MRS. CHARLES ELLIOTT HAPPILY

CELEBRATES 90th BIRTHDAY

To celebrate one's 90th birthday is not an ordinary event in these days of "stress and strain." Relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Charles Elliott at Port George, on the 27th of July, bearing in mind and marking by their presence the birthday of one who has been privileged, indeed to see so many years with its numberless changes. Looking back over at least 80 mile stones, Mrs. Elliott has many memories which stir within her when she becomes reminiscent over the pathway she has gone. There is an intermingling of joys and sorrows of care and blessing, but ever mindful of the great mercies of her Heavenly Father. She has been contemplating with a humble joy this reunion, when out of a family of eight daughters and two sons, seven daughters have been spared to her.

Mrs. Elliott's husband died about ten years ago at the age of 83 years, and the other deceased members are Miss (Mrs. O'Neil) of New Brunswick, and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Tingley, of Wilmot, while those specially blessed in joining with the mother on so auspicious an occasion are Mrs. S. B. Spurr, who resides on the home of Mrs. J. W. Tingley, of Brighton, Mass.; Mrs. L. J. Tingley, Windsor.

There was also present from Windsor, Miss Ruth Tingley, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Manning of Halifax, with their little daughter, Marjorie, who completed the four generations. There are three other great grand children residing in Halifax, Jean and Charles MacDonald, children of Mr. and Mrs. Robert MacDonald and Richard, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Tingley.

Mrs. Elliott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Stocum, left Massachusetts in early life and first settled in St. John, N. B. and later moved to Annapolis County where Mrs. Ruth Stocum (Mrs. Elliott) was born and only a short distance from where all her married life has been spent.

With facilities as clear as when many years younger this aged lady—old in years, but young in mind and body—is privileged to have an interest in the affairs of the world. As a devout student of the Bible and as a member of the Baptist Church, which she joined in early childhood, these mean much to her in her daily life in giving her comfort and happiness she enjoys.

The many friends who assembled at the home of Mrs. Elliott on the 27th of July, which could be appreciated and treasured. There were flowers in profusion, and all were devotedly grateful that this wonderful mother and friend had been spared and given a good measure of health and happiness. God's greatest blessing. She has the esteem of a large circle of friends. Here is a life well spent and well lived, and a blessing to others. Life generally grows sweeter as one grows older. Mrs. Elliott is a woman of many precious memories should certainly be lovelier than life's prime, as sunset is lovelier than dawn.

We have some very heavy obligations coming due shortly, and we certainly would like to have a clearance made of all accounts owing to us. We do not wish to resort to strenuous methods, but there will be no alternative unless we can scrape together a couple of thousand dollars. Most people know how much they owe, but still neglect to pay after repeated notifications of same. Now let's see how many will square up before the 21st of this month. Sooner the better, of course, thank you.

I would surprise you if you knew all the people who seek "free" publicity. The newspaper man usually is able to secure a nice long list in almost any community. These "free" publicity seekers are a detriment to any land. They ought to be all lived together and let them give up one another, instead of being allowed to prey upon publishers, who in nine cases out of ten have to work hard for every penny they get, and from experience we can say for a good many they don't get it.

R. R. Goucher, the electrician, and his staff are busy installing the electrical fixtures in the store of C. A. Mumford and barber shop of C. E. Cummings in the New Morrison block, which is practically ready for occupancy, the scores being completed. The second floor is still to be completed. The block is very imposing and will soon be quite brilliant when occupied throughout. On top of the building at the front there is a nice architectural design upon which in bold relief letters appear the words Morrison Block and the year 1925. J. H. Hicks & Son have been doing the work from the foundation to date.

DR. AVERY A. SHAW SHOWS VIEWS OF EUROPEAN TRIP

Lawrenceton, Aug. 1—A lecture of great interest and educational value was given at the Baptist Church, Lawrenceton, on Friday evening, by Dr. Avery A. Shaw, pastor of the Inman Baptist Church, Brooklyn, N.Y.

The lecture was nicely illustrated by colored views which had been taken by Dr. Shaw himself, while on his five months' tour of Great Britain and of France, Holland, Belgium and Switzerland and Italy, some of which were views of the battlefields and memorials of the great war. The appreciation of the audience was expressed by a hearty vote of thanks.

Others taking part in the evening's programme were the Misses Bancroft, Mrs. L. F. Wallace and Mrs. Dr. Shaw, Dr. Shaw is spending a few months at Milford, N.S., where he has charge of the Boys' Camp. He was born in Weston, Nova Scotia, and in addition to his successful ten years' pastorate in Brooklyn, he has held equally successful pastorates at Cleveland, Ohio, and Winnipeg, Man, and Windsor, Nova Scotia.

REV. P. A. WALKER INDUCTED INTO UNITED CHURCH CHARGE

The induction of Rev. P. A. Walker into the United Church charge took place in Middleton last Friday evening. The service being held in the United Church, Middleton.

At eight o'clock the auditorium of the enlarged and beautiful church was filled with an expectant audience, and on the platform were Rev. John H. Harkin, chairman; Rev. A. D. MacKinnon, secretary; Rev. C. M. Mack and Rev. John MacKay, while in the front seat of the church were Rev. P. A. Walker and Rev. W. H. Turner.

It was the first service of the kind ever conducted in the Middleton United Church. The first part of the service was conducted by Rev. A. D. MacKinnon, who read from Isaiah 61, and whose sermon was based on Hebrews 12, part of v. 27 "That these things which cannot be shaken may remain." After this address the choir rendered an anthem.

At this stage of the programme Rev. John H. Harkin proceeded to induct the new minister. To the solemn questions addressed to the minister, appropriate answers were given, and then followed the prayer of dedication. Rev. C. M. Mack, of Bear River was then called on to address the minister. It was revealed that Mr. Mack and Mr. Walker had labored together at Amherst, and so it seemed fitting that Mr. Mack should give this address. The points stressed were that the minister should be a man of God, a student, a pastor and a preacher.

Rev. John MacKay of Waterville, then addressed the congregation. He congratulated the minister and congratulated the members of the church, which they had entered, and solicited the heartiest co-operation on the part of the members and adherents to make the new pastorate an unqualified success.

The meeting throughout was enthusiastic, and the address of Rev. W. R. Turner indicated that the step taken in the call to Rev. Mr. Walker was in good form. The hymns selected by the choir were all most appropriate, and the choir leader, under the leadership of Mrs. W. H. Turner, after the benediction had been pronounced by Rev. W. H. Watts, the members of the Presbytery met for a short session to complete business left over from the meeting of July 15th.

Rev. P. A. Walker will commence his ministerial duties on Sunday.
