

- expresses opinion re speech of Chief Justice Smith, 864; his opinion on the rights of the old inhabitants, 864; letter from Carleton, his investigation of the condition of the Province, 865; letter to Carleton on division of the Province, 864; letter to Carleton, re granting Canadians a House of Assembly, 864; letter from Carleton, recommending that Crown Lands be granted in free and common socage, 946; petition from British merchants trading with Quebec for a House of Assembly, 952; on the conflicting tendencies of the applications for a change in the constitution, 956; letter to Carleton, requesting a report on the civil state of the Province, 956; remarks concerning Protestant religion, note 1, p. 1030.
- St. John's, island of, (Prince Edward Island) annexed to government of Nova Scotia, 165; Dorchester to repair to and take command at, whenever he deems it expedient, 814.
- St. Leger, selected to command expedition against United States, note 5, p. 676; placed in command of military affairs in the absence of Haldimand in England, 1784, note 2, p. 777.
- St. Luc, LaCorne, member of legislative council, 713. See also LaCorne.
- St. Martin, Dumas, justice of the peace at Montreal, note 3, p. 531.
- St. Maurice Forges, account of, 85; reservation of land, necessary for carrying on, 198, 318, 456 609, 832.
- St. Ours, Paul Rocque, member of legislative council, references to, 697, 713, 816, 854, 858, 866, 867, 869, 870, 871, 872, 874, 875, 879, 880, 882, 883, 884, 885, 886.
- St. Pierre and Miquelon, ceded conditionally to France by Treaty of Paris, 100, 116 (see also p. 135).
- Tachet, M., grand juror at Quebec, 214, 216.
- Taxation, suggestion for creation of revenue by, 265; Council prohibited from levying taxes, note 1, p. 746; objections raised to the imposition of taxes by House of Assembly, 754, 757, 758, 761 (see also p. 598); petition of Roman Catholics setting forth that Colony is not in a position to be taxed, 763, 765; considered in relation to objections to House of Assembly, 974. See also Duties.
- Tenure of Land. See Land Tenure.
- Terre en Roture, explanation of, 52.
- Test oaths, required from members of assembly, 379, 384.
- Three Rivers, report on state of government of, 81; state of fortifications and defence, 83; remarks of Burton on inhabitants, 87; inhabitants petition King for House of Assembly, 749; suggestion to form a district for the administration of justice at, 904; merchants of, suggest the establishment of a weekly court for the recovery of small debts, 930; representations of citizens at, 930, 934; protest of inhabitants re delay in circuit courts, 931, 935; inhabitants request the establishment of a civil prison, 932, 936; suggestion as to limits of district, 932, 936.
- Thompson, Zachariah, Captain of Ports, Quebec, 47.
- Thurlow, Attorney General Edward, reports on mode of government with abstract propositions for its improvement, 437; source of text in this volume, notes pp. 424, 437.
- Timber Limits, provision for, 198, 318, 608, 832.
- Tithes, regulations proposed, 435, 603, 823.
- Townshend, Brigadier General George, references to, 1, 4, 5, 7, 131.
- Townshend, Brigadier General George, extract from his despatch, re capitulation of Quebec, 1; signs articles of capitulation of Quebec, 4, 7.
- Townshend, Thomas. See Sydney.
- Trade, merchants and inhabitants to enjoy full privileges of, 21, 34; under French regime, 76; remarks on, 84, 85; in Louisiana, 96; contraband between St. Pierre and Miquelon, and Newfoundland, 135; prohibition of contraband, 200, 201; effect of Pontiac's rebellion on, 233; representation by British merchants at Quebec on the condition of, 233; British traders of Quebec complain of the restriction of, 233; merchants in London and Quebec seek the advancement of, 235; rules to be observed by the Governor in Council in passing laws relating to, 186, 305, 597, 819; English laws affecting commerce applied to Quebec, 335; in Canada carried on chiefly by English merchants, 500; instructions to Carleton relating to, 620; contraband trade infringes on rights of the United East India Company, 632; Chief Justice Hey's remarks on unsatisfactory state of, 671; plan for the establishment of a Chamber of Commerce for the city and district of Quebec, 692; merchants of Quebec protest against ordinances relating to, 695; Haldimand's remarks on the law concerning, 719; Governor and Council authorized to make ordinance in favour of, 733; ordinances passed in 1787 and 1788 relative to trade and commerce with the United States, note 1, p. 734; suggestion that the commercial laws of England, subject to the Legislature, be declared law in all matters of, 744; commercial laws of England referred to, 755, 759; clause in ordinance of 1785 providing for English rules of evidences in commercial cases, 784; executions against lands and goods, 791; remarks of the British merchants trading with Quebec on the exports and imports of the Province, 798; remarks on trade with Newfoundland, 798; trade with Vermont, 798; British merchants trading with Quebec petition for regulations as proposed for Newfoundland, 798; inconveniences of colonial navigation acts bearing on the timber and fur trade, note 1, p. 800; representations that exclusive trading companies would promote trade, 815; Carleton to report on, 815; regulations in Carleton's instructions of 1786 re peltry, 827; Finlay's opinion that