SUSPENSION BRIDGE BEING DISMANTLED

Wednesday, Sept. 1.

Work of dismantling the historic and picturesque Suspension Bridge at the Reservoir Falls, was begun yesterday morning by a crew under the direction of Contractor Joseph McVey, who, as was announced exclusively in The Telegraph yesterday morning, has been awarded the contract for removing the remarkable structure.

The progressive movement in the city and harbor of St. John in recent years has brought about considerable loss in landmarks and other objects closely associated with the history of the port's development. The passing of the Beacon Light, the burning of which at sunset more than a year ago was a most spectacular sight, marked in a unique way the opening of a new channel to the new port of St. John.

The removal of the Suspension bridge, brought about by demand for more complete accommodation for greatly increased traffic between the east and west sides of the city and county, means the destruction of a famous span which is a splendid example of the type. Contractor McVey expects to have the woodwork of the bridge practically all torn away within three weeks, and hopes to have the bridge completely dismantled well within the time stipulated. A start was made in lifting the flooring at the centre yesterday, and a large gang will be set to work today in order that the dismantling be hastened.

The contractor is also engaged in cutting off a corner of the southern anchorage at the western approach so that the street railway company may proceed with the work of laying the rails for the service over the new bridge. The corner will be removed by today.

The granite blocks which carry the cables of the Suspension bridge will be used in foundation erection for the new bridge at Moncton. An engineer of the railway continued the survey at the western approach yesterday.

ONTARIO'S COMMISSION-GRABBERS AND NOVA SCOTIA HORSE VENDORS

(Toronto Telegram). Ontario is not so far without sin that this province need throw the first stone at Nova Scotia. It is pitiful, squalid and mean sort which is being revealed at the inquiry into the work of the horse purchasers in Nova Scotia. Was it a noble story in which Ontario figured as the home of patriots who officiated as the collectors of lavish commissions for certain traders of service who were able to render their country in Britain's hour of need?

THE RUSSIAN RETREAT

(By J. C. M. Duncan). Yield to the foe his fruitless goal, Thou art unconquered still in soul. Thine arm may for a season lack Strength to hurl the invader back, But while the purpose of thy will Is founded upon Reason's soil, And spiritual fortitude Thou art not, canst not be, subdued. Hence let the despots deck their brows With each vain wreath that time allows, Or fleeting victory accords To thy unconquered swords. Thou art the combat fierce and stern, Redoubtable, that returns, And pour thy valor forth again For liberty, and not in vain.

WONDERFUL EXPERIENCE OF CHICAGO MAN.

London, Aug. 31—Robert Beck, of Chicago, who was made deaf and dumb by an injury sustained while fighting with the British army, suddenly recovered his speech and hearing today. Beck, who was a motor cycle policeman on the Chicago force when the war broke out, became a dispatch bearer with the British troops and was struck down by a sniper's bullet in Flanders. He was taken to Liverpool. From the day of his injury he had been unable to hear or speak until he was taken, with other convalescents, to a moving picture entertainment in Liverpool. While watching a comic picture he suddenly burst out in laughter. The next moment he found that he was able to talk and hear normally.

PROMINENT MEXICAN LEADER KILLED IN BATTLE WITH AMERICANS

El Paso, Aug. 31—Government officials here tonight said they had received reports confirming earlier rumors that General Pascual Orozco, prominent military leader during Mexican revolutions of the last five years, had been shot and killed in a fight between Mexicans and an American posse. Citizens, United States customs officers and members of the 130th United States Cavalry participated in the battle, which, according to reports, was fought in the Green River Canyon of the High Lonesome Mountains, Culberson county, Texas. After a raid on the Dick Love ranch yesterday, Orozco and four companions were pursued from the Sierra Blanca country into the foothills.

Men, Not Machines.

(London Daily Express). We have not fought with men, but with machines, and more machines, and still more machines. We are battered and undismayed. Right down in our hearts we know that this work is made for machines but for men. And we are men. It is the human being with the clean heart that will win this war. New brooms should be sealed in hot soap suds before being used.

GERMANY AGREES TO ENSURE SAFETY DETAILS OF HIS RECRUITING PLAN

Washington, Sept. 1—Count Bernstorff, German ambassador, on instructions from Berlin, verbally informed Secretary of State Lansing today that the German government had accepted the principle that passenger liners should be warned before attack by submarines. He will formally communicate this information in writing. The ambassador's conference with Secretary Lansing lasted fifteen minutes. As he left, Von Bernstorff said Mr. Lansing would give a statement as to the conference but himself refused to discuss his visit. Secretary Lansing following the visit of the German ambassador said: "The German ambassador told me that his government would accept our declarations regarding submarine warfare in principle. The ambassador agreed to reduce his statement to writing which he will submit to me later in the day. It was also revealed at the state department that affidavits have been received from survivors of the Dunsley, the steamer which was attacked just before the Arabic was sunk, presumably by the same submarine. Secretary Lansing conferred briefly with the president just before seeing Count Von Bernstorff. The full text of Von Bernstorff's communication to Secretary Lansing was as follows: "My Dear Secretary—With reference to our conversation of this morning, I beg to inform you that my instructions concerning our answer to your last Lusitania note, contains the following passage: "Liners will not be sunk by our submarines without warning, and without safety of non-combatants, being assured, provided the latter do not try to escape or resist." "Although I know you do not wish to discuss the Lusitania question till the Arabic incident has been definitely and satisfactorily settled, I desire to inform you of the above, because this policy of my government was decided on before the Arabic incident occurred. "I have no objections to your making any statement you please of the above information. "I remain, my dear Mr. Lansing, "Very Sincerely Yours, (Signed) "J. BERNSTORFF."

RECORDED SUNK

Washington, Sept. 1—Bearing out reports that the submarine which sunk the Arabic had herself been sunk, state department officials revealed that a report was received from Ambassador Page, at London, the day after the sinking of the steamer, indicating that the German submarine had been destroyed near the scene of the Arabic disaster. London, Sept. 1—The admiralty has given out no information concerning the fate of the German submarine which sank the Arabic. Unofficial reports that the submarine had been sunk are being circulated. It is said that the craft attempted to torpedo the British steamer Nicossian, which arrived at Liverpool from New Orleans on August 24, five days after the Arabic went down. According to this account, the Nicossian escaped and the submarine, while attempting to sink her fell a victim to a patrol boat. In Liverpool the report is that the submarine has been captured and not sunk.

SERBIA COMPLETES

Paris, Sept. 1—The Serbian government has informed Greece that it intends to comply with the requests of the Quadruple Entente concerning the concessions demanded by Bulgaria. This news comes in an Athens despatch to the Matin. "Invite His Lordship Bishop Le Blanc, His Lordship Bishop Richardson, His Lordship Bishop O'Leary, and other church dignitaries, to hold joint meetings, at such central points as St. John, Moncton, Fredericton, Woodstock, St. Stephen and Chatham or Newcastle, Miramichi. "Have monster September and October picnics, in important agricultural districts—to be addressed by leading men in advancing the work of recruiting. "Have central committee headquarters in all important centres, these to be open to commercial travelers who, in this way, could keep the local authorities advised as to what other centres were doing. "Thorough organization, particularly in New Brunswick, is more than ever needed, because of the present low condition of our Patriotic Fund. Strive systematic work will be needed to arrange for the disposal of the proceeds of the August Bridge. The sum of $60 was realized and of this $17 was added to the July amount; $10 was sent to Miss Annie Stammers, nursing in the Moore Barracks Hospital, Bathurst; $10 to Edward Sears for the Orphans Tobacco Fund, and $28 for the soldiers' comforts. The committee in charge was composed of Misses Zela Morton, Pearl Clark, Elsie Henderson and Beatrice Roch and Mrs. E. Tuck.
