

ORANGE CELEBRATION
L. O. A. Marched to Church Yesterday and Observed Guy Fawkes Day and King William's Birthday—Water in the River Rising Fast—Other News of the Capital.

Life Savers Shot Line Across Vessel and Took the Sailors Off in Breaches Buoy—Capt. Tower of Parrsboro Had Recently Bought Boat for $12,000—She is Insured.

Frederickton, N. B., Nov. 4.—The Orange men of the city and Gibson celebrated Guy Fawkes' day and the 253rd anniversary of the birth of King William III. by attending divine service at the George street Baptist church this afternoon. The turnout was a fairly large one, there being about sixty of the brethren in line.

Rev. A. Rideout preached an eloquent sermon, appropriate to the occasion, and was followed by the great interest of the Seventy-third Band led the procession to and from the church.

The water in the river here has risen about a foot during the last few days. Frank B. Street, a Montreal commercial man, widely known throughout the maritime provinces, expired very suddenly at his home, 1000 Gadsden Street, Waterford, shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. Street had made Frederickton his headquarters for some time, and, with Mrs. Street, boarded at Miss Allen's. Mr. Street returned to the city a few days ago and intended remaining over Sunday.

His funeral was held at the residence of his wife, 1000 Gadsden Street, on Monday, Nov. 5, at 10 o'clock. The deceased was a native of the South of England, and had been in Canada for many years. He was a man of high character and a successful business man.

His wife, Mrs. Street, was a native of the same place and had been in Canada for many years. She was a woman of high character and a successful business woman.
