Provincial
Elections Act

Province of British Columbia

NOTICE TO PROVINCIAL VOTERS

ABSENTEE VOTING ON ELECTION DAY.

If you are away from home but still in British Columbia on Election Day, there is a way to vote.

Absentee voting means that if you are absent from your own electoral district or polling division on Election Day, but still in British Columbia, you can vote. In certain greater Vancouver and greater Victoria electoral districts voters may not cast absentee ballots within their own electoral district.

On Election Day, go to the nearest polling station and request a special Absentee Ballot. Remember, you must be on the Provincial voters list for your electoral district to be eligible to vote. You vote for the candidate of your choice in your electoral district.

To assist the local election officials, give them the name of the electoral district where you are registered, or ask for assistance to locate the name. The election officials will have a list of candidates for all electoral districts. Polling stations will be open throughout the province on Election Day, May 10, from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Pacific Daylight Saving Time. As an absentee voter you can vote anywhere in British Columbia.

In the Victoria, Surrey and Vancouver electoral districts, two members are elected. Voters registered in these districts may vote for two candidates and will be advised at the poll.
