

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

Saturday, March 19. Aside from a few receptions and an occasional dinner, there has been nothing going on this week to interest or amuse society, and it is a foregone conclusion that the next affairs will continue until after Easter, when the gaiety interrupted by Lent will be resumed. As the great festival comes particularly early this year, leavers will no doubt take advantage of the extra opportunity afforded them to pay off some of their numerous social obligations before setting their plans for the summer campaign.

Is there any sign of spring more convincing than a millinery opening? Not even the unpleasant weather of Tuesday could dampen feminine curiosity, when feathers and flowers and chandeliers hats were on view, hence Charlotte street on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week was alive with women all the way young, bent on seeing the dernier cri in summer millinery. Next week other shows will be held, when it is hoped the weather man will smile his brightest. As seams fitting at this Lenten season, a great philanthropic entertainment was taken place during the week. On Thursday last one of the King's Daughters circles gave a delightful concert at the Old Ladies' Home. Mrs. C. H. Peters, who played a piano solo, and Mrs. Edmond Breckenridge, who sang two numbers, assisted with the programme. Refreshments were served.

On Monday evening a delightful programme was arranged by the ladies of the Y. M. C. A. and the Girls' Guild, including tableaux and games, under the supervision of Mrs. Burchas, Mrs. Melrose and Mr. E. J. Robertson, which was successfully carried out in the Y. M. C. A. building before an audience of 70 persons.

On Tuesday evening, at the Protestant Orphan Asylum, a reception was held which was thoroughly enjoyed. Mr. Estabrook, the president, presided. After the exercises, refreshments were served by the ladies committee of which Mrs. David McLellan is acting president.

Mrs. Robert Thomson, Sydney street, gave a largely attended tea at her residence yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. W. Walter White, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Charles MacPherson, of Winnipeg, arrived from Montreal on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. E. A. Smith, Carleton street, was hostess on two occasions this week. Monday afternoon a luncheon, which was the form of an art tea, was unique and most enjoyable. The rooms and halls on the first floor of the residence were beautifully decorated with roses, carnations, tulips, palms and ferns, and the table, which was daintily set and decorated with tulips and smilax, Mrs. Harold Schofield served the ice. This table and as decorative crimson roses and silver candelabras holding red shaded wax candles. The ladies who assisted were Miss Katie Hazen, Miss Alice L. Fairweather, Miss Nan Barnaby, Miss Mary Yessie, Mrs. W. A. Lockhart, Mrs. Kathleen McInerney, Miss Laur Hazen, Mrs. Smith, who received her guests in the drawing room, was handsomely gowned in blue satin with overdruss of blue tulle, crystal and silver ornaments. A notable feature was the number of brides of this year who were present. The guests who were invited for 4 o'clock derived much amusement from the difficulty experienced in placing the objects of art described on the programme, and each person received on exiting the drawing room. For instance, one could neither imagine "a drive through the pine wood," illustrated by a pine board into which had been driven a fernery and, nor could one find the House of Burns in two fistions tied with green ribbons, nor yet discover "The Maid of Orleans" in three sticks of dark molasses candy, and so on until twenty-three articles of objects had been passed. But nevertheless Miss Nan Barnaby's vivid imagination gained her first prize; Mrs. William Downie secured second. Others present were Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Humphrey, Mrs. James F. Robertson, Mrs. Silas Alexander, Mrs. Drew Mackintosh, Mrs. Powell, Mrs. Downey, Mrs. Walter Trueman, Mrs. Harold Beverly Robinson, Mrs. W. Henry Harrison, Mrs. George Fleming, Mrs. Charles Bestwick, Mrs. Spotted, Mrs. J. Darden Outram, Mrs. Daniel Muller, Mrs. William Yessie, Mrs. W. A. Lockhart, Mrs. J. M. Magee, Mrs. Frederick Daniel, Moss Laura Hazen, Miss Ene MacLaren, Miss Katie Hazen, Miss Mary Trueman, Miss Edna Austin, Miss Kathleen McInerney, Miss Bessie Madeline de Soyres, Miss Nan Barnaby, Miss Alice L. Fairweather.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Smith entertained several friends, informally, at her residence.

Mrs. J. Bright Cuplip returned home on Tuesday, after several weeks spent in Boston.

On Wednesday Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong entertained, informally, a few friends in Mrs. Walter Trueman's drawing room. The prize was prize winner in the guessing contest.

Mrs. George Murray, Pitt street, was hostess at a bridge of six tables last Friday evening, when the prizes were won by Mrs. Clarence Allen and Mr. Fred Hainington.

Mrs. Horace Longley leaves next Tuesday to spend Easter in Halifax.

Mrs. J. Vermer McLellan was hostess, informally, in her apartments at the Clifton House on Wednesday evening, when a few friends were invited to meet Mrs. Walter Trueman at the Easter St. Patrick's festivals in a dainty manner. Fluffy yellow chickens ornamented the salads, the bon-bons, which were of emerald green, were shaped like shamrocks. Other delicacies were treated in like manner. About ten guests were present.

Mrs. Walter Trueman and children leave next Tuesday for Winnipeg. While in St. John Mrs. Trueman has been the recipient of much social attention.

Mrs. C. O. Foss left Friday evening for Bridgeport (N. S.), to spend the Easter holidays.

Mrs. A. F. Randolph, who, while here, was the guest of Mrs. Silas Alward, returned last week to Fredericton.

On Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Inches Germain street, gave a very pleasant group concert party, when Mrs. E. A. Smith proved the lucky prize winner of a beautiful pot of shamrocks. Among the guests were Mrs. John McMillan, Mrs. Frederick Barker, Mrs. Robert Thomson, Mrs. Greer, Mrs. David McLellan, Mrs. John H. Thomson, Mrs. L. R. Harrison, Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. Robert James Jack.

Mrs. Robert Thomson held, yesterday afternoon, a largely attended reception at her residence, Sydney street.

Mrs. S. Carle Williams, of Rockville, Long Island, is a visitor in the city at Mrs. Charles W. Bell's, Coburg street.

His Honor the Lieut.-Governor of New Brunswick and Mrs. Tweedie have issued invitations for a ball to be held on Friday, March 30, in the Parliament building, Fredericton.

Miss Elise McLean is visiting her uncle in Minneapolis.

Mr. Ronald McAvity left last Monday for Montreal.

The marriage of Mr. John P. Vroom and Miss Maudsley took place, recently, in the Cathedral at Spokane. The bride was given away by her brother, Mrs. Arthur Mandley, of Nelson (B. C.), and she wore a navy blue chiffon, broadly tailored suit with hat to match. Miss Mary L. Vroom was bridesmaid, and Mr. Alfred McMillan, of Rossland, groomsmen.

Mrs. James McAvity spent last week in Fredericton, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Schofield, at the deconery.

Mrs. Fred Hainington entertained a few friends, informally, on Thursday evening. The Bridge Club, which held informal meetings during the winter, met at Mrs. Will. Angus' residence, on Tuesday evening.

The loss of money and valuables sustained by Mr. and Mrs. George West Jones, at Savannah, recently, was heard with sympathy by the many friends who were taken place during the week. On Thursday last one of the King's Daughters circles gave a delightful concert at the Old Ladies' Home. Mrs. C. H. Peters, who played a piano solo, and Mrs. Edmond Breckenridge, who sang two numbers, assisted with the programme. Refreshments were served.

On Monday evening a delightful programme was arranged by the ladies of the Y. M. C. A. and the Girls' Guild, including tableaux and games, under the supervision of Mrs. Burchas, Mrs. Melrose and Mr. E. J. Robertson, which was successfully carried out in the Y. M. C. A. building before an audience of 70 persons.

On Tuesday evening, at the Protestant Orphan Asylum, a reception was held which was thoroughly enjoyed. Mr. Estabrook, the president, presided. After the exercises, refreshments were served by the ladies committee of which Mrs. David McLellan is acting president.

Mrs. Robert Thomson, Sydney street, gave a largely attended tea at her residence yesterday afternoon.

invitations for a ball to be held on Friday, March 30, in the Parliament building, Fredericton.

Miss Elise McLean is visiting her uncle in Minneapolis.

Mr. Ronald McAvity left last Monday for Montreal.

The marriage of Mr. John P. Vroom and Miss Maudsley took place, recently, in the Cathedral at Spokane. The bride was given away by her brother, Mrs. Arthur Mandley, of Nelson (B. C.), and she wore a navy blue chiffon, broadly tailored suit with hat to match. Miss Mary L. Vroom was bridesmaid, and Mr. Alfred McMillan, of Rossland, groomsmen.

Mrs. James McAvity spent last week in Fredericton, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Schofield, at the deconery.

Mrs. Fred Hainington entertained a few friends, informally, on Thursday evening. The Bridge Club, which held informal meetings during the winter, met at Mrs. Will. Angus' residence, on Tuesday evening.

The loss of money and valuables sustained by Mr. and Mrs. George West Jones, at Savannah, recently, was heard with sympathy by the many friends who were taken place during the week. On Thursday last one of the King's Daughters circles gave a delightful concert at the Old Ladies' Home. Mrs. C. H. Peters, who played a piano solo, and Mrs. Edmond Breckenridge, who sang two numbers, assisted with the programme. Refreshments were served.

On Monday evening a delightful programme was arranged by the ladies of the Y. M. C. A. and the Girls' Guild, including tableaux and games, under the supervision of Mrs. Burchas, Mrs. Melrose and Mr. E. J. Robertson, which was successfully carried out in the Y. M. C. A. building before an audience of 70 persons.

On Tuesday evening, at the Protestant Orphan Asylum, a reception was held which was thoroughly enjoyed. Mr. Estabrook, the president, presided. After the exercises, refreshments were served by the ladies committee of which Mrs. David McLellan is acting president.

Mrs. Robert Thomson, Sydney street, gave a largely attended tea at her residence yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. W. Walter White, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Charles MacPherson, of Winnipeg, arrived from Montreal on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. E. A. Smith, Carleton street, was hostess on two occasions this week. Monday afternoon a luncheon, which was the form of an art tea, was unique and most enjoyable. The rooms and halls on the first floor of the residence were beautifully decorated with roses, carnations, tulips, palms and ferns, and the table, which was daintily set and decorated with tulips and smilax, Mrs. Harold Schofield served the ice. This table and as decorative crimson roses and silver candelabras holding red shaded wax candles. The ladies who assisted were Miss Katie Hazen, Miss Alice L. Fairweather, Miss Nan Barnaby, Miss Mary Yessie, Mrs. W. A. Lockhart, Mrs. Kathleen McInerney, Miss Laur Hazen, Mrs. Smith, who received her guests in the drawing room, was handsomely gowned in blue satin with overdruss of blue tulle, crystal and silver ornaments. A notable feature was the number of brides of this year who were present. The guests who were invited for 4 o'clock derived much amusement from the difficulty experienced in placing the objects of art described on the programme, and each person received on exiting the drawing room. For instance, one could neither imagine "a drive through the pine wood," illustrated by a pine board into which had been driven a fernery and, nor could one find the House of Burns in two fistions tied with green ribbons, nor yet discover "The Maid of Orleans" in three sticks of dark molasses candy, and so on until twenty-three articles of objects had been passed. But nevertheless Miss Nan Barnaby's vivid imagination gained her first prize; Mrs. William Downie secured second. Others present were Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Humphrey, Mrs. James F. Robertson, Mrs. Silas Alexander, Mrs. Drew Mackintosh, Mrs. Powell, Mrs. Downey, Mrs. Walter Trueman, Mrs. Harold Beverly Robinson, Mrs. W. Henry Harrison, Mrs. George Fleming, Mrs. Charles Bestwick, Mrs. Spotted, Mrs. J. Darden Outram, Mrs. Daniel Muller, Mrs. William Yessie, Mrs. W. A. Lockhart, Mrs. J. M. Magee, Mrs. Frederick Daniel, Moss Laura Hazen, Miss Ene MacLaren, Miss Katie Hazen, Miss Mary Trueman, Miss Edna Austin, Miss Kathleen McInerney, Miss Bessie Madeline de Soyres, Miss Nan Barnaby, Miss Alice L. Fairweather.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Smith entertained several friends, informally, at her residence.

Mrs. J. Bright Cuplip returned home on Tuesday, after several weeks spent in Boston.

On Wednesday Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong entertained, informally, a few friends in Mrs. Walter Trueman's drawing room. The prize was prize winner in the guessing contest.

Mrs. George Murray, Pitt street, was hostess at a bridge of six tables last Friday evening, when the prizes were won by Mrs. Clarence Allen and Mr. Fred Hainington.

Mrs. Horace Longley leaves next Tuesday to spend Easter in Halifax.

Mrs. J. Vermer McLellan was hostess, informally, in her apartments at the Clifton House on Wednesday evening, when a few friends were invited to meet Mrs. Walter Trueman at the Easter St. Patrick's festivals in a dainty manner. Fluffy yellow chickens ornamented the salads, the bon-bons, which were of emerald green, were shaped like shamrocks. Other delicacies were treated in like manner. About ten guests were present.

Mrs. Walter Trueman and children leave next Tuesday for Winnipeg. While in St. John Mrs. Trueman has been the recipient of much social attention.

Mrs. C. O. Foss left Friday evening for Bridgeport (N. S.), to spend the Easter holidays.

Mrs. A. F. Randolph, who, while here, was the guest of Mrs. Silas Alward, returned last week to Fredericton.

On Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Inches Germain street, gave a very pleasant group concert party, when Mrs. E. A. Smith proved the lucky prize winner of a beautiful pot of shamrocks. Among the guests were Mrs. John McMillan, Mrs. Frederick Barker, Mrs. Robert Thomson, Mrs. Greer, Mrs. David McLellan, Mrs. John H. Thomson, Mrs. L. R. Harrison, Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. Robert James Jack.

Mrs. Robert Thomson held, yesterday afternoon, a largely attended reception at her residence, Sydney street.

Mrs. S. Carle Williams, of Rockville, Long Island, is a visitor in the city at Mrs. Charles W. Bell's, Coburg street.

His Honor the Lieut.-Governor of New Brunswick and Mrs. Tweedie have issued invitations for a ball to be held on Friday, March 30, in the Parliament building, Fredericton.

Miss Elise McLean is visiting her uncle in Minneapolis.

Mr. Ronald McAvity left last Monday for Montreal.

The marriage of Mr. John P. Vroom and Miss Maudsley took place, recently, in the Cathedral at Spokane. The bride was given away by her brother, Mrs. Arthur Mandley, of Nelson (B. C.), and she wore a navy blue chiffon, broadly tailored suit with hat to match. Miss Mary L. Vroom was bridesmaid, and Mr. Alfred McMillan, of Rossland, groomsmen.

Mrs. James McAvity spent last week in Fredericton, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Schofield, at the deconery.

Mrs. Fred Hainington entertained a few friends, informally, on Thursday evening. The Bridge Club, which held informal meetings during the winter, met at Mrs. Will. Angus' residence, on Tuesday evening.

The loss of money and valuables sustained by Mr. and Mrs. George West Jones, at Savannah, recently, was heard with sympathy by the many friends who were taken place during the week. On Thursday last one of the King's Daughters circles gave a delightful concert at the Old Ladies' Home. Mrs. C. H. Peters, who played a piano solo, and Mrs. Edmond Breckenridge, who sang two numbers, assisted with the programme. Refreshments were served.

On Monday evening a delightful programme was arranged by the ladies of the Y. M. C. A. and the Girls' Guild, including tableaux and games, under the supervision of Mrs. Burchas, Mrs. Melrose and Mr. E. J. Robertson, which was successfully carried out in the Y. M. C. A. building before an audience of 70 persons.

On Tuesday evening, at the Protestant Orphan Asylum, a reception was held which was thoroughly enjoyed. Mr. Estabrook, the president, presided. After the exercises, refreshments were served by the ladies committee of which Mrs. David McLellan is acting president.

Mrs. Robert Thomson, Sydney street, gave a largely attended tea at her residence yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. W. Walter White, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Charles MacPherson, of Winnipeg, arrived from Montreal on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. E. A. Smith, Carleton street, was hostess on two occasions this week. Monday afternoon a luncheon, which was the form of an art tea, was unique and most enjoyable. The rooms and halls on the first floor of the residence were beautifully decorated with roses, carnations, tulips, palms and ferns, and the table, which was daintily set and decorated with tulips and smilax, Mrs. Harold Schofield served the ice. This table and as decorative crimson roses and silver candelabras holding red shaded wax candles. The ladies who assisted were Miss Katie Hazen, Miss Alice L. Fairweather, Miss Nan Barnaby, Miss Mary Yessie, Mrs. W. A. Lockhart, Mrs. Kathleen McInerney, Miss Laur Hazen, Mrs. Smith, who received her guests in the drawing room, was handsomely gowned in blue satin with overdruss of blue tulle, crystal and silver ornaments. A notable feature was the number of brides of this year who were present. The guests who were invited for 4 o'clock derived much amusement from the difficulty experienced in placing the objects of art described on the programme, and each person received on exiting the drawing room. For instance, one could neither imagine "a drive through the pine wood," illustrated by a pine board into which had been driven a fernery and, nor could one find the House of Burns in two fistions tied with green ribbons, nor yet discover "The Maid of Orleans" in three sticks of dark molasses candy, and so on until twenty-three articles of objects had been passed. But nevertheless Miss Nan Barnaby's vivid imagination gained her first prize; Mrs. William Downie secured second. Others present were Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Humphrey, Mrs. James F. Robertson, Mrs. Silas Alexander, Mrs. Drew Mackintosh, Mrs. Powell, Mrs. Downey, Mrs. Walter Trueman, Mrs. Harold Beverly Robinson, Mrs. W. Henry Harrison, Mrs. George Fleming, Mrs. Charles Bestwick, Mrs. Spotted, Mrs. J. Darden Outram, Mrs. Daniel Muller, Mrs. William Yessie, Mrs. W. A. Lockhart, Mrs. J. M. Magee, Mrs. Frederick Daniel, Moss Laura Hazen, Miss Ene MacLaren, Miss Katie Hazen, Miss Mary Trueman, Miss Edna Austin, Miss Kathleen McInerney, Miss Bessie Madeline de Soyres, Miss Nan Barnaby, Miss Alice L. Fairweather.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Smith entertained several friends, informally, at her residence.

Mrs. J. Bright Cuplip returned home on Tuesday, after several weeks spent in Boston.

On Wednesday Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong entertained, informally, a few friends in Mrs. Walter Trueman's drawing room. The prize was prize winner in the guessing contest.

Mrs. George Murray, Pitt street, was hostess at a bridge of six tables last Friday evening, when the prizes were won by Mrs. Clarence Allen and Mr. Fred Hainington.

Mrs. Horace Longley leaves next Tuesday to spend Easter in Halifax.

Mrs. J. Vermer McLellan was hostess, informally, in her apartments at the Clifton House on Wednesday evening, when a few friends were invited to meet Mrs. Walter Trueman at the Easter St. Patrick's festivals in a dainty manner. Fluffy yellow chickens ornamented the salads, the bon-bons, which were of emerald green, were shaped like shamrocks. Other delicacies were treated in like manner. About ten guests were present.

Mrs. Walter Trueman and children leave next Tuesday for Winnipeg. While in St. John Mrs. Trueman has been the recipient of much social attention.

invitations for a ball to be held on Friday, March 30, in the Parliament building, Fredericton.

Miss Elise McLean is visiting her uncle in Minneapolis.

Mr. Ronald McAvity left last Monday for Montreal.

The marriage of Mr. John P. Vroom and Miss Maudsley took place, recently, in the Cathedral at Spokane. The bride was given away by her brother, Mrs. Arthur Mandley, of Nelson (B. C.), and she wore a navy blue chiffon, broadly tailored suit with hat to match. Miss Mary L. Vroom was bridesmaid, and Mr. Alfred McMillan, of Rossland, groomsmen.

Mrs. James McAvity spent last week in Fredericton, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Schofield, at the deconery.

Mrs. Fred Hainington entertained a few friends, informally, on Thursday evening. The Bridge Club, which held informal meetings during the winter, met at Mrs. Will. Angus' residence, on Tuesday evening.

The loss of money and valuables sustained by Mr. and Mrs. George West Jones, at Savannah, recently, was heard with sympathy by the many friends who were taken place during the week. On Thursday last one of the King's Daughters circles gave a delightful concert at the Old Ladies' Home. Mrs. C. H. Peters, who played a piano solo, and Mrs. Edmond Breckenridge, who sang two numbers, assisted with the programme. Refreshments were served.

On Monday evening a delightful programme was arranged by the ladies of the Y. M. C. A. and the Girls' Guild, including tableaux and games, under the supervision of Mrs. Burchas, Mrs. Melrose and Mr. E. J. Robertson, which was successfully carried out in the Y. M. C. A. building before an audience of 70 persons.

On Tuesday evening, at the Protestant Orphan Asylum, a reception was held which was thoroughly enjoyed. Mr. Estabrook, the president, presided. After the exercises, refreshments were served by the ladies committee of which Mrs. David McLellan is acting president.

Mrs. Robert Thomson, Sydney street, gave a largely attended tea at her residence yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. W. Walter White, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Charles MacPherson, of Winnipeg, arrived from Montreal on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. E. A. Smith, Carleton street, was hostess on two occasions this week. Monday afternoon a luncheon, which was the form of an art tea, was unique and most enjoyable. The rooms and halls on the first floor of the residence were beautifully decorated with roses, carnations, tulips, palms and ferns, and the table, which was daintily set and decorated with tulips and smilax, Mrs. Harold Schofield served the ice. This table and as decorative crimson roses and silver candelabras holding red shaded wax candles. The ladies who assisted were Miss Katie Hazen, Miss Alice L. Fairweather, Miss Nan Barnaby, Miss Mary Yessie, Mrs. W. A. Lockhart, Mrs. Kathleen McInerney, Miss Laur Hazen, Mrs. Smith, who received her guests in the drawing room, was handsomely gowned in blue satin with overdruss of blue tulle, crystal and silver ornaments. A notable feature was the number of brides of this year who were present. The guests who were invited for 4 o'clock derived much amusement from the difficulty experienced in placing the objects of art described on the programme, and each person received on exiting the drawing room. For instance, one could neither imagine "a drive through the pine wood," illustrated by a pine board into which had been driven a fernery and, nor could one find the House of Burns in two fistions tied with green ribbons, nor yet discover "The Maid of Orleans" in three sticks of dark molasses candy, and so on until twenty-three articles of objects had been passed. But nevertheless Miss Nan Barnaby's vivid imagination gained her first prize; Mrs. William Downie secured second. Others present were Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Humphrey, Mrs. James F. Robertson, Mrs. Silas Alexander, Mrs. Drew Mackintosh, Mrs. Powell, Mrs. Downey, Mrs. Walter Trueman, Mrs. Harold Beverly Robinson, Mrs. W. Henry Harrison, Mrs. George Fleming, Mrs. Charles Bestwick, Mrs. Spotted, Mrs. J. Darden Outram, Mrs. Daniel Muller, Mrs. William Yessie, Mrs. W. A. Lockhart, Mrs. J. M. Magee, Mrs. Frederick Daniel, Moss Laura Hazen, Miss Ene MacLaren, Miss Katie Hazen, Miss Mary Trueman, Miss Edna Austin, Miss Kathleen McInerney, Miss Bessie Madeline de Soyres, Miss Nan Barnaby, Miss Alice L. Fairweather.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Smith entertained several friends, informally, at her residence.

Mrs. J. Bright Cuplip returned home on Tuesday, after several weeks spent in Boston.

On Wednesday Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong entertained, informally, a few friends in Mrs. Walter Trueman's drawing room. The prize was prize winner in the guessing contest.

Mrs. George Murray, Pitt street, was hostess at a bridge of six tables last Friday evening, when the prizes were won by Mrs. Clarence Allen and Mr. Fred Hainington.

Mrs. Horace Longley leaves next Tuesday to spend Easter in Halifax.

Mrs. J. Vermer McLellan was hostess, informally, in her apartments at the Clifton House on Wednesday evening, when a few friends were invited to meet Mrs. Walter Trueman at the Easter St. Patrick's festivals in a dainty manner. Fluffy yellow chickens ornamented the salads, the bon-bons, which were of emerald green, were shaped like shamrocks. Other delicacies were treated in like manner. About ten guests were present.

Mrs. Walter Trueman and children leave next Tuesday for Winnipeg. While in St. John Mrs. Trueman has been the recipient of much social attention.

Mrs. C. O. Foss left Friday evening for Bridgeport (N. S.), to spend the Easter holidays.

Mrs. A. F. Randolph, who, while here, was the guest of Mrs. Silas Alward, returned last week to Fredericton.

On Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Inches Germain street, gave a very pleasant group concert party, when Mrs. E. A. Smith proved the lucky prize winner of a beautiful pot of shamrocks. Among the guests were Mrs. John McMillan, Mrs. Frederick Barker, Mrs. Robert Thomson, Mrs. Greer, Mrs. David McLellan, Mrs. John H. Thomson, Mrs. L. R. Harrison, Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. Robert James Jack.

Mrs. Robert Thomson held, yesterday afternoon, a largely attended reception at her residence, Sydney street.

Mrs. S. Carle Williams, of Rockville, Long Island, is a visitor in the city at Mrs. Charles W. Bell's, Coburg street.

His Honor the Lieut.-Governor of New Brunswick and Mrs. Tweedie have issued invitations for a ball to be held on Friday, March 30, in the Parliament building, Fredericton.

Miss Elise McLean is visiting her uncle in Minneapolis.

Mr. Ronald McAvity left last Monday for Montreal.

The marriage of Mr. John P. Vroom and Miss Maudsley took place, recently, in the Cathedral at Spokane. The bride was given away by her brother, Mrs. Arthur Mandley, of Nelson (B. C.), and she wore a navy blue chiffon, broadly tailored suit with hat to match. Miss Mary L. Vroom was bridesmaid, and Mr. Alfred McMillan, of Rossland, groomsmen.

Mrs. James McAvity spent last week in Fredericton, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Schofield, at the deconery.

Mrs. Fred Hainington entertained a few friends, informally, on Thursday evening. The Bridge Club, which held informal meetings during the winter, met at Mrs. Will. Angus' residence, on Tuesday evening.

The loss of money and valuables sustained by Mr. and Mrs. George West Jones, at Savannah, recently, was heard with sympathy by the many friends who were taken place during the week. On Thursday last one of the King's Daughters circles gave a delightful concert at the Old Ladies' Home. Mrs. C. H. Peters, who played a piano solo, and Mrs. Edmond Breckenridge, who sang two numbers, assisted with the programme. Refreshments were served.

On Monday evening a delightful programme was arranged by the ladies of the Y. M. C. A. and the Girls' Guild, including tableaux and games, under the supervision of Mrs. Burchas, Mrs. Melrose and Mr. E. J. Robertson, which was successfully carried out in the Y. M. C. A. building before an audience of 70 persons.

On Tuesday evening, at the Protestant Orphan Asylum, a reception was held which was thoroughly enjoyed. Mr. Estabrook, the president, presided. After the exercises, refreshments were served by the ladies committee of which Mrs. David McLellan is acting president.

Mrs. Robert Thomson, Sydney street, gave a largely attended tea at her residence yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. W. Walter White, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Charles MacPherson, of Winnipeg, arrived from Montreal on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. E. A. Smith, Carleton street, was hostess on two occasions this week. Monday afternoon a luncheon, which was the form of an art tea, was unique and most enjoyable. The rooms and halls on the first floor of the residence were beautifully decorated with roses, carnations, tulips, palms and ferns, and the table, which was daintily set and decorated with tulips and smilax, Mrs. Harold Schofield served the ice. This table and as decorative crimson roses and silver candelabras holding red shaded wax candles. The ladies who assisted were Miss Katie Hazen, Miss Alice L. Fairweather, Miss Nan Barnaby, Miss Mary Yessie, Mrs. W. A. Lockhart, Mrs. Kathleen McInerney, Miss Laur Hazen, Mrs. Smith, who received her guests in the drawing room, was handsomely gowned in blue satin with overdruss of blue tulle, crystal and silver ornaments. A notable feature was the number of brides of this year who were present. The guests who were invited for 4 o'clock derived much amusement from the difficulty experienced in placing the objects of art described on the programme, and each person received on exiting the drawing room. For instance, one could neither imagine "a drive through the pine wood," illustrated by a pine board into which had been driven a fernery and, nor could one find the House of Burns in two fistions tied with green ribbons, nor yet discover "The Maid of Orleans" in three sticks of dark molasses candy, and so on until twenty-three articles of objects had been passed. But nevertheless Miss Nan Barnaby's vivid imagination gained her first prize; Mrs. William Downie secured second. Others present were Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Humphrey, Mrs. James F. Robertson, Mrs. Silas Alexander, Mrs. Drew Mackintosh, Mrs. Powell, Mrs. Downey, Mrs. Walter Trueman, Mrs. Harold Beverly Robinson, Mrs. W. Henry Harrison, Mrs. George Fleming, Mrs. Charles Bestwick, Mrs. Spotted, Mrs. J. Darden Outram, Mrs. Daniel Muller, Mrs. William Yessie, Mrs. W. A. Lockhart, Mrs. J. M. Magee, Mrs. Frederick Daniel, Moss Laura Hazen, Miss Ene MacLaren, Miss Katie Hazen, Miss Mary Trueman, Miss Edna Austin, Miss Kathleen McInerney, Miss Bessie Madeline de Soyres, Miss Nan Barnaby, Miss Alice L. Fairweather.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Smith entertained several friends, informally, at her residence.

Mrs. J. Bright Cuplip returned home on Tuesday, after several weeks spent in Boston.

On Wednesday Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong entertained, informally, a few friends in Mrs. Walter Trueman's drawing room. The prize was prize winner in the guessing contest.

Mrs. George Murray, Pitt street, was hostess at a bridge of six tables last Friday evening, when the prizes were won by Mrs. Clarence Allen and Mr. Fred Hainington.

Mrs. Horace Longley leaves next Tuesday to spend Easter in Halifax.

Mrs. J. Vermer McLellan was hostess, informally, in her apartments at the Clifton House on Wednesday evening, when a few friends were invited to meet Mrs. Walter Trueman at the Easter St. Patrick's festivals in a dainty manner. Fluffy yellow chickens ornamented the salads, the bon-bons, which were of emerald green, were shaped like shamrocks. Other delicacies were treated in like manner. About ten guests were present.

Mrs. Walter Trueman and children leave next Tuesday for Winnipeg. While in St. John Mrs. Trueman has been the recipient of much social attention.

invitations for a ball to be held on Friday, March 30, in the Parliament building, Fredericton.

Miss Elise McLean is visiting her uncle in Minneapolis.

Mr. Ronald McAvity left last Monday for Montreal.

The marriage of Mr. John P. Vroom and Miss Maudsley took place, recently, in the Cathedral at Spokane. The bride was given away by her brother, Mrs. Arthur Mandley, of Nelson (B. C.), and she wore a navy blue chiffon, broadly tailored suit with hat to match. Miss Mary L. Vroom was bridesmaid, and Mr. Alfred McMillan, of Rossland, groomsmen.

Mrs. James McAvity spent last week in Fredericton, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Schofield, at the deconery.

Mrs. Fred Hainington entertained a few friends, informally, on Thursday evening. The Bridge Club, which held informal meetings during the winter, met at Mrs. Will. Angus' residence, on Tuesday evening.

The loss of money and valuables sustained by Mr. and Mrs. George West Jones, at Savannah, recently, was heard with sympathy by the many friends who were taken place during the week. On Thursday last one of the King's Daughters circles gave a delightful concert at the Old Ladies' Home. Mrs. C. H. Peters, who played a piano solo, and Mrs. Edmond Breckenridge, who sang two numbers, assisted with the programme. Refreshments were served.

On Monday evening a delightful programme was arranged by the ladies of the Y. M. C. A. and the Girls' Guild, including tableaux and games, under the supervision of Mrs. Burchas, Mrs. Melrose and Mr. E. J. Robertson, which was successfully carried out in the Y. M. C. A. building before an audience of 70 persons.

On Tuesday evening, at the Protestant Orphan Asylum, a reception was held which was thoroughly enjoyed. Mr. Estabrook, the president, presided. After the exercises, refreshments were served by the ladies committee of which Mrs. David McLellan is acting president.

Mrs. Robert Thomson, Sydney street, gave a largely attended tea at her residence yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. W. Walter White, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Charles MacPherson, of Winnipeg, arrived from Montreal on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. E. A. Smith, Carleton street, was hostess on two occasions this week. Monday afternoon a luncheon, which