Let sailors ring of the windy deep,
Let soldiers praise their armour.
But in my heart this toast Pil keep,
The Independent Farmer.
Wher, first the rose in robes of green
Unfolde its crimson lining,
And sound his cottage porch is seen
The honey-suckle twining.
When hanks of bloom their sweetness yield,
To bees that gather honey,
He drives his team across the field,
When skies are soft and balmy.

The blackbird clucks behind the plow,
The quail pipes loud and clearly,
You or chard hides behind its bough
The home he loves so dearly;
The gray old barn, whose doors unfold

His ample store in measure, More rich of heaps than hoarded gold. A precious, blessed treasure; But yonder in the porch there stands
