

—and how shall measures be suggested, discussed, and carried on, without such an extended and frequent intercourse among the general body, as a monthly periodical alone would furnish the means of sustaining?

A Society has been formed in this country to act in concert with that already existing in Britain; and it is most desirable that all the Baptist Churches in both Provinces should be connected with it. It is, among other objects, for the purpose of inviting them to do so, of supplying them, from time ~~time~~ to time, with information respecting the progress of the cause, and of receiving from them such support as they may deem proper to give, and such suggestions as may occur to them, that the Provisional Committee have determined to issue the work, relying upon the favour of God, and the encouragement of their Christian friends, to enable them to carry it on successfully.

The price has been set as low as the expense of publication will permit, for the purpose of making its circulation as extensive as possible.

Communications on all matters connected with the Society, and hints, remarks, or Essays on all subjects proper for a Religious Miscellany, together with Obituaries and other Intelligence properly authenticated, addressed,

To the Editor of the Canada Baptist Magazine, at Mr. Greig's, Bookseller, Montreal, will be thankfully received. Those intended for any particular number, should come to hand, at latest, by the 20th of the month preceding.

Montreal, May 20, 1837.

THE CANADA BAPTIST MAGAZINE.

WILLIAM CAREY, D. D.

LATE MISSIONARY TO BENGAL, AND PROFESSOR OF ORIENTAL LANGUAGES IN THE COLLEGE OF FORT WILLIAM.

From the long catalogue of illustrious names which adorn the page of modern ecclesiastical history, it would be impossible to select one more appropriate to the design of our work, and more worthy to be placed at the very "head and front" of our attempt to cherish and aid the Missionary spirit in Canada. It is not, however, for the purpose, at present, of narrating the events of his most useful and honorable life, but for that of introducing to our readers the following just and spirited eulogy on his character, from the "Christian Review," that we dignify our pages with his name.

"1. He had strong confidence in the success of his enterprise. His perception of the object to be accomplished was definite and comprehensive; and, while he appreciated the difficulties to be surmounted, he knew