

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

This week has been unusually gay with dances, bridge and teas, and Edward Terry and his English company at the Opera House. There have been two of three afternoon entertainments each day. All this with the skating parties and curling has kept society people busy.

A lovely gown of white lace over white satin with veil and orange blossoms. The veil was very handsome and was a family heirloom and had been worn at former weddings. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid wore a white voile gown, white velvet hat with white plumes and carried pink carnations. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers; the color scheme was white and green. Among the out of town guests were the groom's father, Mr. George A. Bradley, and his brother, Mr. Frank Bradley, of New York; the bride's mother, Mrs. White, White and their son, of Springfield, Mass.; Mrs. Melish, of Halifax, and Mrs. J. E. MacIntyre, of St. John.

Chatham, Jan. 12.—Frank Winslow was christened a third offspring against the odds yesterday and sentenced to four months imprisonment. Peter McDonald, for a first offence, was fined $50 and costs. An application was made to Judge Lawrence for an order to issue a writ of habeas corpus for the purpose of securing the release of the late Michael Reenan, who was arrested on a charge of being a vagrant and who was held in the County Jail for several days. The writ was granted and Reenan was released on his own recognizance.

Edgar W. Hisebeck, and the happy young couple were showered with many beautiful gifts and congratulations. Mrs. Hisebeck, who was in Montreal on Tuesday evening for the purpose of visiting her mother, returned to her home this morning and was greeted by her husband and children. The bride is now in Montreal and will remain there for several days. The wedding was a very quiet affair and was held at the home of the bride's mother.

OTTAWA

Ottawa, Jan. 10.—On Wednesday evening, Jan. 10, Mrs. Russell Blackburn gave a delightful dance for "not out" in honor of her two sisters, Misses Joan and Sheila McDonald.

ROTHESAY

Rothsay, Jan. 12.—The children's party and Christmas tree at the Ellinor Home Farm last Thursday evening was a great success and enjoyed by the little people and their friends too. The table was very prettily decorated with red and white candles, and the tree a handsome one bearing gifts for all.

ST. GEORGE

St. George, Jan. 12.—The first carnival of the season was held on the skating rink at St. George, on Tuesday evening, a large number of the citizens being in attendance. Some very prizes were awarded to the winners of the various events.

BORDER TOWNS

St. Stephen, N. B., Jan. 11.—Mr. and Mrs. W. Todd and Miss Mildred Todd left on Monday evening for Ottawa, where they will remain during the rest of the winter.

NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, Jan. 13.—Sister St. Marie Alice, formerly Miss Helen O'Black, of Newcastle, spent part of the week with her mother, Mrs. H. J. Morris, and at St. Mary's convent. She was on her way from Montreal to Antigonish, where she will be instructress in music.

CAMPBELLTON

Campbellton, Jan. 11.—Mr. Robert Fawcett, of St. John, spent Sunday here the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fawcett.

SACKVILLE

Sackville, Jan. 11.—Mrs. H. J. Morris, of Sackville, spent Sunday here the guest of her mother, Mrs. M. J. Morris, and at St. Mary's convent.

BATH

Bathurst, N. B., Jan. 12.—Mrs. J. B. Hadden, of Bathurst, is visiting in this week.

Continuation of news items and social reports from various locations in the Maritime Provinces, including mentions of local events, marriages, and social gatherings.