

Declaration
of Exporter.

Declaration
of the Master.

the Name of the Estate, and the Description and Quantity of the Goods, and the Packages containing the same, with the Marks and Numbers thereon, and the Name of the Person to whose Charge at the Place of Shipment they are to be sent; and if any Justice of the Peace or other Officer aforesaid shall subscribe his Name to any Writing purporting to be such a Declaration, unless the Person purporting to make the same shall actually appear before him, and shall declare to the Truth of the same, such Justice of the Peace or Officer aforesaid shall forfeit and pay for any such Offence the Sum of Fifty Pounds; and the Person entering and shipping such Goods shall deliver such Declaration to the Collector or Comptroller or other proper Officer, and shall make and subscribe a Declaration before him that the Goods which are to be shipped by virtue of such Entry are the same as are mentioned in such first-mentioned Declaration; and the Master of the Ship in which such Goods shall be laden shall, before Clearance, make and subscribe a Declaration before the Collector or Comptroller or other proper Officer that the Goods shipped by virtue of such Entry are the same as are mentioned and intended in such first-mentioned Declaration, to the best of his Knowledge and Belief; and thereupon the Collector and Comptroller or other proper Officer shall sign and give to the Master a Certificate of Production, stating that Proof has been made in manner required by Law that such Goods (describing the same) are the Produce of such British Possession, or of the said Island, and setting forth in such Certificate the Name of the Exporter and of the exporting Ship, and of the Master thereof, and the Destination of the Goods; and if any Sugar, Coffee, Cocoa, or Spirits be imported into any British Possession in America, as being the Produce of some other such Possession or of the said Island, without such Certificate of Production, the same shall be forfeited.

Certificate of Production
on Re-exportation
from another Colony.

XLII. And be it enacted, That before any Sugar, Coffee, Cocoa, or Spirits shall be shipped for Exportation in any British Possession in America as being the Produce of some other such Possession, the Person exporting the same shall in the Entry Outwards state the Place of Production, and refer to the Entry Inwards and landing of such Goods, and shall make and subscribe a Declaration before the Collector or Comptroller to the Identity of the same; and thereupon, if such Goods shall have been duly imported with a Certificate of Production within Twelve Months prior to the shipping for Exportation, the Collector and Comptroller shall sign and give to the Master a Certificate of Production founded upon and referring to the Certificate of Production under which such Goods had been so imported, and containing the like Particulars, together with the Date of such Importation.

Goods
brought over
Land or by Inland Navigation.

XLIII. And whereas it is expedient to make Regulation respecting the Inland Trade of the British Possessions in America; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful to bring or import by Land or by Inland Navigation into any of the British Possessions in America from any adjoining Foreign Country any Goods which might be lawfully imported by Sea into such Possession from such Country, and so to bring or import such Goods in the Vessels, Boats, or Carriages of such Country, as well as in British Vessels, Boats, or Carriages.

XLIV. And
