

5. The questions will be numbered, and the full number of marks assigned to each question will also be shown in the margin of the printed examination paper.

6. The date and hour for the issue of each examination paper, and the full time allowed for answering the whole set of questions, will be plainly stated at the head of each paper.

7. The examiners, whether members of the Board or sub-examiners, shall exercise the greatest possible care that no information relative to the questions shall become known before the hour fixed for passing the papers to the Candidates.

8. Should the Board at any time have reason to suppose that any Candidates have copied from each other, or have obtained information relative to the subjects for examination from improper sources, the results of the examinations, in respect to such Candidates, shall be held in suspense until the Board shall have made a thorough investigation of the circumstances, and if the sub-examiners should have cause to suspect irregularities of the kind, they will at once report them to the Board.

9. A set of examination papers on each subject shall be provided, and all the papers on such subject shall be enclosed in one envelope, bearing an endorsement specifying the subject and the number of papers contained therein, and said envelope shall only be opened when the time has arrived for the examination on that subject, and in the presence of the Candidates.

10. The stationery necessary for carrying out the examination shall be supplied by the Board, and each sheet of paper used by the Candidates shall be written on one side only.

11. No other person than the examiner in charge and the Candidates shall be admitted into the examination rooms.

12. The examiners shall refrain from communicating to any person the apparent or presumed results of the examinations until the same have been officially announced.

13. The Candidates shall, if possible, be placed five feet apart during the examinations.

14. No books, maps or diagrams bearing on the subjects of the examinations shall be allowed in the examination rooms.

15. The Candidates should all be seated five minutes before the commencement of the examinations, and no Candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination room later than fifteen minutes after the time prescribed for the commencement of a subject. Nor shall any Candidate be permitted to leave the room during his own treatment of a subject, but so soon as he has finished his paper he may hand it to the examiner, after which he will have liberty to retire; but he will not be allowed to re-enter until the time fixed for the commencement of the next subject.

16. Perfect silence shall be observed during the time devoted to the examinations.
