FIGURES NOS. 29 X AND 30 X—LADIES' LONG COATS.
FIGURE NO. 29 X.—(Cut by Pattern No. 2112; 8 sizes; 30 to 44 inches, bust measure; price 1s. or 25 cents.) FIGURE NO. 30 X.—(Cut by Pattern No. 2111; 9 sizes; 30 to 46 inches, bust measure; price 1s. or 25 cents.)

with seal-plush, and it is handsomely trimmed with chinchilla fur bands and a piping of velvet. The pattern is No. 2112, price 1s. or 25 cents.

Pattern No. 2111, costing 1s. or 25 cents, was followed in making a single-breasted Newmarket of fancy coating. The coat is pictured at figure No. 30 X and is a serviceable and trim garment. The back is accurately fitted and made with laps and plaits in regular coat style, and the loose fronts are closed with a fly. A rolling collar reverses the fronts in lapels at the top, and laps cover pockets conveniently placed. Stitching finishes the edges and outlines round cuffs on the sleeves, which may be gathered or plaited.

FIGURES NOS. 31 X, 32 X AND 33 X.—LADIES' SHORT COATS.—An exceptionally smart coat in cutaway style is presented at figure No. 31 X. It is made of gray cloth, with black satin lapels; and a double row of stitching gives a tailor finish. The coat is fitted with the precision of a basque, and the fronts are double-breasted, lapping diagonally, however, and being closed at the left side on the bust with three large buttons and button-holes. Side-skirts joined on in hip seams and with rounding front ends are a stylish feature of the garment, and over them fall large square laps. The sleeves are drawn by a double row of gathers, although plaits would effect quite as stylish an arrangement of the fulness. The coat was made by pattern No. 2099, price 10d. or 20 cents.

The coat shown at figure No. 32 X is quite as correct in outline, yet presents no novel features as does the cutaway coat. The pattern used is No. 2087, price 10d. or 20 cents, and provides that the sleeves may be either gathered or plaited at the top, a double row of gathers having been chosen in this instance. The coat reaches well over the hips and is loose and double-breasted in front but trim-fitting at the back. A shapely coat-collar reverses the front in lapels above the closing, the collar being of velvet, while the coat material is dark-blue chinchilla. The garment is neatly finished with stitching in tailor style.

Another double-breasted coat, pictured at figure No. 33 X, is made of brown cloth, with a velvet collar and bindings of velvet at the edges. The coat fits snugly at the back, but the fronts are only half-close, this effect being produced by single bust darts. Button-holes and pearl buttons make the closing in double-breasted style and below the closing the corners are nicely rounded. The pocket-laps are rounded at their front ends to match. At the top the fronts are rolled back in lapels by a well-shaped rolling collar, and the coat is completed by two-seam sleeves that may be either gathered or plaited at the top. Pattern No. 2127, price 10d. or 20 cents, was used for making this stylish top-garment.
